Death of Wm. Hayes

Too late for Last Week

It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death of one of Osprey township's highly respected residents in the person or William Hayes, who crossed over to the silent majority on Thursday, Dec. 7, at the home of his son, Ernest, 4th line, Osprey. About July 1 the deceased went out West to visit his son and daughter, near Weyburn, Sask., and while there contracted typhoid fever. Returning home about the 20th October, he placed himself under the treatment of Dr. Ryckman of Maxwell. Everything possible was done, but, being a man of advanced years, the dread disease, followed by pneumonia, terminated fatally, as above stated.

The deceased was born in the County of Tyrone, Ireland, in 1844, and was a son of the late Robert Hayes, of Holland township, who emigrated to Canada in 1846, with his wife and two children. After coming to Canada they resided for about twelve years in Albion township, near Bolton, afterwards moving to Holland township, near Walters Falls. In 1868 the subject of our sketch was married to Mrs. James Young of Holland, who predeceased him eighteen years ago. In 1878 he moved to Osprey township, where, by honest industry, he made a comfortable home, where he has continued to reside until his demise. His family consisted of two sons and two daughters—Elizabeth (Mrs. Archibald Campbell); Ernest of Maxwell, Margaret (Mrs. John Norman), and William of Weyburn, Sask. Deceased is also survived by four sisters—Mrs. James Williamson of Goring, Mrs. William Seeley of Stayner, Mrs. John McQuay of Maxwell, Mrs. J. W. Patton of Rocklyn, and two brothers—John of Ogema, Sask., and Robert of Cameno, U.S.A. In religion Mr. Hayes was an unpretentious man, but had for many years been an adherent of the Presbyterian church. In political matters he was a staunch supporter of Conservative principles. On Saturday last his remains were followed to their last resting place in the Presbyterian cemetery, Maxwell, by a very large concourse of sympathising friends and neighbors. The funeral service was conducted under the auspices of the Loyal Orange Association. Rev. Mr. Mills, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Maxwell, was the officiating clergyman. The last sad rites were performed by the L. O.A., of which society deceased was a member for fifty years, having been made a member at 17 years of age, at the time of his death being in connection with Maxwell L.O.L. The brethren of Maxwell and local lodges turned out in large numbers to pay the last tribute of respect to a departed brother, and the magnificent wreath placed on the casket by them was a fitting tribute of respect to a brother whom they loved.

Ossie, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Norman, Weyburn, succumbed to typhoid. Recent news from there states that Wm. Hayes, jr., and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman and daughter, who were also afflicted, are now out of danger.

A Des Moines man had an attack of muscular rheumatism in his shoulder. A friend advised him to go to Hot Springs. That meant an expense of $150.00 or more. He sought for a quicker and cheaper way to cure it and found it in Chamberlain's Liniment. Three days after the first application of this liniment he was well. For sale by all dealers.

Vandals in Proton

A case of more than usual interest was on before Magistrate Sinclair on Tuesday, when Otto Morley, of 3rd concession, Proton, and Henry Stuckey, of Grand Valley, were charged by High Constable Cook, of Ceylon, with various acts of destruction of property. Both young men pleaded guilty and were committed to Owen Sound jail, to await trial before a higher court. It appears that the depredations were done on Wednesday night of last week, when the men were returning to Morley's house from Grand Valley. They admit having been drinking.

At Anderson's school, near Keldon, windows were broken by a charge from a shot gun. A dog was shot here also. Francis school also suffered in a similar manner, with broken panes. At St. Patrick's Catholic church on the 2nd concession, a board was shoved through a window. Windows at the Separate school on the sideroad, were also broken. At Walker's cemetery, on the 4th concession, no less than eight tomb-stones and monuments were overturned, one monument being broken beyond repair. Considerable excitement was aroused in the neighborhood by the series of depredations and the County Crown Attorney was communicated with, hence the arrests. The apprehension of the guilty ones was not a difficult matter. They, practically, gave themselves up after the clues were brought home to them. They will now have some time to reflect on the seriousness of their offences. We understand that Stuckey claims to have been merely a companion of Morley, who he says was the real offender. —Herald.

A Gift With a Thought in it

What other Christmas present costs so little and means so much as a subscription to The Youths Companion—52 weeks to any Canadian subscriber for $2.00? It is a gift which benefits not only the one who receives it, but every member of the same household.

With many Christmas presents the sense of novelty wears off by the week's end, but The Youth's Companion is as new and sought after the fifty-second week of the year as the first. It is elastic in its adaptability too; for it does not matter whether the present is for a boy or a girl, young married people, sedate couples, grand-parents—there never was one yet who did not set store by The Youth's Companion. You cannot make a mistake if you give The Companion—and it is only $2.00 a year now to Canadian subscribers. On January 1, 1912, the price will be advanced to $2.25.

The one to whom you give the subscription will receive free The Companion's Calendar for 1912, lithographed in ten color and gold, and you, too, as giver of the subscription, will recieve a copy of the Calendar.

CHRISTMAS DAY, 1911

This day is holy unto the Lord your God; mourn not nor weep. For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law.

Then he said unto them, go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.

—Nehemiah, VIII. 9-10

As done in Collingwood

"I want to search you for a gun," was the salute which stopped young John Patterson, while wending his way down Ste. Marie street in the dark on Saturday night. "I have no gun," declaired the seventeen-year-old boy, but it was no use, he had to go with the officer. Realizing his position Patterson began to shed bottles of whiskey and before the chief got him checked three quarts of genuine barley-corn had gone ker plunk on the cement walk. This looked a waste of "good stuff," the chief no doubt thought, and his search immediately became vigorous. In a pocket he discovered the fourth bottle which, with the necks of the three that had preceded it were taken into cover. Patterson was loged in the "cooler," where he remained until Monday morning when, with a hundred or more idle men as spectators, he appeared for a hearing. The charge read having liquor for sale, to which he pleaded "Not guilty," in a more or less flippant and careless manner. Mr. Birnie asked for adjournment for an hour, owing to the absence of a witness. This was granted. When the hearing resumed Patterson entered a plea of "guilty" and after a few words of kindly advice was fine twenty-five dollars and costs, amounting in all to about $30. The boy's friends came to his assistance financially and kept him from having to accept the option of sixty days in jail. Patterson is a smart young fellow whose energies might be better devoted towards a more honorable business than the pushing of the hip pocket brigade's nefarious business.—Bulletin.

The College to Attend

Young men and women contemplating a business education at the beginning of the new year should be careful to select an institution where they are certain to receive individual instruction throughout their course and have the assistance of the college in securing for them a position when through. This is what the Collingwood Business College guarantees its students, and this accounts for the fact that it is to-day one of the most widely attended business colleges in western Ontario. Mr. John Lawrence, of Egremont, had the misfortune to have one of his legs broken between the knee and the ankle, on Tuesday of last week. He was letting out his stock, when the last animal, a young spirited steer, slipped on the cement floor of the stable, and fell against Mr. Lawrence's leg, fracturing both bones. Dr. D. B. Jamieson set the limb and it is confidently expected Mr. Lawrence will be around again in reasonable time notwithstanding the fact that he is 77 years of age.—Chronicle.
