VOL 31, NO 27 Flesherton, Ont., Thursday, January 11, 1912 W. H. THURSTON EDITOR and PROPRIETOR

Kimberley Budget

Not much like an open winter now, as there is some two feet of snow and on Saturday morning last the mercury dropped to ten below zero.

Mr. Kenneth Hurd of Toronto visited friends here during the past week and was the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hurd.

Don't forget the Orange concert to be held here on Jan. 26. Eddie Piggott of Toronto will be one of the chief entertainers.

The ice rink opened here on Wednesday night of last week. A large number of skaters were present and spent a very enjoyable evening.

Zero weather doesn't stop Geo. Proctor's hens from laying, in fact on Saturday last, when the thermometer registered ten below zero, they broke their record by laying an extra egg or so, 16 in all. Mr. Proctor's poultry house is open across the entire front.

Mr. Victor Ellis, eldest son of Reeve Ellis, will, on Tuesday of this week, undergo an operation for apendicitis at one of the hospitals of that city. Victor's many friends sincerely hope that the operation will prove successful. Mrs. Ellis left on Saturday last to attend his bedside.

Mr. David Thompson of Dundalk is visiting friends here and is the guest of Mr. John Plewes.

Mr. Thomas Clark of Collingwood is the guest of his brother, Mr. Wm. Clark, valley road north.

The annual tea and entertainment held here on New Years night, in connection with the Methodist church, was a good success and well attended, considering the rather inclement weather, a good program being provided. Miss Wilda Stuart, soloist, of Guelph, contributed to the program by the singing of a solo. Miss Stuart possesses a clear, strong and exceptionally well trained voice. We predict a brilliant future for this young soloist.

Mrs. Hetherington of Coldwater is attending the bedside of her father, Mr. James Fawcett, sr., who is very low at present.

Messrs. Rutledge Stafford and G. H. Walter were appointed representatives of the local Farmers' Club to attend a meeting at Markdale Feb. 1, the object of which is to form a county organization, All of the Farmers' Clubs in the county are expected to send delegates.

Mr. M. K. Richardson of Flesherton was a caller in our burg one day lately.

Mr. Ashley Fawcett visited friends at Heathcote on Sunday.

Mr. Robert Holley who, during the past year, has successfully conducted a general store business here, recently sold his stock to Mr. David Weber, who will in future conduct the business. While here Mr. and Mrs. Holley made many friends on account of their sterling qualities, and their many neighbors and friends much regret their departure from our midst.

On Wednesday night last the regular meeting of the Farmers' Club was addressed by Mr. H. C. Duff, district representative of Agriculture, on "Drainage." The address contained much valuable information.

Here is a remedy that will cure your cold. Why waste time and money experimenting when you can get a preparation that has won a world-wide reputation by its cures of this disease and can always be depended upon? It is known everywhere as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and is a medicine of real merit. For sale by all dealers.

East Mountain

Good sleighing and cold weather.

Mr. Alex. Madill of the Soo is visiting in this part.

Mr. Geo. Gorley remains about the same.

Miss Elsie Martin spent last week in Thornbury, the guest of her mother.

A number from this part took in the whirl at Mr. Jake Williams' on Thursday night.

Little Wilda Martin spent part of last week in Kimberley with her aunt, Mrs. H. Sloan.

Miss Nettie Martin is home from Owen Sound for a couple of weeks.

Persons troubled with partial paralysis are often very much benefited by massaging the affected parts thoroughly when applying Chamberlain's Liniment. This liniment also relieves rheumatic pains. For sale by all dealers.

Eugenia Paragraphs

Since Santa Claus has gone our friend, Jack Frost, is giving us an interesting visit.

The Farmers' Institute are holding their winter meeting in Eugenia on Jan. 19. The ladies will be addressed by Miss Powell of Whitby in the afternoon in the Methodist church. All ladies of this locality are requested to be present.

Mr. W. Graham has the rink again in good condition for skating.

Mr. Robert Purvis of Toronto is spending a few weeks with friends here.

Mr. Alex. Madill of the Sault is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Alex. Carruthers.

Mrs. Dave Jamieson of Toronto is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. McMaster.

Miss Moran of Woodbridge has been engaged as teacher in our public school for 1912. Miss Moran comes highly recommended as a popular and accomplished young lady. We hope she will enjoy her sojourn among us.

Mrs. Boyce of Durham and Miss Genoe of Markdale visited friends in this vicinity the past week.

Mr. George Paul of Saskatchewan is visiting the parental home for the winter.

Mrs. Frank Thompson has gone on an extended visit with friends at Chatsworth.

Master Jack White of Ceylon is the guest of Barbara Thompson of this place.

Miss Dell Warrington of Perth has returned home after visiting with Mrs. Wallace Armstrong.

Quite a number from Vandeleur came over to the rink on Saturday evening.

Miss Grace Jamieson has returned from her visit with friends in the city.

Rev. Mr. Milligan addressed his people on Sabbath with a very appropriate sermon on the opening of the year, text taken from Joshua, 3rd chapter and third and fourth verses: "To go forward with an eye fastened on Christ as our covenant king." Rev. Mr. Campbell, in the evening, addressed the congregation from the text, Deut., 17th chapter, 16th verse. "Ye shall henceforth return no more that way."

The annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church was held on Friday evening, a favorable number of members being present. The following officers were elected for church and Sabbath school for 1912: Chairman Board of Managers, H. Cairns; Treasurer, Alex. Cameron: Auditors. James Carson and George Meldrum; Organist, Mrs. Jacob Williams; Superintendent of Sunday School, Wm. Walker; Secretary, Miss Daisy Smith; Treasurer, Duncan Williams; Bible Class Teacher, Mr. Cairns; Intermediate class, Mrs. Walker; Infant class, Miss Wilson; Organist, Alice Williams; Caretaker, Mr. J. E. Williams.

Toronto Line North

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos R. Lever was the scene of a pleasant time on Friday evening, Dec. 29, 1911, when their neighbors assembled to join them in celebrating the twentieth anniversary of their "china" wedding. The evening was spent in games and other amusements. Music was supplied by our esteemed organist, Mrs. Emerson Wickens, accompanied by Mr. Wickens on the mouth organ. Some old and familiar songs were sung by a few of the neighbors who are good singers. After a midnight repast the guests departed for their homes. The bride and groom of twenty years ago received many beautiful china gifts as well as congratulations from their many friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Wm. Davis of "Sunnyside Farm" spent New Year's day with her daughter in Toronto.

Miss Violet McLean of Kimberley visited at Mr. and Mrs. E. Wickens', recently.

A particularly sad affair happened in Garafraxa on Friday when Robert, eldest son of Mrs. A. Hutchinson of Belwood, died after four days illness from blood poisoning. A few days before he got a scratch on his hand, but paid no attention to it, until it began to fester, and then the disease had secured too strong a hold.

If your children are subject to attacks of croup, watch for the first symptom, hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and the attack may be warded off. For sale by all dealers.

Priceville Jottings

Good sleighing, zero weather last week.

Several pupils from other sections have come in during the past few days to attend the continuation classes in our school here.

The municipal election was a hot one and shows that the fires of 1910-11 were never quenched, and won't be during this year. The popular vote would evidently have elected Caswell for Deputy Reeve, but owing to several spoiled ballots his opponent got a majority of one.

J. Burgess of the C. P. R. station spent Christmas with his family in Toronto.

The Women's Institute meeting for December was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. Harrow on the 4th line about three miles north of the village. The roads were good and a large number of the members availed themselves of the outing. Mr. Harrow and son, Hunter, kindly took care of the horses as they arrived and made them comfortable in their spacious stables The ladies returned home in the evening well pleased at the profitable afternoon they spent with Mrs. Harrow.

Where are our police trustees? Are they hybernating for the winter?

D. Matheson and S. Ferguson of Toronto University and Faculty of Education spent holidays at home here.

Louise Watson has secured Portlaw school for this year.

N. E. McKinnon teaches at the Irish Lake school this year.

Master George Tryon of Detroit was home with his parents for Christmas holidays.

Myrtle McArthur was home with her mother for the holidays.

Neil E. McKinnon was winner of the gold medal for proficiency at the O.I.C.

Portlaw

August Runstadtler, one of the oldest horse buyers in this section of country, died in Walkerton on Sunday last aged 76 years. The deceased was well and favorably known among the older settlers in this region. At one time he was in fairly comfortable circumstances, but fortune deserted him in the winter of life and his declining years were not encumbered with superfluous wealth.—Bruce Times.

Catarrh and Bronchitis

The Bane of Thousands, and has Hitherto Baffled the Skill of Medical Science.

Catarrhozone

Dry air treatment is the one treatment that will cure these diseases.
What stomach medicine has ever been known to cure Catarrh or Bronchitis?

Catarrhozone is not a stomach medicine, but an air medicine, that carries to the remotest parts of the throat lungs, and air cells little drops of healing so curative that whenever it touches germ life it kills and eradicates them from the system.

Thousands of doctors and patients have been disappointed by using stomach medicines for coughs and colds. Have you not found it a rather roundabout way to reach the diseased portion of the throat and lungs?

Why not use Catarrhozone, which is breathed to the very root of the disease and heals so quickly and perfectly that every spot is rebuilt with new healthy tissue?

Catarrhozone is the only medicine that will cure. Thousands have testified.

Think for a moment. Is it not sense! Little drops of healing—the air carries them just where disease exists That is why
