Mr. Harold Proctor is home with the mumps. He is having a swell time.

Mr. Stanley Walter is going to Toronto to take up telegraphy. Success, Stanley.

Vandeleur

During the electric storm early Sunday morning Messrs. Lundy and Will Johnston's fine frame barn was struck by lightning, and, with the contents, was destroyed. The building contained about twelve tons of hay, 100 bushels of wheat, 250 bushels of oats, besides other grain, and nearly all the farm implements, including buggy, two cutters, seed drill, scales, and cream separator. A cow and two calves were burned, also 22 pigs, ten of whom were ready for market Five horses were in the stable, but fortunately the fire was discovered in time to get them out without injury. The building was insured for $1000 and contents for $1200 in the Sydenham Mutual, still the loss will be a severe one to the boys, who have only been in business for themselves for two or three years.

Mr. Wm. Blair was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. I. Graham, during the past week.

Mrs. White of the East Back Line visited her sister, Mrs. Jacob Holley, on Thursday last.

Durham and Hanover are to have new post offices. The sum of $6000 for each place is set apart for that purpose in the suplementary estimates for this year.

A Successful Concert

The grand concert given in the town hall on Thursday evening of last week by the Ladies Aid Society of Chalmers' church was a decided success both in attendance and the excellence of the programme. Miss Edna Benjamin of Dundalk aroused the audience to a high point of enthusiasm by the artistic playing of her several numbers, which included the "Berceuse" from Jocelin, the beautiful "Broken Melody" and the dainty but exacting "Mazurka" by Braga.

Miss Ruby Trelford of Proton, the possessor of a soprano voice of good range and exceptional purity of tone, charmed everyone with her singing of "Calvary" and "Absent," to both of which the audience demanded encores.

Miss Muriel Benjamin of Dundalk, besides accompanying her sister with brilliancy, sang two lovely solos, her "Land of Nod" being particularly beautiful and well meriting the hearty encore it received. The male quartettes and trios were very popular, and very pleasing were the duet by Mrs. Blackburn and Miss Trimble, and the Scotch Songs by Mrs. Bunt. Mr. Bowler showed himself no novice with the cornet, many comments being heard on the eveness of his playing and the richness of his tone. His second number was the majestic "Lost Chord."

A novelty was the selling of ice cream during the intermission which gave a social turn to the the entertainment.

Receipts amounted to $36.5.

Ceylon

Mrs. A. McConnell has spent the week with her parents here. Mr. McConnell also came up and they will remain for the 24th. Blanche looks fine and married life seems to agree with her.

Messrs. A. B. Collinson and George McArthur started west on Tuesday morning. They will spend a day in Toronto and another in Winnipeg on the way. They will be missed, as both boys were popular, especially among the young people.

Mr. Edward Sargent is home from Chatsworth after having one of his large toes amputated. The operation seems so far to have been quite successful. One of his cows gave birth to two fine calves during his absence.

Mr. J. T. Chislett spent a week with his sister, Mrs. Sealey, at Bunnessan.

Mrs. J. L. Woods is visiting her friend, Mrs. Mateman, at Markdale.
