August Sale commences now

Big reduction in all lines, which will last until the end of the month commencing with this issue. Owin o lack of floor space we are forced to put seasonable goods on the market at a reduction in order to make room for our fall import goods now being shipped. All who take advantage of these prices will do well in doing so

Slaughter in Semi-Ready Clothes.

In these are to be found all the latest suits in Tweeds, Serges, and Worsteds, in Greys, Browns, Greens, etc. in stripes, diagonals or plain. All of these are the latest styles, in double and single breasted, with trousers made peg top style, which give them a striking appearance. Now, in order to get rid of these we offer a discount of 10 per cent. Intending purchasers will do well to take advantage of this.

Slaughter in Men's Work Shirts.

This week we are putting on 5 or 6 dozen of Men's Heavy Work Shirts in fancy black and white strips, floral designs on all colors, in all sizes. The regular price of these shirts is 60 and 75c, to you, this week 49c.

TRUTH BEFORE FAVOR—PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN

EAST GREY POLITICALLY

The political ranks are now closing up for a strenuous political three weeks' battle in East Grey. By the action of the Reform convention on Monday Dr. Sproule will once more face Mr. Hartman. From the fact that Dr. Sproule has had 33 years of representing this riding at Ottawa, and with the reciprocity question before the people, Mr. Hartman considers that he has a prospect of at least materially reducing the Doctor's majority of 1136, which he secured in the last election, or perhaps wiping it out altogether. Mr. Hartman can scarcely hope for the latter, but he will put up a good fight. The genial Doctor will have to familiarise himself once more with the sidelines and concessions of his electoral district and allow himself to be interviewed by his supporters, many of whom, it is reported, look with a coquettish eye on reciprocal trade with the United States, and fail to see any danger menacing the empire.

The government would have done well to eliminate trout fishing in this county for the next three years in conjunction with deer hunting and the season for the former should in any event, be shortened up one month, making the close season commence on August 15. During the later part of August the trout are full of eggs and should not be taken.

Over in Africa a certain tribe has a peculiar regulation which might work to the advantage of all and the expedition of business if transplanted to Canada. The length of an oratorical effusion in the tribe referred to is limited to the time the speaker can stand on one foot. When he is obliged to change to the other foot his speech is considered complete and he must sit down. What a boon it would be if such a rule applied to the political orator in a campaign such as we are now going through.

Rod and Gun

No better number for a delightful holiday month has been issued than Rod and Gun in Canada for August, published by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont. In the opening story "From the Log of a Nautical Tramp," the holiday spirit prevails and is prevalent through the two following papers—Luxurious Trout Fishing and Up the Maganetawan, a River of Dams! In addition there is an abundance of other material, articles and stories dealing with fishing, deer, moose and bear hunting while other phases of outdoor life receive recognition and treatment in a manner that must appeal to all sportsmen. This is particularly the case with the little paper on the subject of wounded game and a pioneer's stories while the conclusions of the commission inquiries into the fisheries of Alberta and Saskatchewan must interest anglers all over the Dominion. The paper on a New Use for the Red Fox may not only create a new interest in fox hunting but also lead to an extension of the fox farms which have proved such a success in Prince Edward Island and in Middlesex county, in Ontario. Altogether it is a number which no sportsman should miss.

C. P. R. Plans

According to resident observers, Victoria Harber is destined to become one of the most famous lake ports on the American continent. It is said that the C. P. R. has acquired all the islands in the harbor, with connections to the mainland, elevators are already built on the island, harbor rights, etc., acquired, and docks are under construction. Everything is so near completion that next year will see C. P. R. trains from the Parry Sound line, at a near point to Victoria Harbor, running diretly there. The harbor has very deep water, and the biggest lake boats built can easily make the channel.

"It is, therefore, safe to conclude," say the shrewed ones, "that the C. P. R. lake traffic is all destined for Victoria Harbor—grain, passenger and freight—the Soo traffic to Fort William and Port Arthur.

What this means to Owen Sound is at once evident. The long haul to Owen Sound, with all its difficulties of the horseshoe curve and hills or grades, where it is stated an engine can only haul one-third of the freight that can be taken by one engine over the new route, can hardly compete with the new conditions.

Not only with an eye to business for profit, but to the profit from pleasure, is the C. P. R. directing its accustomed vigor and energy. The best island for a pleasure resort, rich in Indian tradition, rising proudly out of the waters of Georgian Bay, some twenty-five miles from Victoria Harbor, has been acquired by the C. P. R., say the interested ones. This island is named the Giant's Tomb, a halo of romance surrounds it, as Indian tradition claims it as the burying ground of Hiawatha. The island rises from the shore line in a gradual grade to a high tableland in the centre, not unlike a giant's tomb. The island is composed of fine alluvial soil, and has a beach of fine white sand, in which one can step into the water and for almost half a mile from shore not get out of depth.

It is claimed that the C. P. R. intend to build a magnificent hotel on the island as a summer resort, and connect it by boat with Victoria Harbor. This would make one of the finest resorts in the world, surrounded as it is with the already world famous 30,000 islands.—Collingwood Messenger.

Seemed to Give Him a New Stomach.

"I suffered intensely after eating and no medicine or treatment I tried seemed to do any good," writes H. M. Youngpeters, Editor of The Sun, Lake View Ohio. "The first few doses of Chamberlains Stomach and Liver Tablets gave me surprising relief and the second bottle seemed to give me a new stomach and perfectly good health." For sale by W. E. Richardson & Son.

Walkerton

At a late hour on Monday of last week when John Hodgins had hit the mattress for the night, he heard a noise at his granary that didn't use to be, so becoming suspicious that someone was violating that commandment which forbids stealing he raised a window and made a racket that was evidently disconcerting to the thief, as that individual dropped a bag of chop which he was lugging off and made his escape under the cover of the night. The following morning the granary door was found open and the bag of chop discovered where it had been deserted during the night. Like a bad penny, however, which always turns up, the thief a few nights later, made his appearance again, but this time at the home of Robert Lymberr. He was scared off also on this occasion, but left enough evidences behind to show that the last thief didn't swing when Soapy Smith was hanged.

The Pearsons auto party who left Toronto on Saturday to visit friends in Walkerton received a summons shortly after their arrival here charging them with exceeding the speed limit while motoring out of Toronto. The charge laid by a member of the city police force who took their number as they sped by, and a police court trial is scheduled to be held to determine the guilt or innocence of the accused.

After an absence of over forty years from Walkerton, James Smith of Chinook, Montana, landed here last week to visit relatives that he had left behind, but instead of shaking hands with his kith and kin, he was mournfully conducted to the cemetery, where certain epitaphs on the tombstones told in mute notes the sad tale. He had given up corresponding with them twenty years ago, and had followed the rolling stone mode of life, but during his rambles his thoughts continually reverted back to the old homes and scenes here, and now with the gray silvering his brow he returned to the haunts of his boyhood only to find strange faces and cold monuments to inform him what had happened. Like Rip Van Winkle returning from his long sleep, Mr. Smith was bewildered at the change that had come over the formation here.—Bruce Times.

Catarrhal Deafness

Successfully Treated By

Catarrhozone

Deafness is not so common as blindness, yet thousands are more o less afflicted by it, and their comfort seriously interfered with.

Catarrhal deafness manifests itself but slowly, yet it must be acknowledged that the great majority of those who become totally deaf might have averted this unfortunate condition if they had treated the catarrhal inflammation at its beginning.

The only remedy that can be safely employed for all forms of catarrhal deafness is Catarrhozone. You simply charge the air you breathe with this healing, soothing agent, and by forcing it gently through the ears destroy the germ life which keeps up the inflammation, and at the same time by the soothing, healing action it heals the inflamed surfaces of the middle ear.

CATARRHOZONE, to those who are just a little deaf, and are growing increasingly deaf, is an agent capable of affording the utmost satisfaction, and its use is attended without danger, and as the treatment can be carried on at home no person threatened with the affliction of deafness should postpone one moment in beginning its use.

From every part of the Dominion glowing accounts of the beneficial action it exerts upon catarrhal conditions of the middle ear have been sent in, and you will be resorting to the only method of cure, and the simplest method too, if you try Catarrhozone. Dealers everywhere sell it, 25c, 50c, and $1.00. By mail from The Catarrhozone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Ont.

Doctors Condemn Oily Liniments

The Public are Warned to Be Careful of These Strong-Smelling Oily Liniments Containing Harmful Acids, Ammonia, Etc.

Many people have clung to the old-fashioned idea that a thick, greasy liniment is the best kind. Doctors say not—and they know.

Recently a number of these white, oily liniments were analyzed, and they were found to contain an enormously high percentage of harmful acids, and such irritating chemicals as ammonia, etc. For the moment they may cause a warm sensation when first applied, but their continued use never cures rheumatism, and only deteriorates the skin, sets up inflammation and causes endless trouble.

When a doctor warns you to quit using a white, oily liniment—do so. He knows that a thick liniment can't penetrate, can't sink through the pores and reach the seat of the pain.

When asked his opinion a few days ago, Dr. Roberts stated that he considered a strong, penetrating, pain-subduing liniment such as "Nerviline," to be superior to any of the white, ammonia liniments. In his twenty-five years of practice he had witnessed cases of rheumatism, sciatica, and lumbago that simply would not respond to ordinary treatment—but Nerviline cured them. The same physician also spoke of the great advantages of keeping a preparation like Nerviline in the house always, because of cramps, diarrhoea, stomach disorders, earache, toothache, headache, and such minor ailments. Nerviline is a first-class cure. There is scarcely an ache or a pain, internal or external, that Nerviline won't cure. In thousands of homes no other pain-relieving medicine is used. Fifty years' continued success and the endorsement of the profession are proof that Nerviline is the liniment for the home.
