As the saying goes, we select our friends but our relatives are wished upon us. If we only knew it, however, they, too, feel they were cheated in the hookup.

MAXWELL

The vice-president, Miss Ida Benson, took charge and Miss Kathleen Morrison read the scripture lesson. Mrs. W. Poole gave a talk on "What It Means To Be A Christian" while Mr. Warren Priestley read "The Eye-opener." A presentation of The Shadow was a very interesting part of the program with Mr. Murray Morrison taking the part of the Shadow, proving that crime does not pay. Mr. Leslie McLaughlin sang a solo after which came recreation and lunch and the meeting closed in the usual way.

You can always recognize the man raised in a big city. He is the one who is always figuring on how much money he could make in the country by running a chicken farm.

A learned professor says that the earth's population will rush to the polar regions when the sun cools and the earth grows hotter in the temperate and tropic regions. As this will be millions of years from now, it will be all right to put in next winter's coal two or three months hence.

"They're not home Mummy!"

Joan has just returned from one of her frequent trips across the street to tell a neighbour she is wanted on the telephone. "Very well, Joan, I'll take the massage," says Mother, "and you can run over again with it later." Ever since Joan's mother agreed to take a message or two for them, most telephone calls seem to be for the neighbours. Not because they can't afford telephone service; almost everybody can, now. It's just one of those awkward situations. Some day, however, Joan will rush in with the news: "Mummy, they're getting a telephone!" and Mother will reply with a smile: "Isn't that nice, Joan," and mean it!

Telephone service is widely used because it is courteous, efficient, yet surprisingly inexpensive. Nothing else yields so much for what it costs!
