FOR FAMILY USE

An Ideal Remedy for Coughs, Sore Throat, Catarrh, Weak Chest.

After having made a special study of the treatment of the throat and lungs for twenty years, Prof. D. Jackson states that in his opinion no preparation for general family use is so efficient, so healing, so certain to cure as Catarrhozone.

As his reasons for making this claim for Catarrhozone, Dr. Jackson says:
"Catarrhozone is free from opium.
"The patient can breathe its rich, balsamic fumes direct to the diseased spot.
"It is a remedy that treats and cures causes—prevents disease spreading.
"Reaches the innermost recesses of the throat, nose, bronchial tubes, and lungs.
"Alleviates chest soreness.
"Stops coughing instantly.
"Prevents bronchial irritations.
"Relieves clogged nostrils.
"Cures sniffles and nasal catarrh.
"Prevents La Grippe.
"Has proven itself a cure for weak lungs, loss of voice, speakers' sore throat, asthma, bronchitis, catarrh, coughs, colds, and winter ills."

Catarrhozone is unquestionably the world's greatest breathable cold, cough, and catarrh medicine, and being free from all drowsy drugs, entirely safe for children and old folks; it makes an ideal family remedy. Recommended by the medical profession, and sold by all reliable dealers. Beware of imitations, get "Catarrhozone" only; large size lasts two months, and is guaranteed, price $1; smaller sizes 25c and 50c. By mail from The Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

PUTNAM'S PAINLESS CORN EXTRACTOR

The Paper that Does Things

"The Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine" of London, Ontario, is comming to be known as the paper that does things. By provincial prizes for road improvement, by orchard demonstration, and last of all, by the purchase of a 112 acre farm to be conducted in the interest of its readers, it has identified itself in a practical way with progressive agriculture and fairly earned the right to be known as a paper with the courage of its convictions. Its 1911 Christmas Annual contains, among many excellent features, a refreshingly candid account of the summer's operations in eleven acres of rented orchards, as well as upon the newly purchased farm, "Weldwood." The whole truth is told frankly, and this, we read, is to be policy throughout. The manager professes himself as quite willing for readers to profit by his failures as by his successes. If all eventuates as successfuly as the three-acre demonstration orchard leased three years ago, the final story will be a bright one. The 1911 balance sheet shows receipts from the three acres of $1,294.42, and disbursements, including rent, 693.49, leaving a clear profit of 600.93. A review of the three years' results shows a net annual return, combining profit and rent of 395, 38, or 131.79 per acre, "Who wants to grow peaches or oranges when there is money like that in apples?" is the comment. Who, indeed? The returns are almost incredible, and but for the candid recital of results in the two other orchards which have not yet shown a profit, would be hardly believed.

Pictorially and editorially, this 96-page issue is exceptionally strong. Inspiring biography is written of two formost agricultural leaders, James W. Robertson and L. H. Bailey, while the Home Magazine has distinctly surpassed itself.

Single copies of this number may be obtained as usual for fifty cents or by present subscribers for 25 cents. New subscribers will receive a copy free while the supply lasts. The publishers are The William Weld Co., Ltd., London, Ont.

Rev. Turk Won

Judgement dismissing the action with costs was given by Mr. Justice Sutherland Thursday last in the suit brought by Benjnmin Allen, a well known citizen of Owen Sound, against Rev. G. R. Turk, a former minister in the Methodist Church, of which plaintiff was a member, for damages for alleged fraud in connection with the sale of a share in the Henderson Roller Bearing Co., Ltd, now in liquidation. The price was $1,459, but in addition, on the representations of the defendant, the plaintiff purchased another share at $1,125, and entered into into several trasactions with them, where he lost several thousands of dollars. Mr. Allen claimed that his pastor came to him and told him that as a friend he wanted to put him in the way of making some money, and said that the stock in this company was bound to increase in value very rapidly. Mr. Turk was charged with saying that he had no interest in sale, and that he had seen a signed contract with the Toronto Railway Co. to purchase enough roller bearings for thirty cars. Mr. Turk denies both these statements, but he admitted that Dr. Potts, who was one of the directors, had told him many favorable things about the company. Mr. Justice Sutherland says that undoubtedly Mr. Turk was very sanguine about the stock, but finds that the onus upon the plaintiff of proving fraud was not filled, and dismisses the action.

Some opponents of Dr. Jamieson got one of his supporters loaded with whisky on election day, and a business man who will soon wonder why his patronage is falling off, loaded the drunken man into his buggy, drove him out to the cemetery and left him there thinking he would miss his vote. A couple of other citzens, learning of the trick, drove out, brought the man back and had his vote recorded in time. As the majority for the Dr. was over 350, this grave yard Bob would have to make a good many successful attempts of the kind in order to floor the Doctor.—Chronicle.

Rod and Gun

Full of Winter flavor and reminiscent of the time of year is the December (Christmas) number of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Limited Woodstock Ont. "Feeding Prairie Chickens in Winter" is a story which every lover of the Wild and the Things of the Wild will peruse with the keenest pleasure. It shows in every line how much real gratification can be obtained from a little attention to the wants of the birds during the winter weather and how observations, laying up a store of pleasant memories, can be obtained, the minimum of trouble giving the maximum reward. "Lost in a Manitoba Blizzard," "Animal Sanctuaries in Labrador" and the "Literature of Angling" show the wide interest created by this number and illustrate the manner in which sportsmen of the most varied tastes are catered to. These papers can all be read by the general reader with both pleasure and profit and the work done in this way for Canada is not to be measured by the fact that primarily the magazine appeals to sportsmen. There are plenty of sporting articles from seal hunting to bear hunting including that most strenuous sport of all—mountain climbing. A fine Christmas present is a subscription to Canada's leading sportsman's magazine.

A despatch from Ottawa says that the bills from the postoffice department for newspapers which sent out papers during the campaign for election purposes to those not subscribers will be mailed this week. The Toronto Globe will get a little Christmas note asking to pay up to the extent of $25,000. The bill of the Toronto News, it is understood, will be $3000. Toronto papers are about the only ones affected.

One hundred employees of the Public Works Department at Ottawa are to be dissmissed.

LIVER LAZINESS

Those Who Lack Energy and are Unsuccessful Should Read This Closely.

"I am only thirty years old, yet for almost two years I have felt more like seventy-five. I have found it difficult to sleep at night and in the morning feel so depressed and heavy that effort was difficult. My hands were always clammy and perspiration on slight effort would break out all over me. It was not unnatural that I should begin to brood over the chance that I should soon be unfit to do my work, and this dread made my sleepless nights perfect misery. After repeated trials of medicine and mixtures Dr. Hamilton's Pills gave me the first gleam of hope. From the very first I could see they were different in action from other pills. They didn't gripe and acted as naturally as if nature and not the pills were cleansing my clogged up system. My spirits rose, I felt much better, the sluggish action of the system gave way to normal activity. Dizziness and headaches ceased, appetite, good color, and ambition to work returned and have remained. I am like a new man and I thank Dr. Hamilton's Pills for it all."

This was the experience of J. E. Parkhurst, a well-known grocery dealer in Jefferson. Follow his advice, use Dr. Hamilton's Pills for your stomach, kidneys, and liver, and you'll enjoy long life and robust good health. All dealers sell Dr. Hamilton's Pills, in yellow boxes, 25c. per box, from The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.
