Mr. Oliver Cornett and sister, Miss Alfleda of Dundalk visited friends here on Saturday and Sunday last and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Wallace, Riverside.

Mrs. Jas. Stuart is visiting friends at Dundalk.

Owen Sound News

A carload of zinc blende was shipped from Wiarton to Cleveland, Ohio to be smelted so that the Albermarle Zinc Company may know the quality of mineral. Some especially fine samples of prodigious size have been taken out of the shaft. Dr. Wolverton, the promoter, is now sinking, and it is his desire to go down fifty or sixty feet in order to ascertain the depth to which the zinc extends.

With portions of several of his ribs removed, Ralph Mercer is recovering from an operation which in these parts is unique, but which the doctors hope will be completely successful. The young man, who is about twenty years old, and a son of Mr. W. S. Mercer, East hill, has been a sufferer for some time from tubercular trouble; and went to the hospital last week, where on the advice of his phyiscian he underwent an operation a few days ago. Parts of several ribs were removed from the breast and side, in the hope and expectation that, with the pressure removed, the lungs will be able to expand more fully and would thus grow strong. At present Mr. Mercer is recovering nicely from the operation; and the ultimate outcome is awaited with interest.

A sad accident happened Wednesday evening in which Mr, Richard Johnston, an old respected resident of Sydenham, was so badly injured that he expired in a few hours. Mr. Johnston and son, Thomas, with whom he resided, were taking in hay, the old gentleman driving the horses which were hoisting the hay into the barn. While a load was being hoisted, the rope broke. The horses, suddenly freed, gave a jump, throwing Mr Johnston off his feet, and ran away, dragging him about forty feet. He was picked up unconscious, and taken into the house. Dr. McDonald, of Annan, was immediately summoned and found him badly cut and bruised about the head, and suffering severely from shock. On account of his advanced age —84 years—he was unable to throw off the shock, and sank until he passed away early yesterday morning. He was a native of England, and a resident of the Township for many years. Two sons, Thomas and William, both of Sydenham, survive him.—O. S. Sun.

Priceville Jottings

Our fall fair will be held on Oct. 5 and 6 this year.

The sporting editor of The Advance can tell a joke in A 1 style. The two jokes in the issue of July 27, that caused such merriment among readers of The Advance here, are considered by some to be worth a year's subscription alone.

Bah! Riverdale cor. Sorry the old exploded superstition still remains in your pate. Canadians intend getting the "substance" by trading with the world. Canadians swept the enemy from Queenston Heights. Canadians tramped the veldt and sands of Africa and captured their thousands at Paardeberg. Canadians can also trade with their neighbors and still retain floating over their land the flag that braved a thousand years the battle and the breeze, while possibly the "shadow" may still remain in the narrow, superstitious mind of Riverdaleite and a few more in Ontario of the same stripe.

Miss Myrtle McArthur of Buffalo visited her mother and other friends for a couple of weeks lately.

Misses Eunice and Ruby Ferguson of Manitowaning were the guests of their cousins, Misses May and Edna Ferguson, for a week.

Considerable barley has been drawn in already, and some oats were cut the end of last week. Many harvesters after finishing in Ontario can go west in time for harvest operations there.

Rev. Mr. Thom is supplying for Rev. J. A. Matheson in the Presbyterian church for a few weeks.

Rev. W. G. Hanna, field secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, spoke in the Methodist church on Thursday evening, August 3.

The Methodist garden party on the 1st was a success, notwithstanding the thunder storms in early evening. Each appointment was well represented, although many disappointed persons were left at home. The kind members of other churches put in an appearance between showers, and also a little later when it faired up, and helped to swell the crowd, and added considerable to the receipts. Rev. Wellwood and a number of ladies from Flesherton came over through wind and rain, and W. W. Ramage and Miss Ramage, also a Mr. Watson, from north Egremont, all of whom assisted in entertainment. Mrs. H. B. McLean, an old time favorite, sang two solos. The inclement weather prevented several others who were to take part in the program. The receipts totalled $60.

For having liquor on the premises, the Hahn house was mulcted $50 and costs before Police Magistrate Telford on Friday. That same morning about 6.30 Matt Beckett of Owen Sound, with his assistants, dropped into town and, putting up at the Central, walked down town to the Hahn house where they commenced operations. The search resulted in the finding of some kegs of beer and several bottles of whisky, the former, after the trial, being turned loose in the gutter and the latter confiscated.

Ye Editor went to Clarksburg last week to visit his father, brothers, sisters and a host of other friends and relatives. Father is a man 86 years of age, but he can hear, eat, sleep and talk apparently as well as when he was a much younger man. His memory seems to be as good as it ever was; in fact some think he remembers things too well. He is not able to walk without crutches, being crippled with rheumatism and stiffened up with hard work which seemed to be the joy of his younger days. He goes to church on Sunday mornings and to see him spend half an hour hobbling a few rods might bring shame to others who could make the trip without effort, but fail to do so. He is truly a wonderful old man and seems as though he might live for many years yet. He likes to drive and sticks to his job when he meets an auto on the road.—Chronicle.

James Corbett, ex-reeve of Proton, met with an unfortunate accident on Saturday afternoon by which he sustained fracture of his leg between the knee and hip. His son Herb was driving a spirited team and in starting from the home place to the other farm for a load of hay, the horses became fractious and Mr. Cobett, sen., who was on the wagon, thinking they might run away, jumped from the back of the rack to save himself. In the fall the leg was broken.—Herald
