LESSON IV

JESUS DRAMATICALLY PROCLAIMS HIS MESSIAHSHIP

Matthew 21: 1-16.

GOLDEN TEXT.—Behold, thy King cometh unto thee. Matt. 21:5.

In this lesson the perfect character of the Lord Jesus is revealed to us afresh — his perfect knowledge, his infinite tenderness, his holy wrath against unholy things, his compassion for the blind and the lame, his perfect calmness in the midst of forces furiously bent upon destroying him.

Matt. 21: 1. And when they drew nigh unto Jerusualem. Our Lord has spent Saturday and Saturday evening in the home of Mary, Martha and Lazarus, in the village of Bethany, just over the top of the Mount of Olives. Now comes Christ's last visit to Jerusalem in the beginning of the week which will terminate in his crucifixion. And came unto Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives. Then Jesus sent two disciples, 2. saying unto them, Go into the village that is over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her; loose them, and bring them unto me. 3. And if any one say aught unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them: and straightway he will send them. We are free to suppose that our Lord has already spoken to the owner of the colt when he sent the two disciples, for nothing in the narrative contradicts this. The owner of the ass seems to have known Jesus, and perhaps was a disciple.

Riding Upon An Ass

4. Now this is come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying, 5. Tell ye the daughter of Zion, Behold thy King cometh unto thee, Meek, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass. This prophecy is found in Zech. 9: 9. Two things were intended by the coming of Jesus to Jerusalem in this way. The first was that of official kingly entry, manifestation of his Kingship to the crowds of Jerusalem. And yet, secondly, Jesus went in this way to exhibit not merely his kingliness, but his meekness. (That the King Messiah should come to Zion riding on an ass meant, for the Jewish people, that he was to have a kingdom not of this world).

The Triumphal Entry

6. And the disciples went, and did even as Jesus appointed them. And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their garments; and he sat thereon. 8. And the most part of the multitude spread their garments in the way; and others cut branches from the trees, and spread them in the way. John's account of this event (12: 13) informs us that the branches were from palm-trees. The palm, in those days, was regarded as the symbol of victory and triumph. The branches strewn in his way symbolized Christ's triumph and the people's joy.

9. And the multitudes that went before him, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. 10. And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, Who is this? 11. And the mutitudes said, This is the prophet, Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee. The attention of the whole city of Jerusalem was attracted to the coming of Jesus. For at least an hour the people recognized him for what he was.

The Temple Cleansed Again

12. And Jesus entered into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold the doves. This took place in the large outer court of the temple, separated from the shrine by a stone parapet. (The doves were the sacrifice offering of the poor.) 13. And he said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer: but ye make it a den of robbers. The priests, who ought to have been the holiest men in all Israel, were in the very temple dedicated to God robbing people who came with spiritual burdens, sending them away poorer than before, and disgusted with the whole business.

14. And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them. 15. But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children that were crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the son of David; they were moved with indignation. The hierarchical party, who had mostly ignored Jesus hitherto, now work for his destruction, their interests being threatened by this temple, reforming zeal. The chief priests had a monopoly of these sales in the temple, and drew enormous profits from them. 16. And said unto him, Hearest thou what these are saying? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea: did ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou has perfect praise? These children were no doubt some who had heard the shouts at the triumphal entry, and at the sight of Jesus in the temple began to sing out what they had heard.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

THE peculiarity in the eyes of telescope goldfish does not appear in very young fish, and may not be noticed for several years, but it usually develops at about six months of age. The monstrosity is characterized by an elongation of the eyeballs, in the direction of the optic axis.

PASTEURIZING WHEY

Importance of pasteurizing in cheese-making was stressed by Frank Hern, secretary-treasurer of the Dairymen's Association of Western Ontario, in an address to delegates attending the association's 73rd annual convention.

Eighty-five percent of the 79 factories operating in Western Ontario are now pasteurizing whey, said Mr. Hern, also chief provincial dairy instructor for the territory.

"Pasteurizing is an important point in preventing fruity and off-flavor cheese," said Mr. Herns. "It has been noticed each year that where, even for a short period, the whey which is to be returned to the milk cans, was neglected to be pasteurized, objectionable flavors were soon noticed in the cheese."

COOKED POTATOES FOR HOGS

A considerable portion of the potato crop is unsuitable for seed or table stock. Various methods of utilizing the cull potatoes have been suggested, and one method is to feed the potatoes to live stock. Potatoes may be fed to practically all kinds of live stock, but apparently they have their greatest feed value when cooked and fed to hogs, states Leonard Griesbach, Assistant, Dominion Experimental Farm, Fredericton, N.B.

It has been demonstrated by many feeding trials at various institutions that four pounds of boiled or steamed potatoes will replace approximately one pound of ground barley, when fed in a balanced ration to hogs.

Indians Receive Medical Services

Five Hundred Doctors and Dentists Are Employed In Looking After Health of Canada's Redskin Population

In safeguarding the health of the Indian population, the Dominion Government Indian Affairs Branch employs about five hundred doctors and dentists on whole or part time work, and has several hospitals of its own and a small but efficient field nursing service. It supplies medicine both by central purchase and local prescription, and engages in every activity relating to the health of about 118,000 Indians living in about eight hundred separate communities in Canada.

New Hospitals

The new Fisher River Indian Hospital will serve a community of about 1,500 Indians, which formerly had to send hospital patients to Winnipeg. This and the new hospital at Dynevor, Man., are being established as a means of providing needed care for sick Indians at a cost less than that of admitting them to public institutions.

RADIO NOTES AND NEWS

INTERFERENCE REMOVED

CBC has at last come to an agreement with the Mexican Government to have the wave-length of XERA, the powerful station at Villa Acuna, shifted to another channel, his means that signals from CBL, Toronto, can now be broadcast unimpeded throughout Ontario.

XERA has been a thorn in the side of CBL for years. The Mexican station is the most powerful transmitter in the western hemisphere, and is measured at 250,000 watts. It obliterated night reception from CBL in many parts of the province and seriously interfered with reception elsewhere. Mexican radio authorities have agreed to move it to another channel where its signals will not affect Canadian outlets.

AROUND THE DIAL

There is a strong rumor that the Chase and Sanborn Hour is soon to be broadcast from New York City instead of from Hollywood. Just when Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, Donald Dickson and Robtert Armbruster will pack their bags and fly east is not known.

Rudy Vallee is not retiring from radio after all. He has just signed up with a new sponsor and will be heard on Thursdays at 9:30 p.m., over the NBC red network. Vallee will begin broadcasting as soon as "Good News" follows the example of the Chase and Sanborn Hour by going into thirty minutes of show time.

Coast-to-coast radio in Canada has added a striking personality to its entertainment forces in the person of Captain J. J. Gagnier, Bandmaster of H. M. Canadian Grenadier Guards, who directs "On Parade" the new military musical show heard on Thursday evenings from 8:30 to 9:00 p.m., E.S.T., over CBL. Captain Gagnier is one of the busiest and most versatile musicians in the Dominion. Besides being conductor of the famous military organization he is CBC's Quebec Regional Director of Music, a famous guest conductor and a busy adjudicator in both Canada and the United States. He is also a composer of reputation and holds the degree of Doctor of Music from the University of Montreal.
