HYMNS IN THE KITCHEN

An archbishop, staying at the house of some friends, was greatly impressed by the fact that each morning before breakfast, he heard someone in the kitchen singing a hymn.

On congratulating his hostess on having such religious servants, he was told: "Oh, that's the cook's hymn for boiling eggs. Two verses are soft and five verses hard."

She: "So do I, but we've got to give them enough time to find a larger apartment."

FOREWARNED

The minister advertised for a man-servant, and next morning a well-dressed young man rang the bell.

"Can you start the fire and get breakfast for seven o'clock," the minister asked.

"I guess so," repiled the young man.

"Can you polish all the silver, wash the dishes, and keep the house neat and tidy?"

"Say, parson," answered the young fellow, "I came here to see about getting married, but if it's going to be as much work as all that, you can count me out right now!"

A SAD STORY

Mary had a little lamb,
'Twas awful dumb, and so
It couldn't tell the red from green
Nor which was stop or go.
Followed her to school one day,
A silly thing to do,
Was caught between the red and green
And now it's mutton stew.

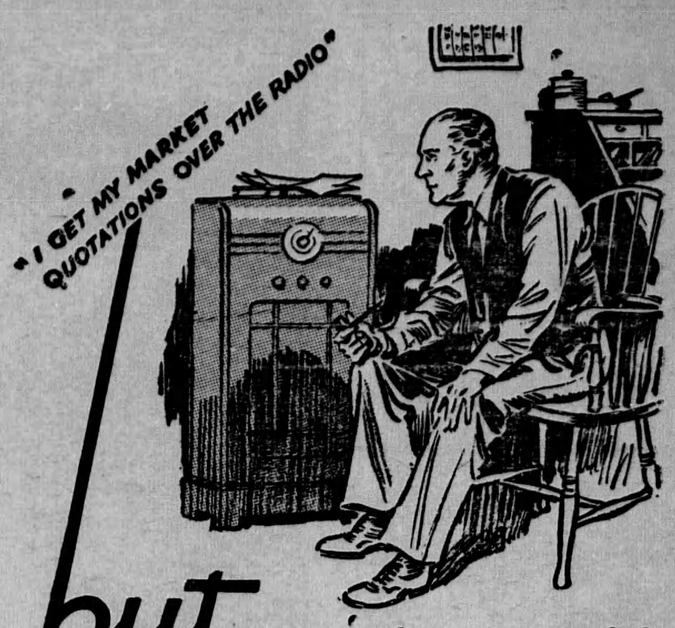
CANADIAN PACIFIC



but . . . is that enough?

.True, the radio gives you certain cold figures but it's indirect and impersonal and at best only a general indication, compared to actual telephone talks to a number of buyers. In conversations, you get the actual feel of the market; you know what's going on; where and when to sell; what grades are going best; what the picture promises; and all those other intimate details, the knowledge of which puts dollars in your pocket. The telephone, as a business agent, is truly irreplacable.

Nothing yields so much for what it costs as the TELEPHONE.
