Sports of all Sorts

FOR "SPORTS" OF ALL SORTS

The Sporting Editor of The Advance had the pleasure of a skate on the Kimberley rink on Saturday night. The ice sheet is of generous size and in good condition, while the new gasoline lights are a perfect illuminant. The rink is a popular institution in the valley town—at any rate a large crowd of old and young were out, and all apparently enjoying it hugely Manager Harris has an excellent rink, which is flooded by the Kimberley waterworks, and he well deserves the splendid patronage which is his.

Some weeks ago Wiarton O.H.A. juniors had the Markdale juniors thrown out for the season, leaving the peninsula town and Chesley as the only teams in the district. Chesley has not won a game this season, and possibly will not, but they managed to have the Wiarton team disqualified and so are winners of the district and will play in the semi-finals.

Kimberley hockey team played their first game at Rocklyn last week. The latter team won by a score of something like 12-4, but the valley boys are encouraged over their showing in their first game —and think that a little experience will probably turn the tables on the hill men.

Are You Weak, Bloodless, Anaemic?

You Can Be Cured of Poverty of the Blood Just Like Miss Everett Was.

Since the early ages, in all countries among all classes of people, anaemia has been one of the most pernicious conditions that affect mankind.
Writing from her home in Paisley, Mrs. Everett says:—"My daughter had just passed her sixteenth year, when she began to rapidly lose color and strength. Serious complications set in that made her family and friends most anxious. We were not only worried on account of her ill-health, but because she was likely to lose her years' work at the High school, where she was preparing for the profession of teaching. The doctor said it was 'Anaemia.' I knew the best remedy was Ferrozone—and made my daughter take two Ferrozone Tablets with every meal. The first box did little more than increase her appetite. But with the second box it was really delightful to watch the signs of returning health. Annie's face became sort of a yellowish at first—that deadly whiteness disappeared. But it wasn't long before a ruddy glow was perceptible in her cheeks, and real good color returned. All Annie's troubles were cured—she grew strong—vigorous—heavy in weight—feels and looks the picture of health."

FERROZONE
Makes Strong Blood

Hundreds of cases of anaemia, poor color, blood and nerve disorders, the chronic kind—they have been cured by Ferrozone—why not you? In 50c boxes, six for $2.50, all dealers, or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

Golden Wedding at Guelph.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stewart was the scene of a very pretty affair on Tuesday afternoon, when the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ellis of Powassan, father and mother of Mrs. Stewart, was celebrated. The rooms were very prettily decorated with palms and other plants, and a big grey wolf, which stood upon a pedestal in the bay window, almost concealed by palms, grinned out at the proceedings as if he enjoyed it as much as any one present. The tables were a picture, taking the entire length of the two big rooms, and were decorated with a profusion of tulips and carnations. The wedding cake was a fine specimen of the confectioner's art, and those were lucky who got a piece of it. There were eleven children and nine grandchildren present, consisting of the following: W. T. Ellis, Kimberley, Ont.; H. J. Ellis, Powassan, Ont.; Mrs. J. H. Magee, Kimberley, Ont.; A. E. Ellis, Kimberley, Ont.; A. J. Ellis, Indus, Minnesota; Mrs. E. Stinson, Hubbard, Saskatchewan; Mr. C. Drinkwater, Castleton, Ont.; T. W. Ellis, Elk Lake, Ont.; Mrs. A. E. Collett, North Bay, Ont.; Mrs. W. H. Stuart, Guelph; and Miss Selina, at home. The following address was read by the eldest son, W. T. Ellis, which so touched the old folks that tears were in the voice of Mr. Ellis when he rose to reply.

To our father and mother:

We, the members of your family, desire to express to you our congratulations on this the fiftieth anniversary of your wedding, and as a slight token of our esteem for you, and as an acknowledgement of your watchful care over us during childhood, and the many sacrifices you have made for us, we ask you to accept this purse of gold, and we pray God that your lives may be spared to be a blessing to us, and with all whom you may be associated with.

Among the others present were Miss Nellie Ellis, Powassan; Mrs. W. T. Ellis, Kimberley; Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. T. Magee, Toronto.

The bridesmaid of the happy event of fifty years ago was also present with her husband, Mr. D. Thompson of Walkerton. The Rev. C. H. Buckland, who some fifteen years ago was the family minister of the old folks in their old home in the north, spoke very feelingly of his acquaintance with them, and wished them many years yet of prosperity and health. During the afternoon little Miss Elferda Stuart, the youngest grandchild, presented the bride with a beautiful bouquet of white roses, lily of the valley and maiden hair ferns.

Many costly and beautiful presents were received from outside points. Mr. Ellis is 74 and Mrs. Ellis 72 years of age. They are both hale and hearty and there has not been a break in the family yet. Telegrams and letters of congratulation and regret at not being able to be present were received from North Bay, Toronto, Barrie, Thornbury, Kimberley, Ont., and Powassan.
