This is the season of the year when new subscriptions are coming along, and we have been pleased so far with the prospects of a respectable addition to our lists this fall. As an extra inducement for new subscribers we will, after this date, give the balance of this year free to all new subscribers. Tell the man who borrows your paper about this. One day during the past week we received five new subscriptions from widely different points of the compass—Kimberley, Feversham, Toronto and Flesherton. They are coming along every day. We want 100 new subscribers this fall, and expect to get them.

Since the Sproule block was burned last fall the postoffice has been located in the Armstrong block, but will shortly be transferred to permanent premises, next door to Boyd's general store, in the building which has been in course of erection this fall by Mr. M. K. Richardson. The filling in of this vacancy with a good brick building makes an immense improvement to the street. It is now being fitted up for a postoffice and when complete will make one of the most complete offices in the county outside the county town. Postmaster Trimble has ordered the latest thing in combination lock boxes. These have passed the customs and are expected any day. It will only be a matter of a few weeks until the office is moved into the new premises.

Don't waste your money buying strengthening plasters. Chamberlain's Liniment is cheaper and better. Dampen a piece of flannel with it and bind it over the affected parts and it will relieve the pain and soreness. For sale by all dealers.

If you want to have a good laugh and maybe kill a grouch, be sure to see the Bengough entertainment in the Flesherton high school assembly room on Friday, Nov. 10th. There will be a good moon so those who come will have the prospect of a drive home "by the light of the silvery moon" with their present or prospective wives. J. W. Bengough's entertainment is one continual laugh. His songs, stories and readings are all of the comic variety and his cartoons of people you know are big mirth producers. Mr. Bengough's humor appeals to all and leaves a decidedly pleasant memory of a decidedly pleasant evening. Tickets are the regular prices and can be had at Richardson's drug store or from any of the Flesherton Bandsmen. Admission, res. seats 35c, general admission 25c, children 15c.
