TRUTH BEFORE FAVOR- PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN

ELECTIONS ARE LIKELY

That we are to have an election before the question of Reciprocity is decided seems now more than probable. Word comes from Ottawa that both parties have decided that such will be the outcome after the reassembling of Parliament on July 18. The policy of the Opposition is to force the Government to go to the country by holding up supplies, a prerogative of which they are determined to take full advantage. The Opposition does not believe that the country wants Reciprocity, and the Government believes that it does. Therefore, where both interested parties are satisfied to leave the arbitrament of this question to the people themselves, such is likely to be done. It is said that both parties have notified the faithful to be in readiness at a moment's notice to get into the tray, and in the meantime have their armor polished and see that their powder is dry.

An Ottawa correspondent in a letter to the Globe, however, says that "An election is contingent on the United States Senate ratifying the agreement and the Opposition finding as a result of their campaign that they can make headway against reciprocity. It is asserted that they are already assured of a liberal campaign fund from the interests opposed to reciprocity, but this is conditional on their preventing its coming into operation. If the American Senate fails to ratify the agreement or hitches it up with amendments onerous to Canada, then the chance for freer trade between the two countries will have been lost, for the present at least, and Parliament would probably speedily prorogue to take up other business at the opening of the next session in November."

CROOKS AND INVENTIONS

"The way of the transgressor is hard," and it is getting harder every day. Modern inventions are keeping the crooks busy searching for methods to overcome them, and in many instances they find it impossible. The Crippens are now captured by wireless telegraphy, horse thieves by the telephone, and bribe takers by a new sound magnifying invention. Bank wreckers are still caught in the same old way (when they are caught) Beaty Nesbitt is still at large.

The sound magnifying instrument referred to above was responsible for the capture of six Ohio legislators on a charge of accepting bribes. It is a new thing, however, and probably the honorable gentlemen of the legislature had never heard of it. The brains of the crook will in future work overtime in an effort to outwit the dictaphone, and will probably succeed, because there is no more clever inventive genius in the world than the successful crook. Each new invention that comes along catches a few of him, and makes his calling more insecure, but it does not reform him or scare him off by any manner of means.

The Scientific American has taken a keen interest in the Quebec bridge and last week published an interesting article dealing with the subject. While cautious to express an opinion, it seems favorably inclined towards the accepted plan, which was submitted by the St. Lawrence Bridge Company of Montreal. This calls for an expenditure of $8,650,000, and has a main span of 640 feet, which will make it one of the most notable bridges yet constructed. Let us hope that the new bridge will be erected without any further loss of life.

The Standard Oil trust has been ordered by the United States courts to disband. Some time ago this gentle and implicit trust was ordered to pay a huge sum of money for transgressing the laws of the land, but we have not heard that the money was ever paid. Will the latest order be obeyed any better than was the first? What is wrong with United States authority that it cannot enforce its own dictums where millionaires and millions are involved?

Professor Gates of the Massachusetts Agricultural College hopes to produce a stingless bee in the not distant future. When that result is attained the editor of this paper will combine bee raising with his other fads, but not before. The only thing that has prevented us from flooding the market with honey in the past was the electrical tip on the tail of the bee. When Professor Gates eliminates that our prejudice will have been dispelled.

Have you noticed that bees among the blossoms are scarce this spring? It appears to us that such is the case, and if so does it portend a small fertilization and consequent scarcity of fruit? We trust our suspicions are unfounded, but others have also noted the scarcity of insect life among the blossoms. The usual lively hum is wanting.

I. of Flesherton held their annual meeting last Friday, when the financial report was presented as follows: Balance from last year, $25.23; members' fees, $14.25; government grant, $3; concert, $26 35; sundries, $18.35; total $87.18. The officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. R. H. Moore; 1st Vice President, Mrs. R. Best; Sec.-Treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Thurston; District Director, Mrs. R. Best; Delegates to District meeting, Mrs. Albert Stewart, and Mrs. W. Trimble; Program Committee, Mrs. Wilcock, Mrs. Bunt, Mrs. Jos. Clinton, Mrs. A. Stewart and Mrs. Archie Stewart.

Serious Bush Fire

A bush fire of large proportions is something almost unheard of in this section now. One would scarcely think there was enough timber left to feed one. Yet a very serious and costly forest fire burned for three days a week or so ago out at Redwing, destroying a large amount of valuable timber. The Meaford Express gives the following facts in connection therewith.

The fire extended some three or four miles and destroyed some 60 acres of excellent timber for Mr. Edgar Neely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Neely, this town. The fire caused much anxiety in that locality and many were heavy losers as a result. The high winds of Thursday and Friday last added terror to the scene and the flames at times reached a height of about 150 feet. The sawmill and home of Mr. Neely were in great danger and only for the willing band of workers the element would have completely destroyed everything.

Mr. Neely's loss is estimated at $1000 or more and is very unfortunate, as this is the third time he has suffered from fire. Three years ago he had his shingle mill destroyed near Rocklyn and only last summer his mill near Redwing was burned to the ground. To further add to his misfortune, his wife was very ill and had to be removed from her home on a stretcher.

Hector McDonald, a resident of Meaford forty years ago, died recently at his home in the Michigan Sault.

LAID UP FIVE YEARS

Until Half a Bottle of Father Morriscy's Liniment Cured His Shoulder.

Mr. Jos. J. Roy, a prominent tinsmith of Bathurst, N.B., july 16, 1909:

"I cannot let this opportunity pass without letting you know what benefit I received from your Liniment. For five years I had a sore shoulder, which prevented me from working or from sleeping at night. I had tried everything possible and still could find no relief, until I was advised to try a bottle of your liniment, which I purchased without delay. I only used one half of the bottle when I was completely cured, and now I feel as if I never had a sore shoulder. I would advise anyone suffering from Rheumatic pains to give your liniment a trial, for I cannot praise it too highly."

A liniment that will do that is the liniment you want. It is equally good for sore throat or chest, backache, toothache, ear ache, sprains, sore muscles, cuts, bruises, burns, frost-bites, chapped hands or chilblains. Rub it in, and the pain comes out. 25c per bottle at your dealer's, or from Father Morriscy Medicine Co. Ltd., Montreal, Que. 64

H. Bridgen, of the townline near Glenelairn, met with an unfortunate and painful accident a few days ago which might have resulted much more serious than it did. He was harrowing and in making a turn in a low part of the field the harrow turned up and fell backwards on him pinning him to the ground, from which position he was more than an hour extricating himself. The horses fortunately remained quiet or he might have been killed. As it was he sustained a dislocation of the shoulder and other painful bruises which have laid him up ever since.—Creemore Star.

FOR FAMILY USE

An Ideal Remedy for Coughs, Sore Throat, Catarrh, Weak Chest.

After having made a special study of the treatment of the throat and lungs for twenty years, Prof. D. Jackson states that in his opinion no preparation for general family use is so efficient, so healing, so certain to cure as Catarrhozone.

As his reasons for making this claim for Catarrhozone, Dr. Jackson says:

"Catarrhozone is free from opium.

"The patient can breathe its rich, balsamic fumes direct to the diseased spot.

"It is a remedy that treats and cures causes—prevents disease spreading.

"Reaches the innermost recesses of the throat, nose, bronchial tubes, and lungs.

"Alleviates chest soreness.

"Stops coughing instantly.

"Prevents bronchial irritations.

"Relieves clogged nostrils.

"Cures sniffles and nasal catarrh.

"Prevents La Grippe.

"Has proven itself a cure for weak lungs, loss of voice, speakers' sore throat, asthma, bronchitis, catarrh, coughs, colds, and winter ills."

Catarrhozone is unquestionably the world's greatest breathable cold, cough, and catarrh medicine, and being free from all drowsy drugs, entirely safe for children and old folks; it makes an ideal family remedy. Recommended by the medical profession, and sold by all reliable dealers. Beware of imitations, get "Catarrhozone" only; large size lasts two months, and is guaranteed, price $1; smaller sizes 25c and 50c. By mail from The Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

The result of a provincial audit of Chesley's financial affairs, called for in a petition signed by 64 ratepayers, was communicated to the council last week. It covered the transcations for six years back and all by-laws since Chesley's incorporation as a village. The audit lasted two months and cost $900. It was found that the treasurer had over deposited $1,709, which was promptly refunded. The collector's arrears totalled $137.04 made up of monies not collected, chiefly from income tax.
