Letter of Condolence

Mrs. Alexander Muir and family:

Dear Friends,—Court Priceville, I. O. F., No. 476, herewith tender you our deepest sympathies in the irreparable loss you have sustained by the death of a beloved husband and a devoted parent. As a Court we keenly regret the demise of our well-beloved brother. Much will we miss the genial companionship, for to know him was to love and respect him. He was ever ready to help every cause which had for its object the good of humanity. But we well know that in the home that he loved so well he will be more greatly missed, and there, though lost to sight, will ever be to memory dear. His was an exemplary life, honorable and upright in every sense of the term, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove our beloved brother from the Court below to the Court above. How consoling the thought that your loved one is in the enjoyment of that rest that remaineth for the people of God. Our earnest prayer is that God will be with you in this, the hour of your bereavement, for He has promised to be a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless. When life with all its cares and troubles is over, may it be ours to meet, in that happy home above, where parting is unknown. Signed on behalf of the Court,—D. McInnis, C. R.; J. A. Matheson, F. S; D, McDonald, R. S.

Intended for Last Week.

The recent thaw made a clean sweep of the snow and several farmers got about three days plowing done before the weather turned cooler, and the thin layer of snow on the roads, at present, is not fit for drawing heavy loads on.

The Saugeen river had a high time of it for a few days, but is down to normal again.

We believe that in most cases, the groups of hunters who went into the northern wilds, carrying the least amount of booze, returned with the larger amount of game.

Dan McLeod was over here on Monday of last week, canvasing for "votes and influence," stirred up a hornet's nest. Eh Dan.

Hector McEcheron over on the 3rd, south of Glenelg, who has been for a time his own chief cook and dish washer, went out the other day and captured a dear in Bentinck. We wish Mr. and Mrs. McEcheron bon voyage through life.

The Womans Institute held their last meeting at Fair View farm, the nicely situated home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Patterson, on the townline 2½ miles north of this village. There was a good attendance and a pleasant and profitable afternoon was spent.

Dundalk

Morley and Stuckey, the young men who committed the depredations in the South of Proton a couple of weeks ago appeared before the County Judge in Owen Sound and were released from jail on suspended sentence on account of previous good conduct. The Judge however, gave the young men a severe reprimand.

James McPherson and sons, of the 10th con. Proton, who shipped some stock to the Winter Fat Stock Fair in Toronto, though not successful in carrying off any prizes made a good sale of their stock. Two steers 18 19 months old, weighing 1100 and 1140 pounds brought $8.10 and $8.15 per cwt., respectively, netting $89.10 and 92.87. These are good figures for calves but they were prime animals. —Herald.

John Martin of Colbeck district, insisted that the coon must come down, and that the chicken-killing on his place cease. Last week he found twelve dead one morning, and the next night set a watch on the coop, In a few hours a commotion among the hens gave intimation that there was something doing and his boy, protected with gloves and and carrying a bag slipped in. There he found a couple of full grown coons having a big time, which he ended by catching and putting them into the bag. Now, John doesn't know whether to start opposition to Barnum and Bailey, or convert the coons into good pelts. —Grand Valley Star-Vidette.
