TRUTH BEFORE FAVOR-PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN

SWORDS INTO PLOUGHSHARES

"They shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more."—Isaiah 2-4.

The initial step in what it is hoped will amount in time to universal world peace, was taken on Thursday of last week, when representatives of France, Great Britain and the United States placed their names to a document which insures lasting peace between these three great powers. It is not an offensive and defensive alliance, but a simple agreement that all future differences among themselves shall be settled by arbitration, and that neither of these nations shall go to war with the other.

This solemn event is worthy of more attention than it has received, and marks a distinct step in advance in things affecting the comity of nations. No such an agreement between nations has ever before been consummated. France, Great Britain, the United States and Japan—who also has been invited to join in the treaty—could rule the destinies of the world. By this compact universal peace is appreciably nearer.

To our friends who live in fear of forcible annexation of Canada to the United States, and see its consummation in the reciprocity bill now before the country, this news will doubtless act as a somnolent, and prevent many a sleepless night between the present date and Sept. 21st next.

A FALL FAIR IDEA

The Grand Valley Star recently made a suggestion regarding fall fairs that is worthy of consideration and discussion. The article was called forth by the efforts of fair directors down in Dufferin to raise funds by private subscription. The suggestion was that the County Councils make a sufficient grant to each society to ensure its maintenance on a free besis—making everybody a member, in fact—cut out the membership fee altogether and let everybody exhibit who cares to do so. A special grant of $200 for each society would accomplish this.

As there are about fourteen societies operating in the county of Grey this would mean a grant of $2800 for the whole county. There is no doubt whatever that such a move would act as a strong stimulant to the fall fairs and make them much more popular. We rather favor the idea and pass it along to those who have it in their power to make such a change if, after thoroughly digesting such a radical proposal, it is thought that a lasting and decided benefit to the county as a whole would result.

NOT MENDING, BUT BETTER

A little Flesherton girl, whose mother had been ill, called on an errand at a neighboring residence. The lady of the house courteously inquired:

"Is your mother mending, my dear?"

After looking thoughtful for a moment Bertha replied:

"No—she's ironing."

TORONTO ON ICE CREAM

The Lord's Day Act is a bad dream for some Toronto people and its interpretation appears to be a matter of difficulty to some judges. For instance, witness this farce: A great many Toronto people like to eat ice cream any day of the week, Sundays included. It was held to be illegal to sell this delicacy on Sunday. Then a judge was found who decided that ice cream was a food and its Sunday sale was justifiable. Another judge coincided with this view, but gave it as his opinion that the delicacy must be eaten on the premises where it was purchased. The latest phase of the matter, however, is that providing the purchaser takes a bite out of it he may carry the rest home with him. He must not cut the bite off with a knife or any instrument, but with his native unwashed teeth. He must not use a clean pair of false teeth for the purpose. There is as yet no provision made for the man who wears false teeth, the man with a toothache, toothless old greybeards or babies. They may go without or clean up the platter right where the purchase is made. Toronto judges must be a queer medley of interpreters.

But why do Toronto people want to buy ice cream and cigars on Sunday? The cigars can be purchased on Saturday night and the ice cream will remain frozen until Monday morning. It is no necessity. Out in the old-fashioned country villages we find no difficulty in existing without ice cream for one day in the week without losing in weight. Our city cousins could do the same if they only thought so.

Seriously, it is a pity that a good law should be made farcial in this way. It looks to us as though it is done with a sinister motive.

John Cotril was hiking for home Friday evening about 10 o'clock on his motor cycle when he met a cow on the road, with which dumb brute he had a head-on collision. John was dumped and his machine somewhat damaged, though not seriously. As no report has been heard from the cow we presume she still lives.—Creemore Star.
