DINNER ON THE WALK

The other night a man driving between Tobermory and Wiarton came across an unusual sight. On the road was a load of hay proceeding slowly and walking behind were two young deer, munching hay as they walked, quite happy and unconcerned.

GREAT ARTISTS

"Speaking of artists, my brother is a wonderful painter. One day when father wa having his afternoon nap my brother painted two rabbits on the top of his bald head, and they were so lifelike that everyone mistook them for hairs (hares)."

"That's nothing, my brother painte a hen on a piece of cardboard, and when it was put on the table it laid there."

"Well my brother can beat that. One day he painted a mustard plaster on the outside wall of the prison and it was so natural that it drew his pal out of the prison where he was doing six months for perjury."

EUGENIA
