VICINITY CHIPS

Mrs. Hickling is in Toronto this week.

Mr. Boyd started to flood his big rink on Saturday.

Miss Beynon of King is the guest of Mrs. (Rev.) Wellwood.

Mr. Will sharp arrived home last week from the western wheatfields.

Miss Belle Loucks has taken a position with F. T. Hill & Co. at Tara.

Mr. Newton Bannon is learning the jewelery business with W. A. Armstrong.

Mr. Ed. Thompson has taken a situation in Collingwood and left last week.

A number of local masons attended a Masonic At-Home at Markdale one evening last week.

Mr. Hickling has installed a telephone in his new store. Orders by phone will receive prompt attention.

A special meeting of the A. O. U. W. is called for Monday, Dec. 18, as the regular meeting falls on Christmas day. Election of officers. All members urgently requested to attend. H. LeGard, M. W.

Mr. F. C. Hartley of Bothwell's Corners, has leased the Park House and will take possession as soon as the present tenant vacates. Mr. Hartley comes well recommended. He has in the past kept hotel at Rocklyn and Holland Centre and knows the business.

Robert Pallister, who lost his barn by fire last week, will hold a credit auction sale of all his farm stock at his farm, lot 1, con. 11, Osprey, to-day (Thursday, Dec. 7.) Mr. Pallister has no place to winter them and all must be sold. Sale at 1 p. m.

Mr. Charles Moore of Victoria Corners has a Holstein heifer two years and one month old that is at the present time giving fifty pounds of milk per day. Her mother last winter gave 85 pounds per day. Mr. Moore will swear to the correctness of this statement. Can any of our stock raisers beat it? Let us hear from them if they can.

Mr. W. Reginald Fawcett of Burk's Falls, son of our old friend, Mr. A. R. Fawcett of the Burk's Falls Arrow and founder of this paper, has purchased the Clarksburg Herald-Reflector and made his bow to the public last week. We welcome the young man to Grey county journalism and trust luxuriant prosperity will crown his efforts.

We have no authority for making any statement regarding municipal politics other than that which appears in a card in this week's issue, namely that Mr. Graham is in the field for the Deputy-Reeveship. It is time the candidates were all announcing themselves. No doubt there will be a pretty contest with plenty of candidates in the field.

Eugenia L. O. L., No. 1118, held their annual meeting and elected officers as follows : W. M., James Carson ; D.M. Alex Carruthers ; Chap., R. Williams ; Rec.-Secy., S. Campbell ; Fin.-Secy., D. Williams ; Treas., G. Meldrum ; D. of C. Wm. McGee ; Lecturer, R. W. McMullen ; Committee men—Joseph Williams, John Parson, Henry Weber, Earl Parliament, Garnet McGee, I. G., J. E. Williams. S. Campbell, Rec.-Sec.

The marriage of Emily, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Henderson of Toronto, to Otto, eldest son of Prof. and Mrs. Carl Richter, of St. Louis, took place at the rectory of Trinity church, Toronto, on Monday, Nov. 20. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Canon H. S. Dixon. The bride looked very pretty in a dainty dress of soft, steel grey satin, trimmed with grey fringe and overlace set with pearls. After the congratulations of their many friends the happy couple left for Buffalo, where they will spend the winter ; afterwards they intend making their home in Toronto.

A gentleman informs The Advance that the pig's melt runs even until near the end, when it enlarges. If the winter runs according to this infallible? sign we will all be happy.

Mr. Wm. Carson of the east back line, while driving out of the Meaford road church yard on Sunday afternoon last, accompanied by a friend, met with a nasty mishap. The cutter was overturned and both men were thrown out. The horse, a young animal, attempted to run away, but Mr. Carson held grittily to the lines and was dragged by the frightened animal for several rods. Mr. Carson encountered several bad obstacles, the worst probably being a briar bush through which he was drawn. He stopped the animal at the expense of a good suit of clothes, which was torn to tatters, and a number of bruises and scratches on his person. Those who saw it say it was as pretty an exhibition of pluck and determination as they have witnessed for some time.

The Nominations

Returning officer Thomas Scott presided at the town hall here on Monday, and received the formal nominations of the two candidates for the Local Legislature.

Hon. I. B. Lucas was nominated by Wm. Findlay and seconded by John Gibson.

P. McCullough was nominated by Wm. McLoughry, seconded by Wesley Buskin.

Afterwards a public meeting was held presided over by Mr. J. R. Fawcett of Kimberley. The best of order prevailed and both candidates received a very attentive hearing from an audience that filled the town hall beyond its seating capacity. The addresses from both candidates were very instructive, and no doubt every man present knows exactly how to mark his ballot on Monday next.

Mrs. John Allen

Mrs. John Allen died at the residence of her son, Mr Austin Shackleford, in town, on Wednesday of last week, at the age of 82 years. She was born in Yorkshire, England, in 1829, and came to Canada with her parents at the age of three years, where they settled at Cayuga, Ont. Here she grew to woman, hood and married William Shackleford, by whom she had one son, Austin, who survives her. She, with her husband, moved to the O.D.R., Artemesia, and later to Amabel, near Hepworth, where her husband died forty years ago, after a residence there of some six years. Some two or three years later she married Mr. John Allen of Artemesia, with whom she lived until twelve years ago, when Mr. Allen died. There was no issue by this marriage. The farm on the Toronto line was then sold, and with her son she moved into Flesherton, where she has since resided. The deceased lady was a member of the Baptist church from her early girlhood, and a memorial sermon was preached by her pastor, Rev. Mr. McLaren, in the Baptist chapel on Friday afternoon last, previous to interment of the remains in Flesherton cemetery. Mr. Austin Shackleford has been a dutiful and faithful son to the old lady, and much sympathy goes out to him in his bereavement.

Stone Settlement

Mr. and Mrs. R. Whitaker spent Sunday in Durham.

Mr. John Irwin, who has been working in the Durham cement works during the past summer, is home for the winter.

Don't forget the concert which is to be held in S. S. No 6 here, on Dec. 15. A good program is being prepared.

Mrs. Bradey and son, Chris. of Cherry Grove, visited at F. Irwin's over Sunday.

Mr. Ed. Whitaker visited for a couple of days last week with his parents here.

Wm Watson, a St. Mary's cattle dealer, on killing one of the bunch of cattle that he had purchased for the Toronto market, because it was too thin to ship, was surprised to find in its stomach a lady's hatpin nine inches long, with a jeweled top, very valuable. Where and when the cow found it is a mystery.

Girl Badly Burned

Dolly Tindall, a fifteen-year old girl, who is living with her grandmother, Mrs. Richard Brockelbank of Brant, lies in the Hospital here in a precarious condition, the result of being terribly burned by the exploding of a lamp on Saturday afternoon last. At the time of the mishap, the girl appears to have been trimming a lighted lamp, when it suddenly exploded, causing the flames to ignite with her clothing, which almost entirely burned off her body. There being no help at hand, the girl was obliged to extinguish the fire herself, which she eventully succeeded in doing, but not before, however, she had been terribly burned about the hip, chest, arms and head. Her aged grandmother, who, we understand, is in an almost helpless condition, and who was the only other person in the house at the time, succeeded in calling help and getting word to Dr. Sinclair, who hurried to the scene and had the patient immediately removed to the Hospital, where her injuries were treated and where she is still lying in a serious condition. Mrs. Tindall, mother of the injured girl, resides in Hanover.—Bruce Times.

"Daddy's Girl."

Are you one of the hundreds who have written to The Globe for a copy of "Daddy's Girl"? This is probably without a single exception, the most popular picture ever published in Canada.

A few years ago The Chritmas Globe published a limited number of them. The demand was so great that every copy was ordered before it was put on the market.

A sample of this picture which is from a photograph of a child with the sweetest and most expressive face that can be imagined, may be seen at this office.

To see it is to want it.

This beautiful picture will be given free with each new subsciption or renewal sent in for the Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer before December 31, 1911.

Remember the edition of this picture is limited, and the first come the first served

The Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer has been enlarged, the staff of writers increased, and many new features have been added. Those improvements are in keeping with the progressive management that has made The Daily Globe one of the first half-dozen newspapers on the continent. The Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer, with its Illustrated Magazine Section, has always held a foremost place among the metropolitan weeklies in Canada. It will now be classed with the best on the continent. When the Illustrated Magazine Section, with its forty or fifty pictures of current events every week, is taken into account, it is certainly a lot of reading to be given for only one dollar per year.

Martin Lohr, an old man, was burned to death in his house in Beverly township.

Andrew Cruickshanks of Wingham was sentenced to seven years in Kingston Penitentiary for an assault on Miss Davis.

ELECTION CARDS

To the Electors of Artemesia Township :

Ladies and Gentlemen, -Having been solicited to offer myself as a candidate for the office of Deputy Reeve, I hereby consent, promising to do that which is right so far as I know, or is in my power to ascertain, for the best interests of a majority of the electors, without fear or favor, and am willing to be advised at all times on any subject affecting your welfare. I respectfully ask your vote and influence on my behalf. —J. I. GRAHAM.
