Miss Ella Barnhouse of Toronto is the guest of friends here.

Miss Knott of Chicago is visiting her cousin, Mrs. R. Moore.

Mr. Glen Petch of Toronto is holidaying among his friends in this vicinity.

Miss Bell, teacher in the public school, spent the week end at her home in Owen Sound.

Miss Myrtle Blakeley returned to Toronto Saturday after a three-weeks' visit to her home here.

Mrs. Christoe and Mrs. Thom of Hawkesville have been spending the past week with Flesherton friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bellamy attended the wedding of their son, Mr. Edgar Bellamy, in Toronto last week, Miss Leone also accompanied them.

The I. O. F will hold a church parade next Sunday morning to the Methodist church, where Rev. H. E. Wellwood, B. A., will preach an appropriate sermon.

Flesherton baseball club played the Vandeleur club at the latter place on Thursday evening last. Six innings were played, Flesherton winning by a score of 9-2.

Mr. Wilfrid Cullis, who has been stationed at Giroux Lake during the past year, has been visiting his parents at Vandeleur and took the Methodist service here on Sunday evening.

The Maxwell C. O. F. will hold a jolly picnic on the banks of the Beaver on July 1, Dominion Day. There will be baseball and football matches for good prizes. See large bills for full particulars.

To-day (Thursday) has been set apart by the village fathers as civic holiday. All places of business will be closed. There is no special attraction here, and most of the young people will journey to other points for their amusement.

The Flesherton A. O. U. W. marched to the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon, about forty-five strong, joined by a number of the Priceville brethren, and headed by the band. At the church the pastor preached a sermon based on John 13-34: "A new commandment I give unto you that ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another."

Harry, the 6-year-old son of Mr. H. LeGard of the suburbs, met with a severe and painful accident on Saturday. He was sitting on a board which topped a fence, when the board turned and let him fall on a stone pile. As a result his arm was badly broken between the wrist and elbow. The bone was set, and while suffering greatly the little fellow is doing as well as could be looked for.

The farmers of north Toronto line held a successful picnic in Fred Brown's grove on Friday evening last. A baseball match was played between the north and the south, the south team being composed of Inistioge and Spring Hill players. On account of the referee's bad decisions the score resulted in 9-2 in favor of the south. A football match and other games were witnessed and an enjoyable evening spent by all.

Mr. Hector McDonald of Priceville, who is widley known in this county as Piper McDonald, died at his home on Friday morning last. The deceased gentleman with his bagpipes and his little daughter in Scotch dances were favorite attractions at many entertainments and fall fairs. He had been ailing for some time with an affection of the heart but was considered to be getting better and the news of his death came in the nature of a shock to his many friends. He arose on Friday morning, took a coughing and choking spell and immediately expired. Malcom and John McDonald of this place are brothers. The funeral took place to Priceville cemetery Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Mark Armstrong of Markdale, and her sister, Mrs. Flynn, called on Mrs. Carter last Friday.

Mrs. Lou. Karstedt of Owen Sound spent a few days last week at Mr. F. G. Karstedt's.

Word was received here the past week announcing the death of Mr. Frances Whewell, sr,, in the west. No particular are to hand.

S. Connel, a piano agent of Owen Sound who has been doing business here, was arested Tuesday evening and taken to Owen Sound on a charge of fraud in a western land deal, preferred by his brother.

Campbell as supply. Rev. A. J. G. Carscadden is the new pastor at Singhamton. Rev. J. V. Laughland, late of Massie, goes to South River.

How Jas. Pattison of Ceylon can sell such high class goods at such a low price is astonishing those who attend their sale.

Bellamy--Perkins

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. E. Perkins, in Howard Parke avenue, was the scene of a quiet wedding at eleven o'clock yesterday morning, when the marriage took place of their daughter, Grace, to Mr. E. E. Bellamy, of Saskatoon, Sask. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Gilbert Agar, pastor of the Howard Park Methodist Church, in the presence of the immediate relatives. Miss May Wilson played wedding marches.

The bride who was given away by her father, was unattended. She was wearing a gown of white silk and lace with tulle veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Bellamy left later for the Pacific coast before going to their home in Saskatoon where the groom has given the bride a house and lot, the bride travelling in a fawn tailor made gown with hat to match.—Toronto Star, June 15.

White--Sharpe

A very pretty house wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sharp on Wednesday evening, June 7, when their daughter, Miss Olive, was united in the bonds of matrimony with Mr. Thomas White of Saugeen Junction. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Mr. Berry of Priceville. The bride, who was unattended, wore a dress of white silk trimmed with lace. She wore a tulle veil canght with myrtle and natural flowers. A sumptuous tea was served on the lawn, after which the happy couple left for their home at Saugeen Junction, carrying with them the hearty congratulations of a large host of friends. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold bracelet. Mrs. W. Buskin of Flesherton played the Wedding March. There were many valuable gifts.

Hawken--Taylor

The home of Mrs. W. Taylor, "Fairfield Farm," Markdale, was the scene of a pretty wedding at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening, June 14th, when her youngest daughter, Rose, became the bride of Mr. W. A. Hawken of Flesherton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Young. Mrs. Dr. Brown played the wedding march, to the strains of which the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother Frank, entered the parlor, and looked very pretty in a dainty gown of white taffeta silk, trimmed with fancy net and overlace, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The young couple were unattended. After the ceremony, the guests, about 150 in number, extended hearty congratulations to the bride and groom, a very highly esteemed young couple. A dainty wedding supper was served and an enjoyable evening was spent by the company. The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful wedding presents. Mr. and Mrs. Hawken have settled in their new home here, and The Advance is pleased to add its quota of congratulations.

Joke on the Lady

On Tuesday morning of this week, a lady from the country came to town with a quantity of eggs and sold them to Mr. R. W. O'Brien for 16c a doz. The lady received her money, and continued wandering around the town shopping. When Mr. O'Brien unpacked the eggs from the lady's basket, he discovered that there were only twenty-five dozen. Of course he waited for the lady to return for the basket, which she did and was greatly surprised when informed that there were only twenty-five dozen eggs. She stated she had brought thirty-five dozen, but Mr. O'Brein recounted the eggs, showing her that it was impossible to put over twenty-five dozen in the basket. The lady was puzzled, but returned the difference, which amounted to $1 60. Before leaving O'Brein & Hewson's store she asked if they handled overalls. Upon finding they carried a complete stock, she commenced to examine same, and when asked what size she required, she said, Size 35. At this point her face reddened, and she immediately saw her mistake and explained to Mr. O'Brien that she was in the wrong, as she had been thinking all the time of the size of the overalls, and had the figures so much in mind that she actually thought she had thirty-five dozen of eggs.—Collingwood Messenger.

The trial of Edgar Stevens for stealing a watch and a sum of money from the home of Mr. Duncan McKinnon, near Allenford was held in Walkerton a few days ago ago before jugde Barrett and he was found guilty and sentenced to three months in gaol.—Tara Leader.

Mr. Wm Fenwick, of Derby, is lying almost at death's door—the result of being kicked by a horse.

Dundalk

The nominations at Hopeville on Friday to fill the vacancies in Proton Council resulted in R. Cronin of Kingscote being elected Reeve, and John Aldcorn of Swinton Park Councillor, both by acclamation.

R. J. Wilson, manager of the electric light plant, was successful in passing the examination required by the government for stationery engineer. He received his certificate of qualification last week.

Fire destroyed the barn of Albert French, 4th con. Melancthon, about three miles east of Dundalk, Monday night. Mr. French was in the straw house adjoining the barn, about 9 o'clock, with a lantern when it exploded in his hand. The burning oil was scattered on the straw and so quickly was the place in flames that he had barely time to escape. There was no chance of saving the buildings, which, with about thirty tons of pressed hay, two calves, three pigs, and other contents, were soon wiped out. The barn was a splendid new building, 40x70 feet, built two years ago this summer. All that now remains is the stone foundation. The building was insured for $1000, but Mr. French's loss will greatly exceed this sum.—Herald.
