"It is a pleasure to tell you that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best cough medicine I have ever used," writes Mrs. Hugh Campbell of Lavonia, Ga. "I have used it with all my children and the results have been highly satisfactory." For sale by all dealers.

Riverdale

The melancholy days are come,
The saddest of the year;
Of wailing winds and naked woods
And meadows brown and sere.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Erskine of Beaverdale were visitors in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Leopard of Proton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Irwin, for a few days.

Our accomplished instrumentalist. and efficient school teacher, Miss Etta Elizabeth Briscoe, visited Miss Susie Hodgkinson of Blantyre, on the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Clugston of Rocklyn were visitors in our burg on the first of the week.

A number of our local sportsmen were out hunting on Thanksgiving day, but as usual bagging nothing except the knees of their trousers.

Miss E. E. Briscoe attended the jolly good time at Goring on Monday evening.

Mr. D. McIntosh and R. Johnston have recently had windmills for water pumping erected.

Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Martha Henning of the west back line were visitors in our burg recently.

A number from here attended the ideal oyster supper at Beaverdale as previously. There was some class to the luscious goods and spicy up-to-date program.

Our famous fur trapper and raw fur specialist, Mr. Kirby, is successfully applying his profession on the pole cat tribe, inferring from the staggering odor.

The recent copious showers of rain have immensely facilitated agricultural operations.

Mr. Fraser Dunlop, M. B. of Rocklyn, accompanied by Miss Esther Briscoe, were the guests of Miss A. Gillespie of Berkeley, on the first of the week. Such is life.

Mr. John Dolson and friend, of Toronto, were the guests of Miss Annie Boales for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Tressa Lee spent Thanksgiving with the latter's friends in Owen Sound.

We understand that our public school teacher, Miss Briscoe, has decided to relinquish professional duties in our academy at the expiration of the present year

The erection of the capacious sawmill in this vicinity by Messrs. Baird & Co. is being expeditiously accomplished.

Messrs. James Baird and J. Gould of the Riverdale Engineering Co., were charming callers at the home of Wm. Boyd on Friday evening. Call again gentlemen.

Miss E. Briscoe and Miss L. Boyd visited Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Walker, south Riverdale, recently.

Miss Lou. Wiley of Meaford High school, spent Thanksgiving at her parental home in this vicinity.

We were pleased to observe, while reading the bright, breezy correspondent items from neighboring vicinities last week, that our genial and optimistic Stone Settlement correspondent is with us again.

Some class to that real goods from Priceville Cor. & Co. last week. Wonder if our promising little mollycoddle executed it themselves or did they push the hired man to do it for them.

Don't waste your money buying strengthening plasters. Chamberlain's Liniment is cheaper and better. Dampen a piece of flannel with it and bind it over the affected parts and it will relieve the pain and soreness. For sale by all dealers.

Eugenia Paragraphs

The weather this week has been very wet with very high winds on Saturday and Sunday, ending in a snow storm.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Bradbury of Thornbury visited friends in this vicinity the past week.

Messrs. Fred Duckett and Russel Park have returned home from the West.

Mrs. Frank Weber is very poorly with heart trouble.

We are pleased to see Miss Maud Duckett able to be around again.

Miss Adams of Flesherton is visiting at Mr. Munshaw's.

Mrs. L Larimer and Mrs. Jake Williams and daughter, Nea, are visiting in the city this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Osborne of Maxwell were the guests of Mrs. Jacob Williams the past week.

Mr. Fred Pedlar's son, Arthur, is threatened with infantile paralysis.

Miss Louie Hyslop visited over Sunday with Miss Alice Williams.

Mr. Karl Atcheson of Rock Mills visited friends at Eugenia on Sunday.

Orange Valley

(Special to The Advance.)

Orange Valley L. O. L. 509 held their annual box social on Friday, Nov. 3rd in their lodge room. The program was opened by the chairman, Hon. I. B. Lucas, M.P.P., giving a short address and in his usual happy manner entertained with his witty sayings as the program proceeded. Then followed a phonograph selection from Mr. Yorke's machine and kindly loaned for the occasion. A step dance by Master Cecil Teeter which received a hearty encore to which he responded; a violin solo by Mr. W. Cargo; a number from the Junior Quartette of Flesherton, Elsie and Elmer Wright, Muriel and Murray Legate brought an encore to which they responded; a recitation by Harold Yorke, "When Father rode the Goat," a waltz by Master Cecil and Miss Annie Teeter; these little people are exceptionally clever on their feet; a selection called the Orange Valley Minstrel Show composed of Messrs. York, Wright and Cargo with their violins, tambourine and Organ, also brought down the house as usual; a recitation by Mr. Harry Irving was well received; also a solo by Mrs. R. H. Wright of Flesherton; a duet by Miss Brady and Mr. Gregory of Vandeleur, was heartily encored and they happily responded; phonograph numbers were interspersed throughout the program.

Following the program Mr. W. J. Teeter, auctioneer, took charge and auctioned off the boxes, after which the audience disposed of the contents of the boxes and a very pleasant evening was concluded by singing the National Anthem. Mrs. J. Beatty was the organist. The proceeds amounted to $52.25.

Taylor--McQuay

At the Presbyterian manse, Dundalk, by the Rev. J. A. Buchanan, on Wednesday, Nov. 1, at 4 p.m., Martha J., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McQuarry of Maxwell, was married to Fred T. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor of Port Law. The bride was attired in a blue serge travelling suit and wore a blue hat with white plumes. She was attended by her sister, Miss Beatrice McQuay, who also wore a blue serge suit and blue hat with white plumes. The groom was attended by Mr. O. R. Bellerby of Shelburne. The young couple will live at Port Law.

Is your husband cross? An irritable, fault finding disposition is often due to a disordered stomach. A man with good digestion is nearly always good natured. A great many have been permanently cured of stomach trouble by taking Chamberlain' Tablets. For sale by all dealers.

Mayor Elias Lemon has launched a street railway project for Owen Sound by which if the plan is carried into execution, the town will build, own and operate, six miles of electric railway, the initial cost being $100,00.

Last Week's Items

Mr. Ben Smith met with an accident while working for Mr. H. Piper. He was returning from work riding one of the horses and leading a colt. The colt pulled him off the horse which stepped on his hand and opened up a large gash between the thumb and finger. The doctor had to put in seven stitches, but his hand is doing well.

We are very sorry to relate the accident which happened to Wm. Sargent in Hamilton. He got his head crushed between two cars, sustaining a compound fracture of the skull, which had to be trepanned. He is now doing as well as can be expected.

Miss Blanch McConnel spent a week with her mother recently.

Our teacher, Miss Coleman, spent her Thanksgiving with her parents in Owen Sound.

Mrs. Mateman of Markdale, Mrs. Ed. Thompson and Mias B. Wood of Flesherton spent Sunday at Mr. J. L. Woods'.

This Week's Items

Winter seems to have set in in earnest.

Miss N. A. Collinson has returned home after visiting friends in Toronto for a few days.

Mr. James Pattison, who has been under the weather for some time, is around again.

Mrs. John Gilchrist, too was quite poorly for a few days but is now improving.

Mr. J. F. Collinson has returned home after a three months' trip through the West.

Wm. Sargeant is, we are informed, steadily improving.

T. A. and Andrew Gilchrist attended the funeral of their uncle, Mr John Weir of Singhampton on Monday. They went down on Sunday and returned after the interment.

Mr. N. Boyd of Toronto has spent a week visiting with his friends, J. W. Gibson and others, in this vicinity.

Three colts one of them said to be worth $200, belonging to Robert Bredin, Beeton, got out of the field and into the station yard there on Friday night last and were killed by a freight train passing through. A bunch of sheep were also killed a short distance ftom there the same night.—Creemore Star.

Fatal Shooting Accident at Walkerton.

A very deplorable accident took place on Thanksgiving Day by which a bright young life was suddenly ushered into eternity. This was the result of one of the many shooting accidents which took place on that day throughout Canada. The victim in this case was Murytmor Egan aged 13 years, son of Mr. T. J. Egan, proprietor of the liquor store, who received a bullet from a rifle which was accidentally discharged while in the hands of Harvey Jasper, son of Mr. Walter Jasper of Carrick.

The two lads had arranged to go hunting on Thanksgiving Day as did scores of other minors from town, each borrowing a rifle from parties in town for that purpose. They proceeded to the home of young Jasper in Carrick from whence they went to the woods and about three o'clock they treed a squirrel. Young Jasper had fired a shot at it and had reloaded, just then young Egan ran in front of him and as he did so the rifle in some manner was again discharged, the bullet striking Egan on the head, piercing the brain. On seeing what he had done, being but a lad of 12 years he was at a loss to know what to do. Luckily there were others in the woods at the time and his cries attracted Vic O'brecht who on seeing what had happened summoned Roy Wesley who was also in the woods at the time. Roy took in the situation at a glance and finding that Egan was still alive, took him in his arms and with the assistance of O'brecht carried him to the home of Mr. Philip Gress, which was the nearest dwelling. As it was a considerable distance the boys were so fatigued by the time they arrived there that they could scarcely stand. A boy was at once despatched to Mr. Jasper's where the news of the accident was phoned to Walkerton. On the arrival of the doctors it was found that the wound would most likely prove fatal.

The wounded lad was removed to the hospital in the ambulance where he sank rapidly, death coming about 9 o'clock, he never regaining consciousness.

Coroner Dr. Porter was also on the scene and when the details of the accident were investigated, he decided that an inquest was not necessary.

Murtymor Daniel Egan was one of the brightest little chaps in this town and the news of his death cast a gloom over the entire populace. Especially do the young ones regret his sudden departure from amongst them, which was evidenced by the large number of boys and girls of his own age who visited his late home on Tuesday to pay their last respects to their departed comrade. Of all this host of friends there is not one who is taking it harder than Harvey Jasper who so unwittingly caused the death of his little friend. "Murt" as he was called was but thirteen years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Egan and family have the sincere sympathy of a large number of friends in their bereavement.

The body was taken to Hamilton on Wednesday where the funeral was held.—Walkerton Telescope.

The deceased when a little chap was well known in Flesherton, as he frequently visited his aunt Mrs. John Runstedtler. The Advance tenders its sympathy to the bereaved relatives. —Ed. Advance.

"There could be no better medicine than Chamberlainn's Cough Remedy. My children were all sick with whooping cough. One of them was in bed, with a high fever, and was coughing up blood. Our doctor gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the first dose eased them, and three bottles cured them," says Mrs. R. A. Donaldson of Lexington, Miss. For sale by all dealers.
