"Did n't Know 't was Loaded"

May do for a stupid boy's excuse ; but what can be said for the parent who sees his child languishing daily and fails to recognize the want of a tonic and blood-purifier? Formerly, a course of bitters, or sulphur and molasses, was the rule in well-regulated families; but now all intelligent households keep Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is at once pleasant to the taste, and the most searching and effective blood medicine ever discovered.

Nathan S. Cleveland, 27 E. Canton st...
Boston, writes: "My daughter, now 21 years old, was in perfect health until a year ago when she began to complain of fatigue, headache, debility, dizziness, indigestion, and loss of appetite. I concluded that all her complaints originated in impure blood, and induced her to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine soon restored her blood-making organs to healthy action, and in due time reëstablished her former health. I find Ayer's Sarsaparilla a most valuable remedy for Sarsaparilla a most valuable remedy for the lassitude and debility incident to soring time."

J. Castright. Brooklyn Power Co., Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "As a Spring Medicine. I find a splendid substitute for the old-time compounds in Ayer's Sarsaparilla, with a few doses of Ayer's Pills. After their use, I feel fresher and stronger to go through the summer."

CHURCH NOTES.—On Sabbath last Rev.
J. Ewing delivered a practical discourse from the words taken from Ephesiana, iv., 30, "Grieve not the holy apirit of God."
The speaker showed how individuals grieve the spirit of God,—first, by not speaking the truth; second, by giving way to anger; third, by stealing; feurth, by using profane language. In speaking on the first point he said there was enough of political lying to sink the Dominion. On the third point he said that the person who sold anything for more than its real value was stealing. The illustrations and language used by the speaker were sufficient to convince every one who heard him that he dealt fearlessly and faithfully with the subject of his discourse.

West Victoria Teachers' Association.—The twenty-first semi-annual convention of the West Victoria teachers' association met at Woodville on the 1st and 2ad of March. This was one of the most successful conventions yet held, owing in a great measure to the presence of Dr. McLelian, inspector of teachers' institutes, and the assistance given by Mesera, Hughes, Knight and Macpherson of Lindsey. Dr. McLelian gave two admirable addresses on "Language Faculty," in which he imparted much valuable information. To attempt to give a syspopis of these lectures would be to de them an injustice. Seversi well prepared papers were read. One by Mr. Morris on "The bible in schools," one by Mr. Morris on "The bible in schools," one by Mr. Mappherson, B.A., on "Words," one by Mr. Mappherson, B.A., on "The basis of the English language," and one by Mr. Mosgrove on "How time fe wasted in school," Mr. Knight gave an interacting lecture on "History," and was followed by Mr. S. Hughes, who gave a very practical talk on "School discipline," At eight p m. Dr. McLellan delivered a public lecture in the basement of the Presbyterian church to a large and attentive audience. His subject was "English literature," and was given in his usual brilliant style. The happy couple will soon return to Manitoba, where their home for the future will be. It has been known for some time that our reliable townsman, Mr. Caphas F. Pound, has been spending an occasional Sunday and other holidays in Sundarland. and report has whispered and is now verified that it was his intention to make our town the richer by bringing to it one of its fair residents, Miss Yerex. Double wedding invitations informed their friends that it had been arranged that these two couples should be united at the same time and place. The knots were tied in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Rev. N. R. Willoughby, M.A., united Miss Pound and Mr. White, and Rev. James Thom, M.A., of Sunderland performed the same office for Mr. Pound and Miss Yerex. The brides were charmingly arrayed in wedding gowns of golden brown satin, with lace and flowers. Miss Alice Thomas performed the part of bridesmaid to Miss Pound and Miss A. Yerex performed the same pleasant duty for her sister. Both these young ladies looked their best in exquisite attire. After a sumptuous repast the customary toasts were proposed in honor of the brides and looked their best in exquisite attire. Mysterious Disappearance.—Mr.Jno.
B. Fowler, son of Mr. John A. Fowler of North Monaghan, has been miseing since November 3rd last. He was second engineer on a steamer plying on the upper lakes, and was last seen by a policeman about twelve o'clock in Alpena, Michigan. Shortly before leaving the boat he had a difference with the chief engineer, and it is suspected he met with foul play at the hands of those interested in the altercation. His father has used every possible means to ascertain his whereabouts. So far, however, he has been unable to get any trace of the unfortunate young man. Advertisements have been inserted in the Detroit, lalpena and Cheboygan papers, offering rewards for any information regarding the missing youth, and his father has been twice at Alpena and with the aid of detectives and friends has instituted anxious enquiries regarding his son. It was said that he was seen at Cheboygan, but the report lacked authenticity. Mr. Fowler, sr., is very much grieved at his son's disappearance, as he was a bright promising youth of twenty-three years of age. But the old gentleman is still persevery, and it is eincerely to be hoped he will meet with a full measure of success.

GIVING UP BUSINESS.

RARE CHANCE FOR BARGAINS IN HARNESS.

I have decided to give up the HARNESS BUSINESS, and now is your chance to get a BARGAIN; I have over fifty sets of light and heavy harness to choose from all my own make, which I will guarantee to be first-class. All will be sold cheap for cash, or on time to good marks. No reasonable offer refused. Come along and give me a call as I have to leave the premises by the first of May next. All notes and accounts due me must be settled at once or they will be placed in the hands of the lawyer for collection.
