

Medical.

CURE
IT FITS

When I say CURE I do not mean merely to stop them for a time, and then have them return again. I mean a RADICAL CURE. I have made the

FITS, EPILEPSY OR FALLING SICKNESS.

A life-long study. I warrant my remedy to cure the worst cases. Because others have failed to reason for not following a cure, and as one in a million and a half of the population are afflicted with this disease, I have made the

Dr. E. G. BOUT, 37 Yonge St., Toronto, Ont.

The Canadian Post.

LINDSAY, FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1899.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

HOME AND FOREIGN ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Gathered from the telegraph and exchanges.

—A proposition has been made to confer the freedom of the city of Edinburgh upon Mr. Farnell.

—The Journal de St. Petersburg denies that Russia is making troops on the frontier of Afghanistan.

—A libel suit for $10,000 is being entered against the Regina Leader, the organ of Mr. Nicholas Flood Davis, M.P.

—A sailor on board a schooner in Baltimore found a cockroach in his soup, and at once went and murdered the cook.

—F. Perrier, alias Page, a counterfeiter, was detected at Kingston on Saturday in the act of passing counterfeit coin.

—At Fairbury, Neb., eld traps were floored on their sides by a citizens' committee for impudent and boisterous conduct.

—It is said a clue has been found to a gigantic plot existing throughout Russia for a new series of attempts upon the life of the czar.

—A woman announcing herself as "Mrs. Dr. Brooks, the great inspirational test medium," has been exposed at Jackson, Mich., and hastily left the place.

—On Saturday morning the Methodist parsonage of the Sullivan of Sydney, N.S., was badly wrecked by dynamite, which had been placed on the veranda.

—Arthur Krusenacker, aged 14, and heir to $80,000, has disappeared from Chicago. His father believes he has been abducted for the purpose of extorting a ransom.

—The virus extracted by a madstone recently applied to a little girl who was bitten by a dog in Terre Haute, Ind., is to be submitted to scientific examination.

—The residents of Perry Sound district are asking the government to give a grant to a physician to enable him to settle in those localities lately affected by diphtheria.

—At Fostoria, Ohio, Harry L. Hogue, superintendent of the electric light plant, was killed Monday night by coming in contact with the current while repairing the dynamo.

—Russian newspapers have been prohibited from referring to the recent discovery of an illicit manufacture of bombs. The police have a clue, but the czar is very much alarmed.

—The London Standard says Count Herbert Bismarck has declared that his interview with Lord Salisbury has resulted in a complete understanding between Germany and Great Britain.

—The Belleville police magistrate last Monday sentenced Joseph Douglas, the blasphemist, to two years in the penitentiary. Douglas was married to a woman, all of whom are said to be living.

—Sir Hector Langevin, on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his career as a crown minister, was presented on Saturday in Ottawa, with a service of plate valued at $3,000 and an address.

—The late John Bright was given in accordance with his wishes, an unostentatious funeral on Saturday. Wreaths were sent by the queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, Miss Cobden, and his own work-people.

—The election to fill the vacancy in the English house of commons for the Bedford division of Middlesex has resulted in the return of Captain Bowdler, a Liberal candidate, who received 5,124 votes against 3,623 for Mr. Fairbairn, the nominee of the Gladstonians.

—A thrilling scene occurred the other day at Wolfe Island, off which Alexander Kiel went fishing on the ice. Unknown to him the ice broke from shore, and on it he drifted down the American channel. His plight was seen, assistance was sent in a boat, and he was rescued.

—The Dominion Evangelical Alliance in Montreal has prepared a form of petition to the queen, asking for her majesty's interposition with regard to the Jesuits' estates act. In a few days a manifesto will vindicate the good faith and authority of the crown, and the rights of her majesty's loyal subjects in Canada.

—The attempt to blow up the residence of Rev. Mr. St. John, Sydney, has created great excitement. The attempt was made to trace the culprit, but he cannot be found. The affair has turned quite a number of votes in favor of the Scott act. The committee of the repeal has offered a reward of $100 for the capture of the criminal.

—The Vienna Tagblatt publishes a story of a narrow escape the czar and his family had while travelling from St. Petersburg to Gatchina. It is said an obstruction was found on the line over which the imperial train was to pass, and that several persons have been arrested for connection with the alleged plot against the czar's life. The story is not confirmed by other papers.

—A Paris correspondent writes: "I met at the Elysee a friend who had just arrived from Pech. He told me that Emperor Francis Joseph has become an old man, bowed down and with snowy hair, and that he is a weakling. The Emperor shows heroically for some weeks against the misfortune that came upon him, but is beginning to collapse. He was ordered to Corfu. He has refused, however, to leave the emperor, whose moral energy is not equal to hers. But she must go soon to place herself again under Dr. Metzger, for she is threatened with a relapse of paralysis that proceeds from the hardening of the chords of the spine."

—APOPLEXY, pneumonia, rheumatism are prevented and removed by Warner's Safe Cure. Why? Dr. Geo. Johnson of Kings College, London, says: "There is wide-spread enlargement of the muscular walls of the small arteries in chronic Bright's Disease, not only in the arteries of the kidneys, but also in those of the pia-mater (lining membrane of the brain), the skin, the intestines and the muscles, as a result of a morbidly changed condition of the blood due to kidney disease. If the kidney disease is not cured, apoplexy, pneumonia or rheumatism will result. Warner's Safe Cure does cure kidney any disease that combining them to take out of the blood the morbid or unhealthy matters.

—The Parnell commission resumed its sitting Tuesday, when Sir Charles Russell opened the case for the defense. He contended that the evidence of the witnesses was the pith and marrow of the inquiry.

—The expedition to capture, dead or alive, the notorious outlaw Morrison, who shot down Sheriff Warner in cold blood, arrived Tuesday at Lake Umbagog, New Brunswick. It is headed by Judge Duggan, who has taken up his quarters at Stornoway, about nine miles from Lake Umbagog.

—A whole family, six in number, were poisoned at Falmouth, Pa., last Thursday, by eating a salad with turnips, dug from the ground in mistake for horse radish and served for breakfast. James McBride and wife, Chas. McBride, Edward Foley, Ed. Kennedy, and Charles McBride will die. Their sufferings are horrible.

MIDLAND DISTRICT NOTES.

—A wrangle has been worked in Middlesex county during the past week very successfully, and our readers should be in their guard, should the offense be tried in this section. Two men came around selling gold watches at from $1 to $5. If asked how they sold them so cheap they replied that the watches for which they travelled broke or were and they were allowed to keep these watches as back salary, and wanted to sell them at any cost. The watches are only alibum and are not worth one dollar.

"SELF-RELIANCE" TO THE FRONT.

What He Says on an Important Subject.

Several days ago we published a letter from "Experience," upon a subject which is attracting considerable attention, and we have since received a similar communication from another, which we publish in full:

TO THE EDITOR:—A short time ago I noticed in your columns a letter signed "Experience," in which the offense was mentioned. The letter referred to as a clever advertisement scheme of Messrs. H. H. Warner & Co., to attract notice to their well-known Warner's Safe Cure, which, it must be admitted, is the greatest value of the medicine, but upon more mature consideration I am inclined to believe that the letter is a genuine expression from a well-informed individual, and that it should be given a question which should receive greater attention.

It is daily becoming more apparent that there is something radically wrong in the manner in which diseases are treated by those whose profession it is to heal the sick. A man is taken ill, and a physician is called in. "Only a slight nervous disorder," declares the physician, and the nervous disorder, however, refuses to be controlled, and in a short time the physician ominously remarks that the patient is suffering from consumption. Things go on until the patient is almost dead, and then the physician calls for a "series of complicated disorders." Treated for first one thing and then another—dosed with one medicine and then another—until finally succumbs, and then for the first time it is learned that the real cause of suffering and death was disease of the kidneys, which manifest themselves in various other symptoms of which the patient was promptly cured had a timely use been made of Warner's Safe Cure, which is the most important discovery made in connection with scientific progress in recent years. The reference made by "Experience" to the Robinson case, where no less than seven members of one family died within a few years, is a case of renal poisoning without attracting the attention of skilled physicians who were in attendance, to the real cause, but who issued death certificates for pneumonia, typhoid fever, bowel disease, etc., in a close of the ignorance which prevails among those who do it is definitely detect and treat the true cause of disease.

—The Belleville police magistrate last Monday sentenced Joseph Douglas, the blasphemist, to two years in the penitentiary. Douglas was married to a woman, all of whom are said to be living.

—Sir Hector Langevin, on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his career as a crown minister, was presented on Saturday in Ottawa, with a service of plate valued at $3,000 and an address.

—The late John Bright was given in accordance with his wishes, an unostentatious funeral on Saturday. Wreaths were sent by the queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, Miss Cobden, and his own work-people.

—The election to fill the vacancy in the English house of commons for the Bedford division of Middlesex has resulted in the return of Captain Bowdler, a Liberal candidate, who received 5,124 votes against 3,623 for Mr. Fairbairn, the nominee of the Gladstonians.

—A thrilling scene occurred the other day at Wolfe Island, off which Alexander Kiel went fishing on the ice. Unknown to him the ice broke from shore, and on it he drifted down the American channel. His plight was seen, assistance was sent in a boat, and he was rescued.

—The Dominion Evangelical Alliance in Montreal has prepared a form of petition to the queen, asking for her majesty's interposition with regard to the Jesuits' estates act. In a few days a manifesto will vindicate the good faith and authority of the crown, and the rights of her majesty's loyal subjects in Canada.

—The attempt to blow up the residence of Rev. Mr. St. John, Sydney, has created great excitement. The attempt was made to trace the culprit, but he cannot be found. The affair has turned quite a number of votes in favor of the Scott act. The committee of the repeal has offered a reward of $100 for the capture of the criminal.

—The Vienna Tagblatt publishes a story of a narrow escape the czar and his family had while travelling from St. Petersburg to Gatchina. It is said an obstruction was found on the line over which the imperial train was to pass, and that several persons have been arrested for connection with the alleged plot against the czar's life. The story is not confirmed by other papers.

—A Paris correspondent writes: "I met at the Elysee a friend who had just arrived from Pech. He told me that Emperor Francis Joseph has become an old man, bowed down and with snowy hair, and that he is a weakling. The Emperor shows heroically for some weeks against the misfortune that came upon him, but is beginning to collapse. He was ordered to Corfu. He has refused, however, to leave the emperor, whose moral energy is not equal to hers. But she must go soon to place herself again under Dr. Metzger, for she is threatened with a relapse of paralysis that proceeds from the hardening of the chords of the spine."

—APOPLEXY, pneumonia, rheumatism are prevented and removed by Warner's Safe Cure. Why? Dr. Geo. Johnson of Kings College, London, says: "There is wide-spread enlargement of the muscular walls of the small arteries in chronic Bright's Disease, not only in the arteries of the kidneys, but also in those of the pia-mater (lining membrane of the brain), the skin, the intestines and the muscles, as a result of a morbidly changed condition of the blood due to kidney disease. If the kidney disease is not cured, apoplexy, pneumonia or rheumatism will result. Warner's Safe Cure does cure kidney any disease that combining them to take out of the blood the morbid or unhealthy matters.

—The Parnell commission resumed its sitting Tuesday, when Sir Charles Russell opened the case for the defense. He contended that the evidence of the witnesses was the pith and marrow of the inquiry.

—The expedition to capture, dead or alive, the notorious outlaw Morrison, who shot down Sheriff Warner in cold blood, arrived Tuesday at Lake Umbagog, New Brunswick. It is headed by Judge Duggan, who has taken up his quarters at Stornoway, about nine miles from Lake Umbagog.

—A whole family, six in number, were poisoned at Falmouth, Pa., last Thursday, by eating a salad with turnips, dug from the ground in mistake for horse radish and served for breakfast. James McBride and wife, Chas. McBride, Edward Foley, Ed. Kennedy, and Charles McBride will die. Their sufferings are horrible.

MIDLAND DISTRICT NOTES.

—A wrangle has been worked in Middlesex county during the past week very successfully, and our readers should be in their guard, should the offense be tried in this section. Two men came around selling gold watches at from $1 to $5. If asked how they sold them so cheap they replied that the watches for which they travelled broke or were and they were allowed to keep these watches as back salary, and wanted to sell them at any cost. The watches are only alibum and are not worth one dollar.

"SELF-RELIANCE" TO THE FRONT.

What He Says on an Important Subject.

Several days ago we published a letter from "Experience," upon a subject which is attracting considerable attention, and we have since received a similar communication from another, which we publish in full:

TO THE EDITOR:—A short time ago I noticed in your columns a letter signed "Experience," in which the offense was mentioned. The letter referred to as a clever advertisement scheme of Messrs. H. H. Warner & Co., to attract notice to their well-known Warner's Safe Cure, which, it must be admitted, is the greatest value of the medicine, but upon more mature consideration I am inclined to believe that the letter is a genuine expression from a well-informed individual, and that it should be given a question which should receive greater attention.

It is daily becoming more apparent that there is something radically wrong in the manner in which diseases are treated by those whose profession it is to heal the sick. A man is taken ill, and a physician is called in. "Only a slight nervous disorder," declares the physician, and the nervous disorder, however, refuses to be controlled, and in a short time the physician ominously remarks that the patient is suffering from consumption. Things go on until the patient is almost dead, and then the physician calls for a "series of complicated disorders." Treated for first one thing and then another—dosed with one medicine and then another—until finally succumbs, and then for the first time it is learned that the real cause of suffering and death was disease of the kidneys, which manifest themselves in various other symptoms of which the patient was promptly cured had a timely use been made of Warner's Safe Cure, which is the most important discovery made in connection with scientific progress in recent years. The reference made by "Experience" to the Robinson case, where no less than seven members of one family died within a few years, is a case of renal poisoning without attracting the attention of skilled physicians who were in attendance, to the real cause, but who issued death certificates for pneumonia, typhoid fever, bowel disease, etc., in a close of the ignorance which prevails among those who do it is definitely detect and treat the true cause of disease.

—The Belleville police magistrate last Monday sentenced Joseph Douglas, the blasphemist, to two years in the penitentiary. Douglas was married to a woman, all of whom are said to be living.

—Sir Hector Langevin, on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his career as a crown minister, was presented on Saturday in Ottawa, with a service of plate valued at $3,000 and an address.

—The late John Bright was given in accordance with his wishes, an unostentatious funeral on Saturday. Wreaths were sent by the queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, Miss Cobden, and his own work-people.

—The election to fill the vacancy in the English house of commons for the Bedford division of Middlesex has resulted in the return of Captain Bowdler, a Liberal candidate, who received 5,124 votes against 3,623 for Mr. Fairbairn, the nominee of the Gladstonians.

—A thrilling scene occurred the other day at Wolfe Island, off which Alexander Kiel went fishing on the ice. Unknown to him the ice broke from shore, and on it he drifted down the American channel. His plight was seen, assistance was sent in a boat, and he was rescued.

—The Dominion Evangelical Alliance in Montreal has prepared a form of petition to the queen, asking for her majesty's interposition with regard to the Jesuits' estates act. In a few days a manifesto will vindicate the good faith and authority of the crown, and the rights of her majesty's loyal subjects in Canada.

—The attempt to blow up the residence of Rev. Mr. St. John, Sydney, has created great excitement. The attempt was made to trace the culprit, but he cannot be found. The affair has turned quite a number of votes in favor of the Scott act. The committee of the repeal has offered a reward of $100 for the capture of the criminal.

—The Vienna Tagblatt publishes a story of a narrow escape the czar and his family had while travelling from St. Petersburg to Gatchina. It is said an obstruction was found on the line over which the imperial train was to pass, and that several persons have been arrested for connection with the alleged plot against the czar's life. The story is not confirmed by other papers.

—A Paris correspondent writes: "I met at the Elysee a friend who had just arrived from Pech. He told me that Emperor Francis Joseph has become an old man, bowed down and with snowy hair, and that he is a weakling. The Emperor shows heroically for some weeks against the misfortune that came upon him, but is beginning to collapse. He was ordered to Corfu. He has refused, however, to leave the emperor, whose moral energy is not equal to hers. But she must go soon to place herself again under Dr. Metzger, for she is threatened with a relapse of paralysis that proceeds from the hardening of the chords of the spine."

—APOPLEXY, pneumonia, rheumatism are prevented and removed by Warner's Safe Cure. Why? Dr. Geo. Johnson of Kings College, London, says: "There is wide-spread enlargement of the muscular walls of the small arteries in chronic Bright's Disease, not only in the arteries of the kidneys, but also in those of the pia-mater (lining membrane of the brain), the skin, the intestines and the muscles, as a result of a morbidly changed condition of the blood due to kidney disease. If the kidney disease is not cured, apoplexy, pneumonia or rheumatism will result. Warner's Safe Cure does cure kidney any disease that combining them to take out of the blood the morbid or unhealthy matters.

—The Parnell commission resumed its sitting Tuesday, when Sir Charles Russell opened the case for the defense. He contended that the evidence of the witnesses was the pith and marrow of the inquiry.

—The expedition to capture, dead or alive, the notorious outlaw Morrison, who shot down Sheriff Warner in cold blood, arrived Tuesday at Lake Umbagog, New Brunswick. It is headed by Judge Duggan, who has taken up his quarters at Stornoway, about nine miles from Lake Umbagog.

—A whole family, six in number, were poisoned at Falmouth, Pa., last Thursday, by eating a salad with turnips, dug from the ground in mistake for horse radish and served for breakfast. James McBride and wife, Chas. McBride, Edward Foley, Ed. Kennedy, and Charles McBride will die. Their sufferings are horrible.

MIDLAND DISTRICT NOTES.

—A wrangle has been worked in Middlesex county during the past week very successfully, and our readers should be in their guard, should the offense be tried in this section. Two men came around selling gold watches at from $1 to $5. If asked how they sold them so cheap they replied that the watches for which they travelled broke or were and they were allowed to keep these watches as back salary, and wanted to sell them at any cost. The watches are only alibum and are not worth one dollar.

"SELF-RELIANCE" TO THE FRONT.

What He Says on an Important Subject.

Several days ago we published a letter from "Experience," upon a subject which is attracting considerable attention, and we have since received a similar communication from another, which we publish in full:

TO THE EDITOR:—A short time ago I noticed in your columns a letter signed "Experience," in which the offense was mentioned. The letter referred to as a clever advertisement scheme of Messrs. H. H. Warner & Co., to attract notice to their well-known Warner's Safe Cure, which, it must be admitted, is the greatest value of the medicine, but upon more mature consideration I am inclined to believe that the letter is a genuine expression from a well-informed individual, and that it should be given a question which should receive greater attention.

It is daily becoming more apparent that there is something radically wrong in the manner in which diseases are treated by those whose profession it is to heal the sick. A man is taken ill, and a physician is called in. "Only a slight nervous disorder," declares the physician, and the nervous disorder, however, refuses to be controlled, and in a short time the physician ominously remarks that the patient is suffering from consumption. Things go on until the patient is almost dead, and then the physician calls for a "series of complicated disorders." Treated for first one thing and then another—dosed with one medicine and then another—until finally succumbs, and then for the first time it is learned that the real cause of suffering and death was disease of the kidneys, which manifest themselves in various other symptoms of which the patient was promptly cured had a timely use been made of Warner's Safe Cure, which is the most important discovery made in connection with scientific progress in recent years. The reference made by "Experience" to the Robinson case, where no less than seven members of one family died within a few years, is a case of renal poisoning without attracting the attention of skilled physicians who were in attendance, to the real cause, but who issued death certificates for pneumonia, typhoid fever, bowel disease, etc., in a close of the ignorance which prevails among those who do it is definitely detect and treat the true cause of disease.

—The Belleville police magistrate last Monday sentenced Joseph Douglas, the blasphemist, to two years in the penitentiary. Douglas was married to a woman, all of whom are said to be living.

—Sir Hector Langevin, on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his career as a crown minister, was presented on Saturday in Ottawa, with a service of plate valued at $3,000 and an address.

—The late John Bright was given in accordance with his wishes, an unostentatious funeral on Saturday. Wreaths were sent by the queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, Miss Cobden, and his own work-people.

—The election to fill the vacancy in the English house of commons for the Bedford division of Middlesex has resulted in the return of Captain Bowdler, a Liberal candidate, who received 5,124 votes against 3,623 for Mr. Fairbairn, the nominee of the Gladstonians.

—A thrilling scene occurred the other day at Wolfe Island, off which Alexander Kiel went fishing on the ice. Unknown to him the ice broke from shore, and on it he drifted down the American channel. His plight was seen, assistance was sent in a boat, and he was rescued.

—The Dominion Evangelical Alliance in Montreal has prepared a form of petition to the queen, asking for her majesty's interposition with regard to the Jesuits' estates act. In a few days a manifesto will vindicate the good faith and authority of the crown, and the rights of her majesty's loyal subjects in Canada.

—The attempt to blow up the residence of Rev. Mr. St. John, Sydney, has created great excitement. The attempt was made to trace the culprit, but he cannot be found. The affair has turned quite a number of votes in favor of the Scott act. The committee of the repeal has offered a reward of $100 for the capture of the criminal.

—The Vienna Tagblatt publishes a story of a narrow escape the czar and his family had while travelling from St. Petersburg to Gatchina. It is said an obstruction was found on the line over which the imperial train was to pass, and that several persons have been arrested for connection with the alleged plot against the czar's life. The story is not confirmed by other papers.

—A Paris correspondent writes: "I met at the Elysee a friend who had just arrived from Pech. He told me that Emperor Francis Joseph has become an old man, bowed down and with snowy hair, and that he is a weakling. The Emperor shows heroically for some weeks against the misfortune that came upon him, but is beginning to collapse. He was ordered to Corfu. He has refused, however, to leave the emperor, whose moral energy is not equal to hers. But she must go soon to place herself again under Dr. Metzger, for she is threatened with a relapse of paralysis that proceeds from the hardening of the chords of the spine."

—APOPLEXY, pneumonia, rheumatism are prevented and removed by Warner's Safe Cure. Why? Dr. Geo. Johnson of Kings College, London, says: "There is wide-spread enlargement of the muscular walls of the small arteries in chronic Bright's Disease, not only in the arteries of the kidneys, but also in those of the pia-mater (lining membrane of the brain), the skin, the intestines and the muscles, as a result of a morbidly changed condition of the blood due to kidney disease. If the kidney disease is not cured, apoplexy, pneumonia or rheumatism will result. Warner's Safe Cure does cure kidney any disease that combining them to take out of the blood the morbid or unhealthy matters.

—The Parnell commission resumed its sitting Tuesday, when Sir Charles Russell opened the case for the defense. He contended that the evidence of the witnesses was the pith and marrow of the inquiry.

—The expedition to capture, dead or alive, the notorious outlaw Morrison, who shot down Sheriff Warner in cold blood, arrived Tuesday at Lake Umbagog, New Brunswick. It is headed by Judge Duggan, who has taken up his quarters at Stornoway, about nine miles from Lake Umbagog.

—A whole family, six in number, were poisoned at Falmouth, Pa., last Thursday, by eating a salad with turnips, dug from the ground in mistake for horse radish and served for breakfast. James McBride and wife, Chas. McBride, Edward Foley, Ed. Kennedy, and Charles McBride will die. Their sufferings are horrible.

MIDLAND DISTRICT NOTES.

—A wrangle has been worked in Middlesex county during the past week very successfully, and our readers should be in their guard, should the offense be tried in this section. Two men came around selling gold watches at from $1 to $5. If asked how they sold them so cheap they replied that the watches for which they travelled broke or were and they were allowed to keep these watches as back salary, and wanted to sell them at any cost. The watches are only alibum and are not worth one dollar.

"SELF-RELIANCE" TO THE FRONT.

What He Says on an Important Subject.

Several days ago we published a letter from "Experience," upon a subject which is attracting considerable attention, and we have since received a similar communication from another, which we publish in full:

TO THE EDITOR:—A short time ago I noticed in your columns a letter signed "Experience," in which the offense was mentioned. The letter referred to as a clever advertisement scheme of Messrs. H. H. Warner & Co., to attract notice to their well-known Warner's Safe Cure, which, it must be admitted, is the greatest value of the medicine, but upon more mature consideration I am inclined to believe that the letter is a genuine expression from a well-informed individual, and that it should be given a question which should receive greater attention.

It is daily becoming more apparent that there is something radically wrong in the manner in which diseases are treated by those whose profession it is to heal the sick. A man is taken ill, and a physician is called in. "Only a slight nervous disorder," declares the physician, and the nervous disorder, however, refuses to be controlled, and in a short time the physician ominously remarks that the patient is suffering from consumption. Things go on until the patient is almost dead, and then the physician calls for a "series of complicated disorders." Treated for first one thing and then another—dosed with one medicine and then another—until finally succumbs, and then for the first time it is learned that the real cause of suffering and death was disease of the kidneys, which manifest themselves in various other symptoms of which the patient was promptly cured had a timely use been made of Warner's Safe Cure, which is the most important discovery made in connection with scientific progress in recent years. The reference made by "Experience" to the Robinson case, where no less than seven members of one family died within a few years, is a case of renal poisoning without attracting the attention of skilled physicians who were in attendance, to the real cause, but who issued death certificates for pneumonia, typhoid fever, bowel disease, etc., in a close of the ignorance which prevails among those who do it is definitely detect and treat the true cause of disease.

—The Belleville police magistrate last Monday sentenced Joseph Douglas, the blasphemist, to two years in the penitentiary. Douglas was married to a woman, all of whom are said to be living.

—Sir Hector Langevin, on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his career as a crown minister, was presented on Saturday in Ottawa, with a service of plate valued at $3,000 and an address.

—The late John Bright was given in accordance with his wishes, an unostentatious funeral on Saturday. Wreaths were sent by the queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, Miss Cobden, and his own work-people.

—The election to fill the vacancy in the English house of commons for the Bedford division of Middlesex has resulted in the return of Captain Bowdler, a Liberal candidate, who received 5,124 votes against 3,623 for Mr. Fairbairn, the nominee of the Gladstonians.

—A thrilling scene occurred the other day at Wolfe Island, off which Alexander Kiel went fishing on the ice. Unknown to him the ice broke from shore, and on it he drifted down the American channel. His plight was seen, assistance was sent in a boat, and he was rescued.

—The Dominion Evangelical Alliance in Montreal has prepared a form of petition to the queen, asking for her majesty's interposition with regard to the Jesuits' estates act. In a few days a manifesto will vindicate the good faith and authority of the crown, and the rights of her majesty's loyal subjects in Canada.

—The attempt to blow up the residence of Rev. Mr. St. John, Sydney, has created great excitement. The attempt was made to trace the culprit, but he cannot be found. The affair has turned quite a number of votes in favor of the Scott act. The committee of the repeal has offered a reward of $100 for the capture of the criminal.

—The Vienna Tagblatt publishes a story of a narrow escape the czar and his family had while travelling from St. Petersburg to Gatchina. It is said an obstruction was found on the line over which the imperial train was to pass, and that several persons have been arrested for connection with the alleged plot against the czar's life. The story is not confirmed by other papers.

—A Paris correspondent writes: "I met at the Elysee a friend who had just arrived from Pech. He told me that Emperor Francis Joseph has become an old man, bowed down and with snowy hair, and that he is a weakling. The Emperor shows heroically for some weeks against the misfortune that came upon him, but is beginning to collapse. He was ordered to Corfu. He has refused, however, to leave the emperor, whose moral energy is not equal to hers. But she must go soon to place herself again under Dr. Metzger, for she is threatened with a relapse of paralysis that proceeds from the hardening of the chords of the spine."

—APOPLEXY, pneumonia, rheumatism are prevented and removed by Warner's Safe Cure. Why? Dr. Geo. Johnson of Kings College, London, says: "There is wide-spread enlargement of the muscular walls of the small arteries in chronic Bright's Disease, not only in the arteries of the kidneys, but also in those of the pia-mater (lining membrane of the brain), the skin, the intestines and the muscles, as a result of a morbidly changed condition of the blood due to kidney disease. If the kidney disease is not cured, apoplexy, pneumonia or rheumatism will result. Warner's Safe Cure does cure kidney any disease that combining them to take out of the blood the morbid or unhealthy matters.

—The Parnell commission resumed its sitting Tuesday, when Sir Charles Russell opened the case for the defense. He contended that the evidence of the witnesses was the pith and marrow of the inquiry.

—The expedition to capture, dead or alive, the notorious outlaw Morrison, who shot down Sheriff Warner in cold blood, arrived Tuesday at Lake Umbagog, New Brunswick. It is headed by Judge Duggan, who has taken up his quarters at Stornoway, about nine miles from Lake Umbagog.

—A whole family, six in number, were poisoned at Falmouth, Pa., last Thursday, by eating a salad with turnips, dug from the ground in mistake for horse radish and served for breakfast. James McBride and wife, Chas. McBride, Edward Foley, Ed. Kennedy, and Charles McBride will die. Their sufferings are horrible.

MIDLAND DISTRICT NOTES.

—A wrangle has been worked in Middlesex county during the past week very successfully, and our readers should be in their guard, should the offense be tried in this section. Two men came around selling gold watches at from $1 to $5. If asked how they sold them so cheap they replied that the watches for which they travelled broke or were and they were allowed to keep these watches as back salary, and wanted to sell them at any cost. The watches are only alibum and are not worth one dollar.

"SELF-RELI