The jury in the Assize Court at Toronto recently, awarded Mrs. Margaret E. Bauckham $1,000 and her younger child $1,200 in her suit against Robert Beattie, a contractor, formerly of Invermay, whom she sued for $10,000 damages for the death of her husband, who was killed by a plank thrown by Robert H. Beattie, the son of the contractor. Bauckham was employed as a plumber at two houses in the course of construction, and Beattie, who was cleaning out an upper story room, threw a plank out of the window, which struck Bauckham, working below. Beattie denied responsibility and produced evidence to show that it was customary to throw things out of the window when clearing out rooms which had been finished. Justice Latchford confirmed the verdict.—Leader.

The Collingwood office of the People's Railway has been closed for some time. The promoters explain that owing to the stress of work in securing the Dominion charter they are compelled to spend some time in the head office at Berlin, but hope to return soon and continue negotiations already opened at Collingwood. There was to be an important meeting at Berlin last week, but we have not noticed any account of what transpired.—Confederate.

By fire on Thursday noon last Wm. Glenn lost three barns and sheds, all his implements, ten tons of hay, and 100 bushels of seed grain, but the live stock was saved. Origin a mystery, as no one had been near the barn for some time. Fortunately the buildings and contents were fully insured.—Stayner Sun.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills Cured

"I think it should be the duty of the schools to teach children how to keep well," writes Miss Nannie E. Naydon, a well-known and highly esteemed resident of Bristol. "Ignorance of the laws of health and the use of improper remedies destroyed my vigor, and led me to the verge of invalidism. I was as a girl ruddy and strong. Nothing seemed to affect me until I was about thirty. Then gas began to form in the stomach. I suffered with bloating and a general failure in strength set in. If I went upstairs my breath hurt. My system was very irregular, and until I grew pretty bad I didn't pay much heed to my condition. Then I got blue, worried all the time, wakened in the night, and couldn't get to sleep again. None of the medicine I took helped me. One day I was reading of a very interesting case like mine cured by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I took the same treatment. It was just right—didn't physic me to death, but took hold of the weak, sick parts of my system, and set things right. It seems as if Dr. Hamilton's Pills have made me young again, and all my color, spirits, vigor, and health of former days have returned to stay.

Every girl and woman should use Dr. Hamilton's Pills regularly. They help a woman in many ways. Beware of the dealer who asks you to take an inferior pill on which his profit is larger than on Dr. Hamilton's. Sold in yellow boxes, 25c per box, all dealers, or The Catarrhozone, Co., Kingston, Ont.

Mrs. Agnes Edgar, of Grand Falls, N.B., had a terrible time with Inflammatory Rheumatism. Anyone who has had this most painful disease will understand her suffering—and her joy when she found Father Morriscy's "No. 7" had cured her. She says:

TRUTH BEFORE FAVOR- PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN

THE CENSUS

This is census year in Great Britain and her colonies. The census was taken in the United Empire on April 2. In Canada the figures will be gathered in June. At the last census, the Empire, in 1901, showed a population of nearly four hundred million—about one million less than the population of China.

Time was when the census was very unpopular, and people refused point blank to give the information asked for, but now there is a better understanding of the matter and it is rarely an attempt is made to withhold information. As it has developed, the census is a cumbersome thing and is a vast compilation of statistics dealing with many phases of trade other than merely discovering the number of inhabitants a country contains, as it was originally intended for.

The enumerators for the riding of East and Centre Grey have now been appointed and the names of the successful officials who will soon be "poking their noses into everybody's business" are to be found on our first page. These men must be answered freely and without equivocation when they deign to question you. There is a penalty if you don't. It is up to us all to toe the mark and speak up.

THIS IS SPRING!

The value of wire fences and snow fences is easily seen at this time of the year. Those whose misfortune it is to be compelled to travel by our rural highways these days know all about it. Stretches of snow and mud alternate with an aggravating frequency, and travel is neither easy or comfortable. Last winter's drifts are all that remain, and they were caused by rail fences in a great many cases.

It is a large proposition to properly control the problem of winter roads (which, by the way, are just as live a problem as summer roads in these years of five months' snow) and the sooner it is met the better. The erection of a stretch of wire fence here, and a piece of properly designed snow fence there, will work marvels in promoting pleasant travel conditions for the winter months.

If the problem could be met when it is at its worst it would soon receive attention, but the precautionary steps must be taken in the summer when problems of grading and gravelling loom large and occupy the eyes and minds of our township fathers. Can not the Council this year take some steps to make the winter roads more passable?

ABOUT TRACTION ENGINES

Now that the season has about arrived when traction engines will once more be flitting along our highways it will be instructive to note the law covering their movement across bridges, of which this district is so plentifully supplied. There have been many bridge accidents in this county, and several in this immediate vicinity. Threshermen and the public generally will read with interest the law as laid down by the Provincial Engineer of Highways which we quote:

"The Ontario law regarding traction engines provides that no traction engine exceeding 20 tons in weight shall be used on the public highways. Where a traction engine not exceeding 8 tons in weight is used for threshing or road construction, the municipality is responsible for the strength of bridges over which it may pass, but the owner of the traction engine is required to protect the floor of bridges and culverts from injury, using suitable plank for this purpose. Where the traction engine exceeds 8 tons in weight, the owner of it must cross the bridge at his own risk, and is responsible for any injury he does to the bridge. He is not, however, a law-breaker until the traction engine exceeds 20 tons in weight."

THE WAY OF THE TRANSGRESSOR

Among the gentlemen who have been abroad for a season and have now returned to their native Canada—under escort—are C. D. Sheldon, who was found hybernating for the past six months in Pittsburg, and J. Young Mordock, barrister of Jarvis. The former ran a financial get-rich-quick scheme in Montreal, by which hundreds of people lost everything they put into it. The latter is said to have embezzled funds left in his charge. Another lawyer in Toronto is now in durance vile on the charge that stands against Murdock. He was not able to get away in time or possibly he also might have been among the home-comers. The lesson to be learned is that "the way of the transgressor is hard." He gets tripped up sooner or later—generally sooner. But it seems to be a lesson that has to be learned over and over again.

Hon. A. G. McKay is at present on a political tour throughout Ontario. His itinerary will include Beaverton, St. Thomas, Aylmer, Windsor and Amherstburg.

The Cub Reporter of The Advance is as huffy as a wet hen these days. Several weeks ago he wrote for the Advance an account of a "boiling down" which did not materialize. A number of exchanges copied the item and gave due credit, whereupon the said Cub Reporter was in the seventh heaven of bliss; but alas, the Hanover Post copied the article wholly, but applied it to Hanover instead of Flesherton, ignoring totally the authorship of the said C.R. Aint it galling!

Norman Jacobi of Owen Sound annoyed a young woman and called it fun. The magistrate thought he should pay for his fun and taxed him $2 and costs. The Sun says a few jolts like this will "help to discourge the young pups who stand around doorways and make fresh remarks at girls." It would be the proper caper for municipal councils to declare these "pups" as coming under the provincial law and tax them up same as the rest. Make 'em carry a badge, too, as a proof that the tax has been paid, and as a reminder to all that they are outlawed from the human race.

Rod and Gun

All anglers will heartily welcome the April issue of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Limited Woodstock, Ontario. As usual this number heralds the approach of the fishing season and gives all those who have waited patiently for a renewal of their pleasures with rod and line, added joys of anticipation of the good time now so near. A beautifully illustrated article of a camping and fishing trip on the French River is followed by an equally good account of a similar outing in Prince Edward Island, the gem of the Gulf of the St. Lawrence. Many other good things are to be found in the same issue. Sportsmen never fail to find something to suit their tastes in each issue of Rod and Gun.

An aftermath of the investigation into the alleged padding of the Brant voters' list took the form of an attempt at the Council meeting here on Saturday last to strike Clerk Miehlhausen from the payroll of the township. A motion to this effect was laid on the table by Councillors Farr and Tanner, and it was only the casting vote of Reeve McCallum that saved the clerk's scalp from being swept into the basket. It was the closest call to an official beheading that has been seen here for some time.—Bruce Times.

A sad misfortune befel Owen Heany, Patrick Heany and William Dickson, three farmers residing on the 1st Con. Normanby, south of Orchard, about 4 o'clock on Monday morning, when their barns and contents were burned to the ground. It appears that Owen Heany's barn started first; and in a very short time Patrick's was also a mass of flames, followed by Dickson's which is supposed to have caught from Pat. Heany's. Next Mr. Lewis' barn started but was saved by the neighbors. How the fire originated has not yet been ascertained, but it is rumored that the two Heany barns were set on fire. There is no suspicion, however, as to the guilty party of such an awful crime. The barns belonging to Dickson and Lewis were insured in the Germania Farmers' Mutual. The President and Manager adjusted Mr. Dickson's claim on Tuesday. Mr. Lewis had no loss.

Doctors Condemn Oily Liniments

The Public are Warned to Be Careful of These Strong-Smelling Oily Liniments Containing Harmful Acids, Ammonia, Etc.

Many people have clung to the old-fashioned idea that a thick, greasy liniment is the best kind. Doctors say not—and they know.

Recently a number of these white, oily liniments were analyzed, and they were found to contain an enormously high percentage of harmful acids, and such irritating chemicals as ammonia, etc. For the moment they may cause a warm sensation when first applied, but their continued use never cures rheumatism, and only deteriorates the skin, sets up inflammation and causes endless trouble.

When a doctor warns you to quit using a white, oily liniment—do so. He knows that a thick liniment can't penetrate, can't sink through the pores and reach the seat of the pain.

When asked his opinion a few days ago, Dr. Roberts stated that he considered a strong, penetrating, pain-subduing liniment such as "Nerviline," to be superior to any of the white, ammonia liniments. In his twenty-five years of practice he had witnessed cases of rheumatism, sciatica, and lumbago that simply would not respond to ordinary treatment—but Nerviline cured them. The same physician also spoke of the great advantages of keeping a preparation like Nerviline in the house always, because of cramps, diarrhoea, stomach disorders, earache, toothache, headache, and such minor ailments. Nerviline is a first-class cure. There is scarcely an ache or a pain, internal or external, that Nerviline won't cure. In thousands of homes no other pain-relieving medicine is used. Fifty years' continued success and the endorsement of the profession are proof that Nerviline is the liniment for the home.
