Mr. John Boales' barn in Euphrasia was burned to the ground a week ago Sunday night. A lantern exploded while he was working in the barn and the chaff caught fire. Mr. Boales threw his coat over the flames and thought he had put them out and then went to the house for another lantern. On looking out a few minutes later he found the whole building in a mass of flames. One horse and the season's hay were burned. The loss is about $1,000, with small insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Meldrum, 4th line, Artemesia, celebrated their silver wedding on Friday evening, Nov. 3. Friends were present from Kimberley, Feversham, Flesherton and Eugenia. The guests partook of a dainty supper, after which a very pleasant evening was spent. The host and hostess were the recipients of many beautiful presents from friends both here and in Saskatchewan. A host of friends join in wishing them many years of health and prosperity.

The Stuart hunting party returned from Parry Sound district last Friday. The actual hunt only lasted a week. There were ten hunters in the party and ten deer were secured—seven bucks and three does. Five of the bucks ranged around 200 pounds each. The hunt was the most pleasant and successful that this party has ever enjoyed. There were no accidents and no lost dogs, while there was enough in the hunt that was amusing to give snap to the outing. Some very fine heads were secured, and The Advance man is the possessor of one of the finest.

At a recent meeting of the Women's Institute, Dr. E. C. Murray gave an address that was very interesting and would prove helpful if put into practice by those present. If everyone followed the Dr's. advice, we fear it would work havoc with his finances; for among other good things he says if the teeth are kept clean they will not decay, but they should receive attention after each meal, at bedtime and before breakfast. His advice was to visit the dentist twice a year—especially the growing child. He said that too often the first teeth are neglected to the great detriment of the second set. The Institute was fortunate in securing the service of the Dr. and regret was felt that the weather was so unfavorable, thus causing a small attendance.

Artemesia Council minutes are held over until next week.

Dr. Waugh, H. S. Inspector, examined the school here last week.

Mr. W. J. Bellamy attended the funeral of his brother-in-law, Jacob Parliament, at Paisley.

Mr. Mitchell's hunting party returned home on Monday after a most successful and enjoyable hunt. His party was located in Parry Sound district.

Mr. R. Bentham attended the funeral of his uncle, Mr. John Weir, at Singhampton on Monday. The old gentleman was over 90 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Boyd will leave about the first of December for Claude, where the former will take charge of a large farm and fishery owned by a New York gentleman.

J. W. Bengough, the cartoon man, was greeted with a good house on Friday evening last, when he put on one of his charming cartoon lectures. As is usual with him, many of the local celebrities were burlesqued, which brought forth much amusement. The proceeds amounted to $48. The entertainment was under the auspices of the band.

Jacob Parliament, one of the early settlers of Artemesia, died at Paisley on the 7th inst, in his 82nd year. Mr. Parliament settled in the early sixties near Portlaw and remaved to Paisley some 15 years ago. He leaves a widow and five of a family viz.: David of Paisley, Abe, in Michigan, Jacob of Artemesia, Mrs. J. Blakey of Osprey, Mrs. J. Stoddart of Paisley. The funeral took place at Paisley on Thursday last.

A quiet but very pretty little wedding took place in Cleveland, Ohio, on Thursday, Nov. 1, when Alice, divorced wife of W. A. Smith and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ashdown, Owen Sound, was united in marriage to Mr. Walter T. Maloney, jeweler, of Cleveland, in the presence of only the intimate friends and relatives. Rev. Wm. Brown performed the ceremony, at the conclusion of which a dainty wedding dinner was served at the home of the groom's sister. On returning from their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Maloney will be at their home on Superior avenue, Cleveland, after Dec. 1.

A letter from Mr. Andrew Graham of Saskatchewan, who went west last spring, dated Nov. 1, says: "We are having beautiful, bright weather now, but very cold at nights. The ground is frozen hard. It registered 6 below zero this morning. We have our buildings all finished up for the winter and forty acres ready for the seed drill next spring. Like most of the West we had every prospect of a bumper crop this season, but owing to the wet, cold weather, it did not ripen early enough to escape the frost. So far I like it fine up here and think it will be a fine country in a few years. Game is very plentiful. Rabbits, prairie chicken and grouse are especially plentiful, there are also lots of moose and large game north of us. The lakes are covered with ducks."

An interesting parlor meeting was held at the residence of W. A. Armstrong on Wednesday of last week, when Mrs. James Straith of Owen Sound, District Cor Sec. for the Counties of Grey and Dufferin gave a report on the Provincial and Dominion Convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, held recently at Winchester and Ottawa. Mrs. Straith is a pleasant and impressive speaker, her enunciation is distinct, and she is most entusiastic, as is commonly said full of her subject. As the name implies the Union is a christian society, and much time is given to the devotional exercises of each monthly meeting. Mrs. Straith gave the officers much valuable information for their future guidance and work. Mrs. Robert Moore gave a reading, Mrs. R. H. Wright and Miss Trimble each sang a solo. These talented ladies are ever ready to assist every good work. A dainty lunch was served to about twenty-five ladies, the waitresses being Miss Lillian Armstrong and Miss Agnes Henderson. We understand that several ladies joined the Union.

Look out for the grand Agricultural Society Concert on Nov. 30. Full announcement next week.

A unique experience was that of four Indianapolis prisoners, who were taken for an automobile ride of ten miles the other day and saw in an hour the developments which have taken place in 40 years. One convict has served 40 years, one 35 years, one 17 years, one 13 years. All are 'lifers.' The ride was from Michigan city to Laporte, where two of the prisoners saw for the first time trolley-cars automobiles and many other evidences of modern achievements hidden from them by prison walls. So great was the surprise of the prisoners that two of them utterly collapsed from nervous excitement.—Bruce Times.

A rather amusing answer was given by one of the prisoners at the Barrie jail during church service at that institution on a recent Sunday afternoon. Rev. Andrew Smith, who was conducting service, asked the prisoner if there was any hymn for which they had preference. One young man promptly requested "We've reached the land of corn and wine," and the hymn was forthwith sung with a heartiness that was evidence that the prisoners appreciate the comfort of their surroundings. The jail menu costs but 8½c. per man per day, notwithstanding the ever-increasing cost of living. —Mt. Forest Confederate.
