SPRING POINTERS.

THERE'S NO BETTER WAY

To tell of the Fashions for Spring, of the Goods, of the Values and of the Prices, than to put it into Printer's Ink.

What we have to offer You.

With the advent of April, mild and genial weather can be counted on. By none is its presence more desired than the votaries of Fashies. They are in despair at the unkind treatment accorded them the past three weeks by the capricious clerk of the weather, and are wondering whether Easter Sunday—the day of all days in the year when custom ordains the wearing of new apparel-will bring with it any change for the better.

To tell them to wait and see is poor consolation. The best advice that can be tendered them is prepare for it. That the male sex are doing this already to a remarkable extent we, as caterers to their requirements in that line, can testify.

During the last six weeks we have quietly made preparations te push spring trade. What those preparations are you will be interested. to know. Are they not previded for your delectation, your comfort and your convenience! Certainly! Most decidedly se!

We've packed our shelves with the things in DRESS GOODS, for instance. These are just off the looms of the manufacturer, are attractive and dressy. We've a complete stock and shall add other special lines. Bear in mind that Dress Goods is one of our specialties and we challenge competition.

Our MILLINERY DEPARTMENT is well up in the march of progress. In addition to thoroughly re-furnishing and decorating our show-room we have taken special pains in the selection of a stock. Miss Nelson who is in charge of this department has an extended experience in the cities of Hamilton, Buffalo and Brantford. The stock has been selected by Miss Nelson and is strictly of the latest designs and of the most fashionable materials.
