LIVER LAZINESS

Those Who Lack Energy and are Unsuccessful Should Read This Closely.

"I am only thirty years old, yet for almost two years I have felt more like seventy-five. I have found it difficult to sleep at night and in the morning feel so depressed and heavy that effort was difficult. My hands were always clammy and perspiration on slight effort would break out all over me. It was not unnatural that I should begin to brood over the chance that I should soon be unfit to do my work, and this dread made my sleepless nights perfect misery. After repeated trials of medicine and mixtures Dr. Hamilton's Pills gave me the first gleam of hope. From the very first I could see they were different in action from other pills. They didn't gripe and acted as naturally as if nature and not the pills were cleansing my clogged up system. My spirits rose, I felt much better, the sluggish action of the system gave way to normal activity. Dizziness and headaches ceased, appetite, good color, and ambition to work returned and have remained. I am like a new man and I thank Dr. Hamilton's Pills for it all."

This was the experience of J. E. Parkhurst, a well-known grocery dealer in Jefferson. Follow his advice, use Dr. Hamilton's Pills for your stomach, kidneys, and liver, and you'll enjoy long life and robust good health. All dealers sell Dr. Hamilton's Pills, in yellow boxes, 25c. per box, from The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Wareham

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McCutcheon, Wareham, was the scene of an interesting event on Wednesday, Dec. 28, when their youngest daughter, Ella, was united in marriage to Louis Hill, youngest son of Mr. Jas. Hill, also of Wareham.

The bride, attired in a graceful princess gown of foulard silk and bridal veil and carrying a bridal wreath of lillies of the valley, entered the parlor on the arm of her father to the strains of the Wedding March rendered by Miss Ida Smith of Singhampton. The ceremony took place underneath wedding bells in an arch beautifully decorated with evergreens and maple leaves in the presence of about one hundred guests, the Rev. A. P. Stanley of Maxwell officiating. The bride was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Maggie Hill, who wore a beautiful gown of silk voile trimmed with lace insertion and carried a bouquet of bridal roses and pink carnations. The bride's brother, W. C. McCutcheon, supported the groom.

The popularity of the young couple was made manifest by the very large number of useful and beautiful presents, the grooms favor to the bride being a gold locket and to the bridesmaid a beautiful gold bracelet. After relieving the groaning tables of some of the wedding delicacies the guests thoroughly enjoyed themselves with games, dancing and other amusements till an early hour next morning.

Relatives were present from Shelburne, Markdale, Primrose, Singhampton and other places.

Stone Settlement

Held over last week

Miss Annie Harrow, who has been teaching school the past year at Midland, is home for the holidays. We understand she has secured a school near St. Thomas for the coming year.

Wells Whittaker of the Durham high school is visiting at the parental home.

Miss M. Leslie is holidaying at her home in Markdale.

D. R. Fletcher of Brentwood is spending the Christmas vacation at his home in this vicinity.

Miss Laura Whittaker of Hanover also spent Christmas at her home here.

Miss S. P. Fletcher, who has been teaching school the past three years at Cherry Grove, was home for the vacation. We understand she has given up the rod in that vicinity.

Willie McArthur of the O.S.C.I., is spending the holidays at his home here.

An entertainment and Christmas tree was held in the U.S.S. hall last Thursday evening, Dec. 22. On account of the weather and bad roads the turnout was not large, but, however, we think everyone enjoyed themselves. One of our most prominent young men, Mr. Wells Whittaker, occupied the chair. A good program was rendered, consisting of drills, tableaux, dialogues, recitations, songs, music, etc., also the unloading of a Christmas tree, which both large and small seemed to enjoy.

Ed. Whittaker of Varney spent Christmas holidays at his home here.

John McDonald of Creemore is visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

Mr. James Beatty, wife and daughter, of Orange Valley, visited with relatives here on Sunday.

Portlaw

Intended for last week

Our public school concert on Wednesday evening of last week proved a very enjoyable and successful function. Mr. R. D. Meldrum "filled" the chair and introduced a lengthy and varied program, consisting of songs, drills, recitations and dialogues by the pupils, gramophone selections by Mr. John Badgerow, short speeches, and instrumental music by Portlaw orchestra. The children performed their parts well, reflecting credit on their teacher, Miss Smith, who had trained them. An interesting feature was a well laden Christmas tree. Letters were received from Santa Claus at intervals during the program. Through a mishap to one of his reindeer near Proton he was forced to substitute a horse, gotten in a trade, which did not take well to its new mates and kicked up behind, demolishing the dashboard and part of Santa's whiskers; but with commendable pluck the old hero at last arrived and distributed a great variety of presents, including suitable and much-prized gifts (mostly books) to each of the pupils from their teacher. There was a full house and a tidy sum realized.

Mr. C. C. Ramage, former teacher, and sister, of Durham, attended our school concert and visited at R. D. Meldrum's.

Miss Smith, teacher, holidayed at her home in Norfolk county.

Mr. Herb. Thompson of Chatsworth visited friends here recently.

Wedding bells are ringing over hill and dale.

Mr. W. J. Jackson's sale was very successful. Good prices were realized. Mr. McPhail wielded the hammer.

Mr. Fawcett of Duncan visited his son, Wesley, here recently.

Mr. Thomas Taylor purchased three fine specimens of pure bred Hereford cattle at Mr. Jackson's sale.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkinson visited friends at Heathcote.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor spent Christmas with the latter's parents near Markdale.

Mrs. W. J. Jamieson and nephew Christmassed with friends at Eugenia.

Mr. Wm. Beattie and wife of Hatherton spent Christmas at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Shires.

Officials of the Dominion Land Office at Saskatoon plume themselves on having set a new record when they recorded the homestead entry of Louis Carpenter, who signed his application in a firm, free hand and swore that his age is just 102. The old man is strong and vigorous and declares he will prove up before he is gathered to his fathers.

Cards of Acknowledgement

To the Electors of Artemesia:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,—I take this opportunity to express my thanks to the ratepayers of this township for their liberal support in the recent election. It will be my object to serve you to the best of my ability. Wishing you all a happy and prosperous New Year.
—W. J. CASWELL.

To the Electors of Artemesia:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,—I take much pleasure in tendering my sincere thanks to the electors who assisted in any way to elevate me to the highest position in the gift of the township. To the ladies, especially, I have much reason to be grateful, and now that you have seen fit to honor me with the Reeveship I assure you, one and all, friends and opponents alike, that I shall do my utmost during the time I shall hold office, to advance the interests of the township and to guard her interests at the County Council. Wishing you all a happy and prosperous New Year. —ALEX. MUIR.
