-Letters received by friends from Mr. H. Rainsford, formerly of the G. T. This popular dramatic company play one aight in Lindsay, Bradburn opera house, Thurstay, March 22nd. The company is well-known boroes the lines. The Erie Dispatch says: "The Daniel Boone Company played to a big house last night and gave an excellent border drama. The company is a good one throughout. The drama abounds in thrilling incidents that are worked up to the pitch of intensity necessary in a play of that kind. W. A. Lavelle, as "Dan'l Boone," gave an excellent impersonation of that kind. March's Big Snow Blockade,
As many expected March has contributed the biguest snow blockade of the winter. A northwest-storm commenced Saturday and on Sun-day it acquired almost the dimensions of a blisuard. The storm prevailed all over the country and was most severe in New York and other states to the south. The railways were block-aded and business almost suspended for the first three days of the week. The Midland division was badly drifted, and all trains Monday and Tuesday were cancelled. Wednesday a train got out from Port Hope but stopped at Lindsay and returned, the line between here and Toronto being still blocked up. Several mishaps socurred, but without injuring anyone. Two engines and a snow-plow were derailed in a snow-bank on the Whitby section just south of Manilla Junction, and are there yet. Another engine is off somewhere west on this division. The Cobosonk and Haliburten divisions are running O.K. The railway men have had a hard time of it but have done their duty nobiy. and was most severe in New York and other the offender. -To-merrow (Saturday) being St. Patrick's day, "the 17th of Ireland," shamrocks and green ribbons are in demand.

-The Petit Journal of Paris charges $20 a line for "reading matter" ads. It has a circulation of three quarters of a million a day. -The editor of the Woodstock Standard wrote: "Offended some cotton lorde," and the intelligent compositor made it "offered some cotton goods." One day last week whilst coupling care Mr.

-Mr. W. Walters and a gang of men left last week for Rosedale to resume the work of repairing the locks at that point, started last fall. Other improvements will also be put under way.

-Mr. Wm. McBerney, the well-known contractor, last Thursday had a slight fainting speil, with numbaces in the right arm; but under the care of Dr. Burrows he is now about all right again.

-Here is another warning: A four-year old girl belonging to Owen Sound, while trying to climb on a loaded sleigh the other day, was run over and so badly injured that both legs had to -A spirited runaway dashed down Kent-st. Wednesday a ternoon, but the lines were well handled by the occupant of the sleigh and the team brought to a standatill on Lindsay-st, before any damage resulted.

It is only fair to state that Mr. Hogan, who has the contract for cleaning the snow from the sidewalks in the south ward, was ill during the week complained of by the writer in The Poer last week, and was unable to attend to the work.

—Mr. P. Tully, proprietor of the Palace meat market, has purchased the block in which he is at present doing business from Mr. W. M. Robson. The block is a three-storey brick structure comprising two stores with dwellings up-stairs. The price paid is in the neighborhood of $5,000. According to program agreed upon the hotelkespers held another meeting this week, at which several important subjects relative to their business were thoroughly discussed, and, it is whispered, a favorable decision arrived at as regards one of them. The other was left over until next meeting.

—By a typographical error the number of acres in the R. C. Smyth farm in Fenelon township, near Fenelon Falls, advertised in THE Post, was stated at 90 acres. It should have been 190 acres. The correction is made this week. This is an excellent chance to get a good farm, conveniently situated.

—Mr. T. E. Brown, taxidermiet, Lindsay, has received from Mr. Davis, president of the Uxbridge Organ Co, several curiosities to dress and mount. The list includes a white Rocky mountain goet, two mountain sheep heads, one white owl, an elk two buffalo heads. Mr. Brown has many other rare and curious articles as well.

Port Hope is in a state of ferment over its chief constable. The council resolved to dispense with the services of Chief Douglass, when the people rose up in rebellion at a public meeting and by petitions, and the council have finally decided to take a beliet on the question next Monday. Port Hope is a lively place when she gets "real roused."

Building operations have made an early start in town. Already two new houses are in course of construction in the routh ward, south of Glenelg st. east, and more are to follow. This is a section of the town that will undoubtedly boom during the coming summer. The location is a desirable one, and there are numerous eligible building lots offered for sale cheap.

— A little sight-year old north ward boy noticing what has been said in The Poar about the Mac list of subscribers and the number of Campbells and Smiths, has annued himself during the snow blockade by making out seventy five different words out of the name Campbell. We give a dozen specimen words: Call, camp, camel, came, camel, came, am, ample, ale, ape, map, mace, mall, meal, and so on. Perhaps some of our little readers can beat this with some of the Mos—of the same number of letters.

—Perrin's Pine Tar Cordial is one of the most seasonable and useful things to have just now. It has gained a provincial reputation and is selling steadily. It promises to be one of our most prosperous and widely-known industries. It is certainly a safe, effectual and popular remedy for all kinds of colds, hoarseness and kindred fills. Any number of testimonials could be printed, all speaking in the highest terms of it. Those who have not tried this favorite household remedy should get a bottle and have it handy in the house. Mr. Perrin is giving special attention to the manufacture of the remedy and is extending the business largely as there is a great demand for P. P. T. C.

-Next Sunday the great single-scull match between Henry Peterson of San Francisco and William O'Connor of Toronto will be rowed over the Alameda three mile course. The race is for the largest stake ever rowed for on California waters, and is expected to be the best that has ever taken place there. U'Connor is a promising young carsman and his success in the forthcoming event is confidently expected by his Canadian admirers.

-The great pugilistic encounter between John by his Canadian admirers.

The great puglistic encounter between John
L. Sullivan, champion of America, and Charles Mitchell of England took place at Amiens, France, on Saturday last, and resulted in a draw after a prolonged struggle of two and a half hours. The ring being a twenty-four foot one enabled Mitchell to use his head and feet to such good advantage that he almost completely evaded his mighty rival and suffered only a few kneck-down blows. Both combatants were completely worn out in their "pedestrian" efforts to snatch the victory.

The carnival on Wednesday night in the Palace skating rink, announced as closing the season, was largely attended—in fact it would have been an extremely difficult matter to crowd twenty more into the building and leave any ice for skaters. The sight-seers numbered about 300; and about seventy skaters appeared in contume. No great effort was made towards purely character rendition. The main idea appeared to have been to obtain some disguise sufficient to comply with the rules laid down, and the result was most grotesque and laughable; but here and there a handsome costume caught the eye, freahening the somewhat monotoncus procession of "cultured gentlemen," war-path braves, etc. Occasionally a stalwart member of the band, cavalierly attired, could be discerned holding sweet converse with a "fair one" and keeping as sharpa look-out as could be expected under the circumstances that he did not run down half-a-dozen of the children gliding about inadvertently. During the evening a barrel-race took place with twelve contestants, and was won by Mr. E. Johnston. The joint parade of the citizens' band and the Downeyville silver cornet band at 7.30 was a most laughable prelude to the general jollity of the evening. The financial results were very satisfactory and demonstrated the young people's gratitude towards the band for furnishing them with a pleasing winter amusement. ace skating rink, announced as closing the sea-

It was a well fught fight and was viewed with interest by those present. The seventeenth end resulted in a tie, but in the eighteenth by lucky playing Skip Gladman obtained a lead of 3.

LAND SALT AND PLASTER.

Farmers, it is none too soon to commence jogging your memory concerning these important and indeed necessary aids to successful husbandry. It is our business to be in advance of the demand, and several carloads of these fertilizers have been received and transferred to our store-house.

Land Salt in sacks of 200 lbs. each and Plaster in barrels and in cotton and linen bags.

Many of you have purchased from me previous seasons and know these fertilizers for what they are—the best and purest in the market. Those of you who have not cannot possibly do better than buy from me this season.

To retain all their qualities it is necessary that these goods should be stored in a perfectly dry, water-tight building. My store-house on William-st., a brick structure, possesses these essentials, besides being the most convenient in town. HOW ABOUT THIS?

We are ready for this spring's business, let it be as big as it may.

We know how to make RELIABLE GOODS and LOW PRICES bear a hand in making good times.

BARGAINS THAT ARE BARGAINS,

The honest results of careful and economical buying—something more than a phenomenal dip in the price of a Spring Tie or a yard of Dress Lining. Bargains that reach out and grasp every article in our store will be offered in every department.

For downright earnest efforts to command the patronage of Clothing and Dry Goods buyers no house in town is more strongly furtified with this business principle than we are. We detest the tricks of the trade and have no room for them in our establishment. If you are working for honest goods at honest prices our store is the place to buy. If you are open for conviction try us.
