Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clark of the Manitoulin Island are renewing acquaintances here. Mr. Clark went to the Island 34 years ago and has done well. He says the crops this year are marvellously fine and that the Manitoulin is a veritable garden of Eden, where every necessity for a happy life is forthcoming.

We neglected to mention last week the marriage of Mr. J. W. Tucker of the Markdale Standard, who was united in the bonds of matrimony with Miss Vera May Watson of Markdale, on June 15. This explains why the Standard took a week off last week. The Advance tenders its fraternal well wishes to the new bride and groom.

The farmers' excursion to Guelph on Saturday was tairly well patronized and the day was ideal for the outing. The seating capacity was not limited and everybody had a thoroughly good time. We understand that the number who availed themselves of this excursion was scarcely up to former years, probably owing to the fact that it came on Saturday. The excursionists were returned home in good time—about 11 p. m.

The annual convention of Artemesia and Markdale Sabbath School Association will be held in the Presbyte ian church, held Priceville, on Friday, July 7. There will be an afternoon and evening session, the former begining at 2.30 and the latter at 7.15. Rev. R. Glassford, Extension Secretary of the Provincial Association, will be present and deliver addresses at both sessions. It is hoped there will be a large turnout of those interested in Sabbath school work. Programs can be secured from the secretary, W. H. Bunt, Flesherton.

Mr. Wilson McMullen has been a heavy loser in horse flesh this spring, having lost three animals. A few weeks ago the first one was found dead in the pasture in the morning, with cause of death unknown. The next one died of inflammation, and on Friday last the third one, a very valuable animal four years of age, died of acute indigestion after only two hours' illness. This was certainly a train of misfortune. It leaves Mr. McMullen with one horse and a yearling colt.

Mr. Joseph Watson of Portlaw has a hen which has been paying special attention to the egg record as chronicled in these pages during the past spring, and for coronation week has produced two eggs which she believes will take the record for size by a quarter of an inch. Mr. Watson handed in the eggs for biddy on Monday. The largest one measured 6¼ x 8½, the smaller, 6¼ x 8¼, and both together weighed an even half pound. Biddy is a plymouth rock and ought to be a proud female.

Mr. S. Connell, piano agent, who was arrested here last week on a charge of fraud, returned to Flesherton on Saturday last to do business, and explained the nature of the charge to The Advance, from which explanation we learn that it is purely a family matter regarding property in the vicinity of Owen Sound and that there was no western land deal involved. The quarel circles around the charge of a brother, a ward of Mr. Connell. According to the explanation we cannot conceive how the matter could be construed into a criminal charge, and we trust the affair will be cleared up to Mr. Connell's satisfaction.

An amusing incident occurred one day recently in a G. T. R. passenger coach near Allandale. A gentleman sitting in his seat had a lot of nice brown hair when he got aboard at Allandale. A few miles later he put his head out of the window When he drew it in he exhibited a large expanse of bald head. During the instant that his head was outside, a playful puff of wind whisked off his toupee and whirled it away. The conductor was appealed to, and at the next station wired back to have a section man look for the missing hirsute appendage.—Collingwood Enterprise.

The Examinations

The educational struggle for recognition by the educational powers is now on. There are 62 pupils writing here, all told, divided as follows: Entrance to high school, 42; entrance to model, 10; matriculation, 7, and 3 for Entrance to Normal. The promotion examinations in both public and high schools took place last week, the results of which will be published next week. Mr. Holland presides at the Entrance to Model, Entrance to Normal and matriculation. Mr. Marcellus takes the High School Entrance. This week it is Entrance to Model and High School Entrance; next week and the following week, Entrance to Normal and Matriculation.

Patriotic Service.

The evening service at the Methodist church on Sunday partook wholly of a patriotic nature The pastor took for his text Psalm 33-12: "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance." The sermon was well worked out and inspiring to all who heard it. The speaker thought Great Britain was wonderfully blessed in the king who has just been crowned. He had inherited his goodness from Prince Albert the Good, Queen Victoria the Just, and Edward the Peacemaker, He also referred to the enviable position in which Canada now stands with its one-third area of the entire empire. The organ and pulpit were appropriately draped with union jacks, and the choir rendered special music, among which was included "Rule Britannia," with the congregation joining in the chorus.

Mr. R. N. Bugg, of the Peoples' Railway, is still alive and buzzing. He motored into Guelph the other day. He was still confident of the success of the scheme. The Acme Construction Company, of Toronto, has the contract for laying the rails and other work, and they will probably sublet the greater part of it, which means money without doing much hard work. Mr. Bugg expected that construction work would begin at Guelph about the first of July, and that it would be rushed to completion as they wished to have the road in operation as soon as possible.—Mt. Forest Confederate.

The new proprietor of Horning's Mills lake evidently means to put an end to the night fishing which has been indulged in by residents of that village and others for some time. Three residents of Horning's Mills appeared before Police Magistrate Rutherford in Shelburne on Monday afternoon to answer to a charge of poaching. One was fined $5 and costs, the case against another was dismissed and decision in case of the third was held over till next Monday when it is expected that two others will appear before the magistrate for trial.—Shelburne Economist.

The tail of a dog no matter how short, suffices for the following tale. Frank Sargent owned a small sized fox terrier, a pet for his little child, and when the family went away on Sunday, left puppy outside. Of course it got lonesome, and in hunting around for some one to play with, wandered off down to Dr. Campbell's when it spied bruin in his cage. Ah here is something about my size for a frolic, the doggie thought, and hopped through the cage to introduce itself. Bruin however viewed the intrusion from another standpoint. Surely this must be pretty good, so small, so frisky, and so attractive. Just then he got closer and closer, and in a few minutes only a few shreds remained of the poor pup. The bear had a free lunch of the tidbit.—Grand Valley Star.
