

Dundas & Favelle Bros.

SOME SPECIALS FOR THE PEOPLE OF WHICH WE WANT YOU TO HAVE KNOWLEDGE.

$9.00 worth for $5.50 in the way of an Overcoat. Actually less than the cost of the material it is made of. This chance let we can sell at $5.50 and yet make a profit, having bought them at a great job. Readers will remember that we advertise a cheap trap, but when we have a good thing we want people to know, and the $5.50 coat, if anything, is better value than our $1.00 Fine Tweed, so well known this fall.

A young man named W. Tapley, who was a hotelkeeper in Brighton, was ar raigned before the police magistrate at Chatham on Wednesday for sending threatening letters to Mr. and Mrs. P. J.

Kemp to deter them in using their influ ence in getting the petition signed for the abolition of the Scott act in the united provinces. The evidence adduced was sufficient for the police magistrate sending the prisoner up for trial, bail being ac cepted from the prisoner for $1,000 and two securities for $50 each.

SALVATION ARMY.—A number from the Methodist Working Band, together with a detachment of the salvation army, came from Lindsay last Sunday and con ducted a series of meetings in the Meth odist church here. The zeal and devo tion manifested by the band commended them to the overflowing congregations present, and although some of the pecu liarities in response, etc., are not generally accepted, yet they certainly created a warmth of feeling caused by the presence of the Spirit that constrained many to give expression to the words "It is good for us to be here. May much good follow their efforts through life.

FIRE.—On Monday night between nine and ten o'clock the dwelling house of Mr.

St. Nicholas, at the corner of the main and Victoria streets, was destroyed by fire. The family, who had retired for the night, were aroused by the presence of smoke. They at once applied water to the flames, but the fire was too strong for them, and the house, which was a frame one, was soon entirely con sumed. There was an insurance of $700 on the building. The cause of the fire is unknown.

ROOFS.—The farmers in this vicinity are busy with the harvest, and the weather is generally favorable for the work.
