Dundalk

Alex. Flockhart, of Swinton Park, who lost his reason and was sent to Hamilton Asylum last summer, died at the asylum on Friday last. It appears that in trying to escape by an upper window he got his arm badly cut by glass and he bled to death. His body was found in a field next morning.

William Freer of Nottawasaga town line came to town saturday, and not being able to procure a certain line of goods went up to Markdale by train, returning in the evening. They are a generous people, those Markdale folk. Freer was supplied with all he asked for and more. In fact he had more than he could carry with any degree of steadiness. He was tired out carrying around Markdale's generosity and lay down to rest on Main street. Chief Hemphill thought he would be much more comfortable on the stretcher in the town hall basement. But to get him to the place of rest was a problem as the unfortunate fellow had lost his power of locomotion. Some boys with a handsleigh came along about this time and the chief enlisted the outfit in his service. The man was rolled onto the sleigh and with the boys drawing, some more following and the chief bringing up the rear, the procession passed down along the street to the town hall in broad daylight when there was a crowd out to view the unhappy scene. If those good Markdale people had seen the result of their generosity as enacted here—but what's the use? It is supposed they have scenes of their own. One dollar and costs was the fine imposed on Tuesday by Police Magistrate McGregor. A couple of others came off the evening train Saturday and those at the station did not require to be told that they had been in Markdale. They got out of town soon after landing. —Herald.

Maxwell

At the choir rehearsal on Saturday evening last Miss Alice Fields, organist of St. Mary's church, was presented with a beautiful lady's gold watch and address. Miss Fields, who has been the organist for a number of years, is a thorough musician and is greatly appreciated for her faithful work, is always in her place, and shows excellent taste in the selection of music for the countless hymns and many chants. The following address was read:

Miss Alice Fields, organist of St. Mary's church, Maxwell:

We, on be half of our Minister, Congregation, choir and Vestry, beg to convey to you our high appreciation of the valuable and unselfish service, which you have so ably rendered during your term of office, and we also wish to express admiration of you as a young lady of excellent disposition, admirability and untiring patience. Were it not for yours and Mrs. Linley's great pains taking with the music for the services of the church we many a time would have been greatly discouraged.

It is with great pleasure that we present you with this small token of our esteem and we pray that Our Father's blessing will ever be with you.

Signed, Herbert Clark, Harry Linley.

Address and Presentation

Previous to leaving for the West last week Master Stewart Hislop of Eugenia was waited on by a number of friends and presented with a watch chain and the following address:

To Stewart Hislop:—Knowing that you have decided to leave our neighborhood to make for yourself a home in the West, we your friends, have gathered tonight to spend a social hour prior to your departure. We reget your going away but hope that you may enjoy your new home and have every success. We desire to express in some way our high appreciation of you as a kind, obliging friend. We therefore ask you to accept this gold watch chain as a slight token of our good will and esteem. Our best wishes go with you and may you long be spared to enjoy life in whatever sphere you may be placed. Signed on behalf of your friends:—Stanley Campbell, Francis Genoe.

Stewart thanked his many friends in a few well choosn words. The ladies provided refreshmets after which the evening was spent in music and games. Before parting the crowd all joined in and sang a verse of that beautiful hymn "God be with you till we meet again."

South Line, Artemesia

Too Late for Last Week

Whoop! Hurrah for the sap season.

Miss Emily Hudson returned home. We are pleased to see that her hand is improving.

Mr. George Campbell, accompanied by his sisters, Misses Jessie and Flossie, visited on our line recently,

Mr. Charles Moor of Orange Valley spent a day last week with his parents here.

Allen McKinnon is working with Mr. George Black, Swinton Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Dougal McPhail spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Dingwall.

Master Edward Dingwall is laid up with blood poison in his hand, but is improving nicely under the care of Dr. Lane, Priceville.

Mr. Frank Moore visited his brother, Charles, Orange Valley, last week.

The Literary Society held their last meeting Wednesday evening, March 22. It was not largely attended owing to the roads and weather. Mr. Martin McLeod, Priceville, occupied the chair and made a first class chairman. The debate was: Resolved, that Canada offers a young man equal opportunities for getting on with those offered by the United States." This debate proved to be one of the best of the season. Affirmative—L. Aldcorn, Mae Muir, Mrs. McLean, E. Meads, R. Patton, Miss E. Dingwall. Negative—C. Huddy, Jennie Muir, Susan McKinnon, Rhena Richardson, E. Gilchrist. Messrs. Peter and Allie Muir acted as judges and decided a tie. This is the first tie of the season, which showed that each had their part well prepared. Excellent instrumental music was rendered by Messrs. J. L. McDonald and J. Ferguson, assisted by Miss Ray. The balance of the program consisted of recitations by M. E. Whyte, songs by the school, "My own Canadian home" and "What Yankee Doodle wants his boys to do;" also by Miss Viola Richardson; and a Gaelic song by Martin Murphy; a duet by Messrs. McLean and Richardson; a short speech by H. McKinnon, Priceville, our former teacher; a two-step by Messrs. J. L. McDonald and J. McLean, assisted by Colin McMillan. The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem. We trust that the literary meetings will be resumed again next winter.

This Week's Items

Our spring-like weathhr suddenly changed and we are having more winter.

Mr. Charles Huddy, accompanied by his sister, Miss Emily, spent Sunday at the home of their sister, Mrs. James Dingwall, Hopeville.

Mrs. A. Currie visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Portlaw, recently.

Mr. Will McMillan left for the West on Saturday.

The wildcat that was causing so much disturbance along the 20th sideroad north of the Durham Road last spring was chased to Flesherton and captured in one of the town sheds by a Fisher, but the hide was so poor it would not stand tanning, so the poor animal was let go.

Mr. Will Dingwall is engaged with W. Meads, O.D.R., cutting wood.

Council adjourned.

Hon. Adam Beck, says the Mercury, told a Guelph alderman that the Goverment would so arrange it that the city would pay only for the hydro-electric power that it used. Further, with respect to the cost of the power Mr. Beck stated that it was the intention of the Government to build a branch line from Guelph right up to Owen Sound and the effect of this might be imagined when it was considered that Mr. Beck, in speaking of a similar branch line that it was to be built from St. Thomas to Windsor, said that it would reduce the cost of power to St. Thomas by 33⅓%. The annoucement that it is the intention of the Goverment to build the branch line from Guelph to Owen Sound is a new one, and we hope it is true, especially if electric power be put on an equal rate right from Niagara to the extremities of the line.—Mt. Forest Confederate.

Walkerton firemen will celebrate the 24th again this year.
