SARRATH SCHOOL PICNIC.—Our affinest, as picnic came off on Thursday, 17th inst., as Curran's landing, Balsam lake, where avery pleasant afternoon was spent at base bail, swinging, loating and other games. One accident occurred but it did not prove very serious. While Edmund Watson and William Suggist were both running for the William Suggitt were both running for the ball they collided, striking their faces together. Watson had his lip cut open and his jaw bruised; Suggitt escaped unin-

CONCERT.—The open temple siven on Friday evening by the members of Blooming Rose lodge was a success. The concert given in connection with it was also a grand success. That interest is taken in temperance matters in this place and also in our thriving lodge is easily seen by the large number present on this occasion. Several ladies from Cannington ably sentired our local talent and our thanks are due them.

[Correspondence of The Post.]

Onit.—The funeral of the late Walter Cook took place at Inguideby yesterday (Sunday) and was the larguest and most respectable guthering of the kind ever seen in this part. A very able and impreseive sermon was preached by our new minister. Rev. Mr. Thomas of Minden, which deeply affected all present, as the deceased was a young man highly respected, of good moral character and presented of the place, in getting out timber, and after ten in company with a few young men went to bothe at the lake, where he met his sad and untimely end deepste all efforts made by his companions to save him. Both Mr. and Mrs. Cook have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole companions to show that William III, and his principles will not soon be foresten by his adherents in this county. Although the morning was very unfavorable the people from the adjoining townships were present at a comparatively early hour, Kinmount lodge being the first, headed by their veteras master, James Wilson, and other subordinates. Next came Boyne lodge, Adam Donnelly, master, and so on till all the lodges were present, all being made welcome by our highly respected maeter, Michael Newall, who, in company with his brother Orangemen, did all that lay is his power to promote the welfare and good standing of the organization; in fact the expensive regulatand splendid equipments of the lodge "Snowden Centre" would compare favorably with any lodge in our frontier cities or towns. After dinner the whole concourse of people numbering about eight hundred repaired to Mr. Mellwain's grove to listen to the very enthusiastic speeches made by some of Camada's best, men, after which they all repaired to their different homes highly pleased with the day's sport.

PETERBORO.

Bainging the Midland to Time.—At the last meeting of the Peterboro council the following resolution was passed:—
"Coun. Rutherford moved, seconded by Coun.King, that whereas the claim of Mr. Kingan for damages done to his property on Bethune at, by the construction of the 'missing link" was referred to arbitration and such arbitration has been held and an unanimous award made, it is resolved that this council instruct their clerk to notify Mr. J. Hickson, president of the Midland Ratiway Co. and manager of the Grand Trunk ratiway that if the amount of award so made is not paid to Mr. Kinghan on or before the 3ist July next the council will have the ratis connecting the missing link PETERBORO.

railway and will not permit them to be laid down again."

A DARING BURGLARY—$3,000 STOLEN FROM THE PRTERHOROUGH POST-OFFICE.—Some time during Friday night or Saturday morning the post-office was entered by burglars and everything of value that they could lay their hands on was carried away. When Mr. Burritt, the chief clerk, went to the post-office at about six o'clock Saturday morning he was surprised to find the front door open, and on entering he saw a sledge and other tools lying on the floor. The safe door was open, and the evidences of a visit from burglars were plentiful. Mr. Burritt called a gentleman in to watch the premises while he notified Col. H. Rogers, postmaster, of the occurrence. The exact extent of the lose cannot be ascertained, as it is not known what sums were contained in the registered letters, but it is believed that the burglars must have obtained, in money and stamps, at least $3,000. There was in the safe $412 received as deposite and for money orders on Friday afternoon after the banks were closed, and Col. Rogers had $150 in cash in the safe. Other sums raised the amount of cash in the safe to $600. A stock of stamps, $1,000 worth, had been received on Friday, and there was between $300 and $400 worth of stamps in the office besides. These were all taken, there being only two dellars worth left in the office. The registered letters were kept in the safe in a small cabinet, together with the books containing the records. Some of these letters were opened and the envelopes left on the floor of the safe, but the cabinet was carried away with the remaining letters and books. A deposit slip found on the floor showed that one letter contained $436, which had been sent to be deposited in the Bank of Montresi. It was received in the FROM THE PETERHOROUGH POST-OFFICE.—Some time during Friday night or Satur

ried away with the remaining letters and books. A deposit slip found on the floor showed that one letter contained $430, which had been sent to be deposited in the Bank of Montreal. It was received in the Hank of Montreal. It was received in the Lakefield mail after the close of the bank and thus became part of the spoils of the burghars. The tools used by the burghars, or a portion of them at least, were stolen from Messre, Porter Broe, carriage factory. The crackamen had first entered this factory and secured a sledge, brace and bit, two chisels, a coal chisel, a punch and two hammers. They got these from the blacksmith and wood-working shops, evidently unlecking one door and passing out through another, which was sectired on the inside by a button. The burghars entered the post-office by a door is the rear. This door opens into a small enclosed yard. It was forced open by a "jimmy" or chisel, and when inside the thieves opened the front door and the door leading into Col. Rogers office. The other doors were evidently opened so that if they were disturbed while at the work they would have more than one way of exit. The front door was forced open and then held shut by paper stuffed under it, and the other one was evidently opened with a key. The handle in the combination lock of the safe was broken off. A small hole was defilled into the fron door and through this a charge of some explosive was inserted isse the lock and with it the leek of the safe was broken off. A small hole was drilled into the fron door and thermore and the robbers had access to the contents of the safe. The explosion forced out the movable iron directly over one of the boits. By this means the boits were worked back with a sharp pointed instrument and the robbers had access to the contents of the safe. The explosion forced out the movable iron which formed the keybole, said that made the third small hole in the door. Two persons sleeping in the Little Windsor hotel heard the other for the safe, were not taken at the office, which are alw

Investigation.—Last Wednesday and Thursday Dr. Hodgins, deputy-minister of education, held a court here as commissioner to hear and investigate certain charges by the school board against Mr. Elliott. The evidence for the prosecution was heard the first day and for the defence was heard the first day and for the defence was beard day. Mr. J. B. Smith of Lindsay, appeared for the board; Mr. Elliott conducted his own case. Mr. Hedgins will report to the minister of education.

Campine,—Un Friday of last week Dr. Higginbotham and wife and R. Hurlson returned home after spending a few days on Pigeon lake. On Monday last a party of young men, composed of W. Bradburn, pleased with their trip and report fishing good.

SELF-BINDERS.—On Monday last a trial of two self-binders on Mr. Chas. Shaw's farm, just west of the village, of which Mr. W. Bastey and Mr. R. McQuade are the agents, drew quite a crowd to witness the performance. As yet Mr. Shaw has not decided which he will buy, but when he has another trial on the spring wheat it is likely he will do so.

BADLY FRIGHTENED.—On Monday last one of our leading merchants and our paragon hotel-keeper got wind of an odd-looking man being in town, and all afternoon our two prominent citizens kept their eyes upon him, fearing he might be one of the advanced sharpers of King, Burk & Co.'s circus. Securing a couple of revolvers, a rusty dagger and two pairs of wooden-sele boots, they prepared to sit up during the night, fearing they might be robbed of all they were worth, but at one o'clock they parted, seeing no sign of the stranger, and went to bed contented. It is supposed the burglar heard of their preparations to meet him and skipped out, as he has not been seen since eight o'clock that night.

No other circus that requires transports. tion through the section of country traversed by the Grand Trunk railway will visit Canada this year, as Forepaugh has a contract with that railway to transport his shew exclusively. This bargain, it is said, was made at great expense.

The first and probably the most successful excursi on of the season was that of the Methodist Sunday school to Beaverton on Friday. A train of twelve covered coaches was provided, and the trip over the line was speedy and comfortable. Dinner was served at the picnic ground on the shore of Lake Simcoe. The ground is an admirable one, swings and other means of amusement are on the ground and those accessaries of a picnic, hot and ice water and attendance are provided by the care-taker. After dinner the time was pleasantly passed until five o'clock, when the train was taken, the party reaching Lindsay shortly after six o'clock. One of the features of the day's pastimes was a base ball match between a team of the beys and a pleked nine made up of the teachers and officers of the school. The game though not a scientific one was interesting—but the league rules were broken in fifteen places. The boys were inclined to be magnanimous and let their opponents off with a beating of 14 to 2 runs. In deference to the feelings of the defeated the score is not printed—but it must not happen again. dist Sunday school to Beaverton on Friday. A Considering all the ills that attack little, children it is a wonder that any of the poor little youngsters live to grow up.

There are children who are truly objects of pity. They seem almost bloodless. Their checks are thin and pinched; their eyes are hollow; and their skin is tightly drawn over their fereinsade. There is nothing hearty about them. They do not enjoy their lives. They are suffering from the debility that leads to maranus. Poor things!

Do a good deed for the pale, poor pany, pallid child. Hand its mother a bottle of the smarter flood Syrup. Here is life even for the most debilitated; for the child almost given up for dead. Pure blood is what the child almost given up for dead.

most delicate, the most debilitated; for the child almost given up for dead. Pure blood is what the child needs to bring it up. The little dignetive apparatus will recover; the pale cheese will fill out; the wear gross of the child will be exchanged for the merry practic of intentine gladness. Your druggist will tell you what wonders the Shaker Bleed Syrup has done for very sick children. —15-cow-2.
