The Canadian Post.

LINDSAY, ONT., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1885.

TERMS, $1.00 PER YE

IMPORTANT BUSINESS CHANGE! Great CLEARING Sale

DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS.

In view of some important changes in our business after the 1st of January, we propose having a Grand Clearing Sale so that our Stock may be reduced to the lowest possible point by that date.

ON SATURDAY, THE 23RD INST., THE SALE COMMENCES,

When our enormous stock will be placed before the public at GREATLY REDUCED PRICES. Every department will have been thoroughly gone through and re-marked to prices that must accomplish our purpose. We want it distinctly understood that our sale does not simply embrace some special lines or classes of goods. It takes in the whole stock of

GENERAL DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, MILLINERY, MANTLES AND CARPETS.

Thus affording the public an opportunity of securing Cheap Goods at a time when Winter Supplies are needed and the stock in every department is full.

It is a well known fact that we have never kept low priced stuff, even at the risk of sometimes being thought dear, we have persistently TO KEEP TRASHY GOODS, and what we now offer at SALE PRICES are the Very Best Goods to be had in the Market.

ONE PRICE AND ONLY ONE will be our emphatic Rule, as our prices are reduced so low that they cannot be questioned. Want of confidence between purchaser and merchant has led to a habit of bantering, which, as a rule of trade, is all wrong. Therefore we ask our people to give us cheerful co-operation in our system of One Price.

DUNDAS & FLAVELLE BROS.

The Canadian Lost.

Lindsov, November 18, 1885. - 67-2

CHARLES D. BARR, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR:

HANGED AT REGINA.

RIEL DIES ON THE SCAFFOLD.

He Meets Death Like a Brave Man. Last Moments of the Motis Leader.

Intense Indignation in Lower Can-

Chaplean Hanged in Effigy.

The Execution REGINA, N. W.T., November 16th .- The morning opened bright and clear, and frost had fallen. At eight o'clock the execution party went up the rickety ladder upetsirs and proceeded along the left to the far end, fore starting tor the scaffold not to make a where was found Louis Riel, kneeling near the door leading to the scaffold with Pere STOOD ON THE DROP, with his face turned northward. Pere Andre and Father McWilliams continued to pray, and Riel said in English. "I do sek the forgiveness of all men and forgive all my enemies." He then prayed a short time tinuing to repeat prayers for the dying. Exactly at 8.23 the drop fell, giving a shock to all present. The rope shock violently for a moment, awaying back and forth, then quivered. The length of the drop was eight feet. At the first moment of the fall Rici's body remained still, his knees drawn up violently. Three or four times the body swaved to and fro outvering, and Riet was From the first moment of the drop to the time when the body became quiescent was under two minutes.

The Last Moments in the Cell. REGINA, N.W.T., Nov. 16. Riel's concluding hours were passed in the solecompany of his spiritual adviser, who performed mass during the early portion of the night for him. Riel then lay down and appenred to siven soundly, awakening at an early hour and again resuming his devotions. The same extraordinary precautions against the possible escape of Riel or intrusion into the barracks of unauthorized persons was observed this morning. At challenged all persons and compelled them to show written passes. Other lines of guards were stationed at points near the post, and the same precautions were observed. No one was permitted to enter the gnard-room until 8 12 o'clock.

THE SCENE PRESENTED Riel Prays for Sir John Macdonald, then was that of Riel in his cell, with Pere Andre and Father McWilliams with him ada.

sir John Macdonald, Langevin and sinces that partook of the Indian that was tated into eternity. As the condemned man appeared on the scaffold the few spectators present held their breath in dumb expectancy. As the bolt was drawn an involuntary sigh escaped which took the form of expression. Possibly no hanging in French. The executioner now took his place, the white can was drawn over Riel's head, both priests lighted candles, and constrenuously declared he deserved his fate, felt a pang of sorrow which must always arise on the death of a brave man, no mat-Exactly at 8.23.30 on the morning of Mouday, Nov. 16, 1885, Louis Riel paid the pen-day, Nov. 16, 1885, Louis Riel paid the pensity for heading a rebellion against the rulers of the country of his nativity and the best interests of that country. It was a sat and solemn spectacle. One that will be remembered for all time.

After Sheriff Chapleau had read the warrant for his execution to him last night. Pere Andre entered the doomed man's cell and up to the hour of death was never absent from his side. Together they prayed the whole night long, Riel being most fervent. Towards 3 a.m. he dezed and finally slept soundly. Pere Andre watch him as vent. Towards 3 a.m. he dezed and finally slept soundly. Pere Andre watch him as he slept. Shortly before six o'clock Riel awoke and from that time until eight o'clock, when the fatal bell began to toll, he prayed without cessing.

Some delay took place in preparing the scaffold, owing to some bungling, but at 8.15 all was announced to be ready. Riel was then excorted up the fatal stairs and attended by Pere Andre and Rev. Wm. Mc Williams he again knelt in prayer. At times he was inaudible, but ever and again times he was inaudible, but ever and again his words, deep and earnest, could be plainly distinguished above the subduert and gentle voices of the priests. At 8.18 the executioner advanced and pinioned his arms behind him, and he was conducted, not led, directly to the trap, whence he was to open his eyes in the great hereafter. As he stood there he maked for two minutes. Andre and Father McWilliams with him celebrating mass. Riet was on bended knees, wearing a loose woollen surtout, gray trousers and woollen surtout, gray trousers that parteok of the Indian that was on him trequeat it was denied, and while he was uttering the words, "Jesu Marie, sesistez mo!" the white cap was adjusted, the two ministers repeated the Lord's prayer, but as that was hiesecond or third requeat it was denied, and while he was uttering the words, "Jesu Marie, sesistez mo!" the white cap was adjusted, the was uttering the words, "Jesu Marie, sesistez mo!" the white cap was delied, and while he was uttering the words, "Jesu Marie, sesistez mo!" the white cap was delied, and while he was uttering the words, "Jesu Marie, sesistez mo!" the white cap was delied, and while he was uttering the words, "Jesu Marie, sesistez mo!" the white cap was delied, and while he was uttering the words, "Jesu Marie, sesistez mo!" the white cap was delied, and while he was uttering the words, "Jesu Marie, sesistez mo!" the white cap was delied, and while he was uttering the words, "Jesu Marie, sesistez mo!" the white cap was delied, and while he was uttering the words, "Jesu Marie, sesistez mo!" the white cap was delied, and while he was uttering the words. "Jesu Marie, sesistez mo!" the white cap was delied, and while he was uttering t he repeated the prayerful exclamation, half a smile lit up his face. Descending down a sprung, and Louis Riel was precipiately a few steps of the scaffold, he taken place for political purposes, that this council do adjourn as a protest against an odious violation of the laws of justice and After the city council meeting this after-

After the city council meeting this after noon speeches were delivered from the city hall steps by Hon. Mr. Mercier, most of the city aldermen, Boivin, Hon. Louis Beaubien, Alfred Perry, J. G. H. Bergeron and others. Most of the speakers counselled moderation. Alfred Perry was particularly violent, declaring that Riel had been ed by the government at the instigation of Ontario Orangemen. He also severely criticised the 65th battalion for gomedals for them ought to bear the stamp of the gibbet. The premier, he said, should be hung for burning the parliament build-be hung for burning the parliament buildings at Montreal.

To-night about four hundred students started from Victoria university, but when they reached the Champ de Mars they had been augmented by from five to ten thousand people. They carried French flags, transparencies and efficies of Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir Hector Langevin, Hon. J. A. Chapleau, Sir A. P. Caron, Col. Onimet and others. On the Champ de Mars Chapand others. On the Champ de Mars Chapleau and Langevin's effigies were burned. While on the Champ de Mars revolver while on the champ de mars revolver shots were exchanged with the police, but no one was hurt. They then proceeded to Victoria Square, where Sir John's effigy was burned in front of the queen's statue on the square. Quite a large body of police were present, but did not seem to care to interfere. When the efficy was burned a party cut it down with the remark, "Ce maudit serpent!" (There goes the cursed serpent.) The queen's statue was much blackened. After marching through the blackened. After marching through the west end of the city the crowd dispersed.

The Feeling in Quebec City.

QUEBEC, Nov. 16.-The intense feeling of the French Canadian people on the Riel execution demonstrated itself here to-day in the display of flags-draped in crape or at half mast in all parts of the city. The St. Jean Bantist society met at two o'clock and made the matter a national affair by formulating an emphatic protest and ordering the society's flags to be hoisted and kent at half-mast upon the president's house for eight days. The feeling throughout the town all day was exceedingly intense, and culminated to-night in one of the greatest public meetings ever held in Quebec East. At least 15,000 people were present, and Bleus and Rouges alike vied with each in condemning the government. The result of this gathering, which was exceedingly violent in the Europealans and resolves. prayers for the dying. Dr. Jukes stood eloss by, also Shertiff Chaples at the late moment to make an address, but Person of Denuite Shertiff Gibbon filled the dangling be done. The seminded him of his provise, and her arose and walked toward the expendence was visible dangling be addressed. Movement to make an address, but Person of Denuite Shertiff Gibbon filled the dangling be done. The seminded him of his provise, and her arose and walked toward the expendence of the seminded him of his provise to the last house was visible dangling be ing "Mert. Jesus, to gootstore not to struggle. A number of several part of the last number of several part of the colors of the last number of several part of the last nu bat it by every legal and constitutional means in our power; that the conduct of Sir John Macdonald in yielding to Orangeism rather than to the principles of justice, which obtain among all civilized nations, has rendered himself unworthy to preside over the government of this country; that this meeting condemns with all the force with which it is possible the conduct of Sir A. P. Caron, who in assisting at the Winnipeg banquet proved a traitor to the national honor and forfeited the confidence of his co-nationalists and fellow-citizens. About twenty different speakers, all prominent men of both parties, followed in denunciation of the government, declaring on the part of the conservatives that the tomb of Riel had created a breach between them and the people of Ontario which could never be tided over. The utmost unanimity prevailed, and finally about ten o'clock the meeting broke up, with strong recommendations from the different speakers to keep calm, and not commit themselves to any disturbance of the peace. This advice was taken.

SERVIA ATTACKS BULGARIA

A Desperate Battle—The Bulgariane De-BELGRADE, Nov. 17. -General Tossalovitch, with the Moravia division, has had a desperate battle with the Bulgarians at Irn. The latter were totally defeated. The Servians fought with great gallantry and captured two guns and many prisoners. Three battalions of Bulgarians surrender ed. A battalion of Bulgarian volunteers stationed at a point on the Timok river capitulated to Col Djusenitch without firing a gun. The Bulgarians yesterday evacuated their fortified position at the Dragoman pass, which the Servians attack-Details of the capture of the Dragoman pass by the Servians show that the Drinia and Shumadga divisions, under Colonels Michkovitch and Henicky, were engaged and attacked the Bulgarians in force, completely routing them. Hordes of Bulgarians laid down their arms, being panical violent. Suppose of Suppose Captured and Paris, Nov. 17.—The Bourse is flat on rumor that Austria is mobilizing her patches from Belgrade and Sofia state that the Servian commanders, contrary to the usual practice of victorious generals, con-stantly report the number of Bulgarians killed and wounded as much smaller than that the real extent of the slaughter, were it known, would compel Russia to inter-fere on behalf of Bulgaria.

stricken. Several guns were captured and CAPTURE OF BRESNIK. Further details of the capture of Bresnik state the Servians carried eighteen lines of entrenchments and captured 161 prisoners with a number of rifles. The Bulgarian commander at Bresnik, Gen. Philipoff, fied, leaving his military papers. The Bulgarian volunteers with their lead-

A Service cavalry force has seized the righway from Palanka to Soffe, and has accupied Glenet pass, thus separating the

SHRVIA'S TORGES

LOCAL NEWS-LETTERS

BRECHIN. [Correspondence of The Post.] CONCERT.—Rev. Father Davis wil give a concert here on Friday, 27th inst. An excellent program will be arranged. Particulars will be announced shortly by pos-

BALSAM LAKE.

(Correspondence of The Post.)
SABBATH BREAKING.—Some young men on the north shore of the lake come to the bay on Sabbaths to shoot. This kind of work has been carried on too long. It is a great annoyance to the quiet community of Long Point to hear the report of guns all Sabbath long. It would look better if these young men would spend the Sabbath in a ifferent way than this by going to church. We warn them to be more careful in the future for if we hear any more of this kind of work they will surely be brought to an-account for their bad doings. So, boys, remember. We know who you are.

JANETVILLE.

[Correspondence of The Post.! TEMPERANCE.—Our temperance lodge is in a flourishing condition and is still gaining having four new members join its ranks last Monday evening. The musical part of the entertainment from henceforth will be much more appreciated, as the new organ which was put up last week is an exceedingly fine instrument.

Pound Social.—Our pound social which is to take place next Monday evening is open to all, and the members are doing all in their power to make it both profitable

PERSONAL.—Mr. and Mrs. Wilson have returned home and look as if they had enjoyed their honeymoon trip to the full ex-

PRESENT. - Mrs. Evans, our millers' wife here, presented a bouncing boy to her husband a few days ago.

RIEL'S FATE.—Some of our boys got rather excited over the fate of Riel last night, and thinking that the deed was not done effectively did it in effigy themselves. "Understandings."—Mr. D. Lavery has just got in his supply of felt boots and rubbers and it would be to the benefit of in-tending purchasers to call and examine before buying elsewhere, as Mr. Lavery, who is an old and experienced hand with boots and shoes, always buys to advantage and can afford to sell to suit the times.

CANNINGTON.

[Correspondence of The Post.]
Personal. -- John Vicars, son of Rev. J. Vicars, is in Ottawa writing in his final examination for P.L.S. ... Mr. Benjamin White has moved into town and intends joining his brother in law in the baking business... Miss May, who is attending the county model school, has been at home ill for some weeks. We are pleased to learn that she is better and has returned to her studies.

THANKSGIVING DAY was generally observed as a holiday here. Service was held in the churches in the morning. In the afternoon the weather being very fine most of the villagers were out bent on enjoying themselves. The fine band of the village discoursed excellent music.

discoursed excellent music.

School Matters.—We understand Mr. Mitting, the popular headmaster of Cannington public school, has been re-engaged for another year. Miss McDougall, second tracker, will also remain another year. Miss Campbell and Miss Marks are leaving and their places will be supplied by Miss Wenderstand the supplied by Miss Wenderstand the matrimonial knot was tied this are deposited to matrimonial knot was nelsed rooms of the church at five p.m.

By many and their places will be supplied by Miss will be re-agence near Sanday. On Monday a public meeting will be held in the school rooms of the church at five p.m.

Porother news interesse pages 2 6 and 8.

Several noted speakers will be present. Music by the church choir and the band. There is not a rumor yet as to who the possible candidates may be. Button holeing by some of the new members has, how-

CARTWRIGHT.

[Correspondence of The Post.]
THANKSGIVING SERVICES:—On thanks. giving day service was conducted in St. John's church by Rev. J. Creighton; in the first Presbyterian church by Rev. Gec. Mc-Kay; and in the Presbyterian church in this village by Rev. Mr. McLaren. COMPLIMENTARY. - On Monday night, Nov. 16 h, Mr. Swain of the Royal hotel provided supper for the members of L.O. L No. 1333, in honor of Dr. Campbell, who intends soon to remove from our midst. MISSIONARY SERMON.- Rev. Dr. Williams will preach a missionary sermon on Sunday, Nov. 22nd, in the Methodist church of this place at 6.30 p.m.

BRUNSWICK.

[Correspondence of The Post.] SOLD HIS FARM.-Mr. Jas. Muir has sold his farm here to Mr. John Cairns of the 14th con. Manvers, and has gone to Millbrook to live, having purchased a res-

GONE TO IRELAND. - Mr. G. A. Hadden and wife, who have been living here for about two years, have gone to Ireland where they intend making a home. They were very popular throughout this vicinity and will be greatly missed. OUT FOR DEPUTY-REEVE. - We see Mr. R. Grandy, our popular school teacher, out canvassing, as he purposes running for deputy reeve for the coming year. Good for Bob. Foor Ball. - We hear the Manvers boys of the 14th con. would like to have another whack at foot ball with the Cavan clippers ere winter sets in. They appear not to be satisfied with the results of the former games, owing to their players not all being present, for which reason they think that it cannot be properly said that they were defeated.

FRANKLIN.

[Correspondence of The Post.]
OBITUARY.—It becomes our painful duty to chronicle the death of Maggie, daughter of Mr. Wm. Maguire, who removed from here in the early part of the summer to Toronto, where it was hoped the climate would have a beneficial effect on her health. Deceased has been a severe sufferer from pulmonary disease for a number of years, and though everything that kind friends and physicians could suggest for her benefit was doze, it was plain to seen that the terrible disease was gradually getting the better of her. She passed away from this life on the morning of the 12th inst., at the family residence, Toronto, and on the following day her remains, accompanied by the family and mourners, were met at the Betnany station by a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives, and conveyed to their last resting place in Graham's cemetery. Deceased had been for a number of years a consistent member of the Methodist church, and manifested almost to the last a spirit of cheerfulness rarely seen in persons enduring so much suffering. She was a young woman of more than ordinary intelligence and was a universal favorite in this part. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire communities.