VICINITY CHIPS

Artemesia Township Council will meet on Monday next.

Anyone wanting sawdust may have it at Rock Mills by coming for it.

Miss Mary Burton of Woodbridge is a guest of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Bunt.

Mr. Henry Holman underwent an operation for tumor in Toronto on Monday.

The Advance is a few hours late this week owing to our paper supply having gone astray.

Miss Marguerite Runstadtler gave a birthday party to about 24 little people on Monday.

Mrs. R. Best is spending a couple of weeks with her daughter, Mrs. E. Simmons, of Riverview.

Some of the muzzles used hereabouts might as well be on the dog's tail, as far as usefulness is concerned.

Mrs. W. H. Crawford and daughter, Helen, of Sarnia, visited the former's sister, Mrs. Jos. Blackburn, last week.

The annual meeting of the Flesherton Hotel Co. has been called for Friday, March 11, as will be seen by advertisement elsewhere.

Durham collected $140 in dog taxes last year. Couldn't Flesherton produce enough from a similar source to pay interest on the sidewalk debentures?

Wednesday of last week was an off mail day here. The noon train was cancelled owing to the storm and the 9 p. m. train did not arrive until 2 a. m. next day.

Enoch Warden, for the past five years on the section gang between Waldemar and Fraxa Junction, is now residing at Priceville, where he has been appointed section boss.

Mr. Lou Fisher was suddenly called to the death bed of his mother at Bury, Quebec, last week. Mrs. Fisher lived only two hours after his arrival. She was 78 years of age.

During the series of hockey matches between the High School and town teams the former was invariably the winner. The question naturally arises: Do they teach hockey, too, at the Academy?

Mr. A. R. Latter, representing the Toronto Star, was in town on Saturday and did considerable business for his popular paper. He has made arrangements with R. J. Sproule to have Stars delivered every evening after the arrival of the night train.

Peddlers are not allowed to call out their wares in Chicago. The idea is to eliminate unnecessary noises. Bring your Chicagoans to Flesherton if their nerves trouble them. We have room to spare, and not too much racket either.

Word was received here last week of the serious illness of R. J. Tucker, son of Mr. W. A. Tucker of this place, with pneumonia in Toronto. His mother went down on Friday to assist in nursing him. R. J. was up here only two weeks ago.

The fourth paragraph of "Farmer's" letter re a market, published last week, lost its meaning through an unfortunate omission. It should have read: "Now, the nature of such a market would mean the bringing of the producer and consumer closer together and cutting out the middlemen with their profits."

After the cold and stormy weather of February it was a welcome change to warmer and more spring-like weather this week. A thaw on Saturday and Sunday reduced the volume of snow but had a rather bad effect on the roads. For the past few days the thermometer has been slightly above freezing, and the wood piles have had a respite.

The editor of this paper has a small flock of 29 Rhode Island Red hens, whose laying record for this winter may be of interest to our readers. They began laying about Dec. 1 last. During January there were only 27 hens in the flock, and these laid 159 eggs, or 12 dozen and 3. The February record from 29 hens was 327, or 27 dozen and 3 eggs—39 dozen and a half during the two months.

An Arctic expedition is the latest thing over at Chesley. A couple start out on snowshoes in the evening in search of the pole, and the rest of the party follow, later on, also on snowshoes, and follow the trail to its destination, which has been kept a profound secret. Provisions including Cookies are shipped ahead. This form of amusement is said to produce a lot of fun, and would no doubt be popular here if introduced.

The writer of this item saw a rather remarkable sight the other day in his hen house. A mouse with considerable mousely bravado ventured into the open, when a hen, quick as a flash, grabbed Mr. Mouse by the tail. The other hens thought they, too, would like to have a little mouse steak, so they began chasing the biddy who had made the capture. The mouse hung head downward and squealed "to beat the band" (a very appropriate simile, by the way). Occasionally the hen would get a short breathing spell and would then pound its victim on the ground, but was forced by the others to keep moving most of the time and could not get sufficient opportunity to complete the mouse's destruction. It reminded one of a football match. Thinking to render assistance the writer took hold of the hen, but as soon as he did so she let go her hold and mousie got away. This is a plain, unvarnished tale, and is something new in the line of hen experience. Did anyone ever before hear of a mouse-catching hen? The hen is a Rhode Island Red and this incident adds another valuable characteristic to the breed.

With The Churches.

A movement is on foot to purchase a new pipe organ for the Flesherton Methodist church. At a board meeting on Friday night it was announced that Andrew Carnegie would give a handsome donation towards the organ fund. The subscription list is now almost complete, there being only a matter of some sixty more dollars to secure.

Rev. Mr. Laughland of the Baptist church was a visitor at the Methodist church Sunday evening and was requisitioned by the pastor to deliver the sermon. Mr. Laughland, though taken at a disadvantage, generously came forward and delivered an excellent sermon.

Under the direction of the interim moderator, Rev. J. A. Matheson of Priceville, the Presbyterian congregations of Flesherton, Eugenia and Proton Station held a joint meeting in Chalmer's church here on Monday afternoon to select a pastor from the candidates heard and Rev. G. S. Milligan, M. A., of Kingston Presbytery, was unanimously chosen. The call, in which is offered $850 stipend, with four weeks' holidays, will be laid before the Presbytery of Orangeville on Tuesday next and the congregations hope for a speedy settlement. Mr. Milligan, who is an unmarried man in the prime of life, is a forceful, thoughtful and finished preacher and comes highly recommended from his former charge. He is a native of New Brunswick, and a graduate of Halifax Presbyterian College. Two years ago he resigned his charge near Kingston to take a post graduate course in Edinburgh and London from where he recently returned to resume pastoral work.

The members of the Baptist church at their meeting on Wednesday last decided to call for an assistant pastor for the summer months. This will provide for an evening service at Flesherton as well as at Rockvale. This means two services every Sunday in Flesherton, a provision very acceptable to many who otherwise would find it hard to attend. The assistant comes in May. On Wednesday evening next the pastor, Rev. J. V. Laughland, will deliver the next of the special sermons, the subject being "What Are the Blessings of the Kingdom of God." On Sunday morning next the subject will be "The Reality of Heaven." Everybody welcome.

The Guild social in the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening was well attended and a pleasant time was spent, with net proceeds of $10.

Chief of Police Speers, and Nightwatchman Halbert, of Orangeville, who figured in the various attempts to arrest Bob Cook, have resigned. The former has secured a good position in Toronto, and the latter is going West to take up farming. The town has secured two good men as their successors. Sam Ewing has been appointed chief, and Hugh A. Duke nightwatchman, who enter into their duties on Tuesday next.

A son of Mr. Pat McGarity of North Brant was loading logs on a sleigh in the woods on Thursday last when a log rolled back pinning him to the ground and breaking his leg just above the ankle.

Notes of the Women's Institute.

The Vandeleur branch will hold their annual social on Friday, March 4th. A good program is being prepared. Tea served from 7 o'clock. Admission 25c a couple, 15c single, 10c for children. Will be held in the school house.

The Kimberley and Vandeleur branches met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Myles, "Springbrook Farm," Kimberley, on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 24th. Papers were read by Mrs. Geo. Warling, on "Decoration of the Interior of the Home;" Miss Tillie Buchanan, on "Habits;" and Mrs. W. Hutchinson. Mrs. S. Thompson of the Kimberley branch gave a splendid paper on "Health and Home" in which she spoke of plenty of sunlight, fresh air and exercise. Walking is one exercise very beneficial to the health. Vocal and instrumental music was supplied by Mrs. Myles, Miss Maud Fawcett and Mrs. G. H. Walter. Discussions on the various papers were led by the members. As an invitation was given by the Vandeleur branch to the Kimberley friends to attend their meeting at the home of Mrs. Jos. Buchanan on March 24th it was decided that the Kimberley branch should cancel their meeting for March.

A. O. U. W. Open Meeting.

The open meeting of the A. O. U. W. held in the town hall Friday evening was fairly well attended. The chair was occupied by Recorder C. Munshaw. Ceylon string band was present and rendered several choice selections. The feature of the evening was an address by the General Organizer, Mr. J. H. Junghans, who spoke at length on fraternal societies and the Workmen in particular. D. D. G. M. Henry of Orangeville also addressed the gathering. Other numbers on the program were: Solos by Mrs. Blackburn, Miss Mabel Boyd and Miss Irene Wilson. Mr. Junghans, the speaker of the evening, is an interesting talker and placed the order in a very favorable light indeed. The lodge here is a strong one and received the district prize last year for adding the largest number of new members.

Besides Halleys comet, two other comets may be expected in 1910. The first of these is Tempel's, discovered July 3rd, 1873, at Milan. It has a period of 5.75 years. It was observed in 1878, 1894, 1899, and 1904. It last passed the perihelion in November. It ought, therefore, to be expected this spring. The second of the expected comets is that of Arrest, discovered in 1851, and the return of which is expected in the summer of this year. It was observed in 1857, 1870, 1877, 1890 and 1907. It was unfortunately placed in 1903 and, therefore, could not be observed.

HORSE'S LEG SWELLED

Animal Was Too Sore and Lame to Work—Quickly Cured by "Nerviline."

"I have had a long experience in treating horses, and I can safely say that I know of no liniment for strains, sprains, and swelling that is so useful around the stable as Nerviline." Thus writes Mr. Joshua E. Murchison, from his home, Crofts Hill P. O. I had a fine young mare that wrenched her right fore leg, and from the shoulder down she was stiff, sore, and swollen. I applied Nerviline, and it worked like a charm; in fact, that mare was in shape to work a day after I used Nerviline.

Nerviline Is a Trusty Liniment

"We have used Nerviline on our farm for twenty-five years and never found it wanting. For man or beast it is a wonderful liniment."

We have received nearly five thousand letters, recommending Nerviline as a general household liniment, as an all-round cure for aches and pains. One million bottles used each year. Try it yourself. Large bottles of Nerviline 50c; trial size, 25c. All dealers, or The Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

NERVILINE FOR MAN OR BEAST

The sports of Grand Valley are experimenters and believe in the Scripture admonition to "Prove all things, hold fast to that which is good." The Star says: It is often said that things go in spasms or spells, either a deluge or drouth, a storm or a calm. This just about fits the sporting or pleasure privileges of Grand Valley. A few years ago everyone played tennis, baseball, lacrosse, or drove a fast horse. Then there was a reaction and the boys took to playing marbles, spining tops or playing euchre. Last summer bowling on the green occupied the attention of nearly everyone, while the winter evenings have been most enthusiastically engaged in skating or curling in one of the best rinks in the province. Just to add a surfeit of the good things, a stranger was in town this week investigating the prospects for opening up a bowling alley, while a local sport talks about putting in a billiard and pool table.
