VICTORIA CORNERS

Mr. Russell Linton, who was at one time with the C.P.R. but laid off during the depression, came with Mrs. Linton and Peggy and built the service station and small, but handy, store at the corner, last week received his recall to the railway and intends accepting it. We do not know just yet what plans are being made about the business.

On Sunday Inistioge congregation bade farewell to Miss Armstrong, who has been our student minister for a few short months. She gave us an impressive message and her father, Rev. A. E. Armstrong of Meaford, was present and gave an account of his conversion. Her brother also assisted with the music. Mr. Armstrong Sr. is a descendant of the Inistioge Armstrongs.

Marguerite McClean returned to Owen Sound with her little cousin, Barbara Bleich, and remained for a few days.

It's a Boy!

Even as you read this, some Father somewhere is rushing this news to relatives. No matter where they are or what time it is—his first impulse is to let them know!

It's a Boy!

And that is also true of Aunts (and Uncles) and all the in-laws. Before Baby is half an hour old his arrival is celebrated far and wide—and he is endowed with a dozen names.

It's a Boy!

To Grandparents another chapter of Family History begins. Their grandparents may have waited for days before they had good news like this, but that was before the telephone—and Long Distance—became part of our everyday existence.

Spread Good News by LONG DISTANCE!

Look in your telephone directory and you'll find that by using Low Night Rates (also applying all day Sunday) and placing "Anyone" calls you can talk to nearby towns or Provinces for much less than you expected.
