VICINITY CHIPS

Mr. Fred McClocklin of Holstein was in town on Saturday.

Mr. R. Bentham spent Sunday with his brother-in-law, Mr. J. Buskin, at Wodehouse.

Messrs. Donald McLeod, Deputy Reeve of Artemesia, and J. H. Snell, are at London this week attending L.O.L. Grand Lodge as delegates.

Mrs. (Dr.) Carter was called to Toronto on Friday last by the serious illness of a little nephew, who, we understand, is now improving.

Dr R. Henderson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Blackburn. Mrs. Herderson, who has been here for a week, returned home with him Monday.

Mr. Jacob Parslow of the Durham Road, previous to leaving for the West sold his farm to Mr. Jos. Oliver of the same locality. Mr. Oliver does not take possession for a year.

Flesherton skating rink maintains its popularity and on Friday night was crowded with an hilarious bunch of young people. Representatives were present from Feversham, Vandeleur, Dundalk, Ceylon, and Rock Mills.

A dead partridge was found lying beside the road between the village and station on Monday. There were no marks of violence. We hope this does not mean that the partridges are dying off owing to the severe winter.

The funeral took place here on Wednesday of last week of Mr. Bentley H. Freer of Durham. Mr. Freer was 62 years of age. Other members of the family have a resting place in the Flesherton cemetery.

Boy Wanted—An intelligent boy from 14 to 17 years of age, who would like to learn the printing and newspaper business, can find a good opening in this office at the present time. To the right boy a good chance is offered.

Among those who left this station for the West on Monday of this week were Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Parslow, Messrs. Fred Vause, John Meads, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Leitch, Mr. Geo. Priestly of Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Magee, and Alex. McLaughlan.

Messrs. Howard Watson and Harry J. Murney of the Dundas Produce Co., West Toronto, were in town on Thursday last looking after business, and gave The Advance a call. Mr. Watson is a native of Swinton Park and both are enterprising young men whom we have pleasure in recommending. See their advertisement elsewhere.

One afternoon last week a party of young people, chaperoned by Mrs. W. A. Armstrong and Rev. H. E. Wellwood, snowshoed over to Mr. W. Wilcock's on the back tine and were entertained there right royally. There were some stiff joints next day among the tyros but that is all in the game. Snowshoeing has been good this winter.

While playing hockey with the Markdale club on Thursday evening Charley Crossley got a cut over the chin with a hockey stick that jarred some of his teeth loose and cut him so badly that the wound had to be stitched. Charley refused to quit play although Markdale offered to put off a man with him, and grittily finished the game—then went to the Dr.

A horse attached to a cutter, belonging to a gentleman from Stone's line, made a dash for liberty from Armstrong's shed one afternoon last week. The dashed thing ran about four blocks and dashed into a snowbank. When the dashboard came into contact with the snow the horse fell on its side, and those who dashed to its assistance had no difficulty in making a capture. No serious damage was done, and the owner's feelings may be expressed by a——.

We are obliged to hold over Kimberley and other correspondence.

Mr. Bert Armstrong of Meaford visited his mother here this week.

Miss Eva Inkster of Wareham spent last week with the family of Dr. Murray.

Charley Wolf has sold his team and is now selling his goods at the Park House. See his advertisement in this issue.

Mr, and Mrs. A O. Findlay of Owen Sound, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hanley of the 8th line, Artemesia. They left on Monday of this week for Alberta.

Somebody has been "stuffing" the editor of the Mt. Forest Representative. He prints an item stating that a certain gentleman over there killed a groundhog the other day by climbing a tree and knocking it down from its perch 40 feet up. The dog is supposed to have finished the job. Who ever heard of a groundhog climbing a tree? Perhaps it was a muskrat! Or a mudturtle!

Mrs. John Boyd, who was in the Durham railway wreck of Friday, was brought to her home here on Saturday. Mrs. Boyd is not so seriously injured as the Toronto papers made it appear, although it is bad enough. She received a cut over the eye and a scalp wound that required a couple of stitches, also some bruises, but the greatest injury was caused by shock. Mrs. Boyd says she remembers nothing of the wreck after seeing the conductor throw up his hands and makefor the door, until she found herself sitting on her valise with her hand bag on her arm.

You judge a man not by what he promises to do, but by what he has done. That is the only true test. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judged by this standard has no superior. People everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. For sale by all dealers.

Mrs. Leah Hutchinson

On Friday, March 8, Mrs. Leah (Little) Hutchinson passed peacefully away at Inistioge. The immediate cause of death was paralysis. When a child of eight years she, with her parents, came from Ireland to Toronto, later settling in the township of Artemesia. In 1854 she was married to Mr. Wm. Hutchinson, who predeceased her eighteen years ago. The union was blessed by ten children—6 boys and 4 girls. The sons are: Rev. John F. of Flat Rock, Mich.; Rev. William H. of Big Rapids, Mich.; Hilliard of Walton, Ont.; and George W. and James at home. One died in infancy. The daughters are Miss Maria at home, Mrs. John Parker of Midland, Mrs. Alex. Brown of Vasey and Angelina deceased. The funeral took place on Monday, 11th inst., to Flesherton cemetery, Rev. Mr. Wellwood officiating. The deceased lady is survived by eleven grandchildren, also by two sisters—Mrs. John Breen and Mrs. Margaret Ekins of Flesherton—and one brother, William Little of Owen Sound. At the age of 74 she passed from service and sacrifice of this life to the mansion prepared for her in heaven. Her end was peace.

The Public Library

Although the books have not all been placed on the shelves of the public library, subscribers have been supplied with books for some time. The work of placing some ten or eleven hundred volumes is a work of considerable magnitude and takes time. However, it is expected that the work will be completed within the next two weeks, when things will run more smoothly. The hours in which the library will be open are from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 p.m. on Wednesdays and Saturdays. A regular librarian has not yet been appointed but the work will be looked after. The following new books have recently been added:

Treasure Valley, Case of Dick Meyrell, The Wilderness, The Money Moon, Singer of the Kootenay, The Fourth Watch The Secret Garden, Members of the Family, The Measure of a Man, The Golden Silence, From Tenderfoot to Scout, Mary Midthorne, The Rosary, The Mistress of Shenstone, Following of A Star, Lizbeth of the Dale, Winning of Barbara Worth, The Long Roll, Diary of Mrs. Simcoe, Mother Carey's Chickens, Ballads of a Cheechakoo, Down on the Labrador, Trail of the Pathfinders, Arctic Prairies of Canada, Souls in Action, Rolf in the Woods, Some American Industries, How to live on 24 Hours a Day, Railway Conquests of the World, Pioneers in Canada, On Western Trails, Canada and Canadian Defence.

Virtue is not always its own reward. A Massachusetts man has been presented with a gold watch because he has never used a profane word, never smoked or chewed tobacco, and has never taken a drink of liquor, nor kissed a girl outside of his own family. Such a man doesn't really need a gold watch. What he wants is an alarm clock.—Ex.

While cutting ice on the credit River near Credit Forks on Saturday afternoon, James Fraser was suddenly overcome by weakness and fell into a hole from which he had just removed some ice. His fellow workmen rushed to his assistance and got him out of the water in short order, but only to find that he was dead. The man was carried to a nearby house and a doctor sent for, but it was of no avail. Dr. Henry Gear of Erin, Coroner investigated the case, but found it unnecessary to hold an inquest, as the man had died from heart failure and was in all probability dead before striking the water.

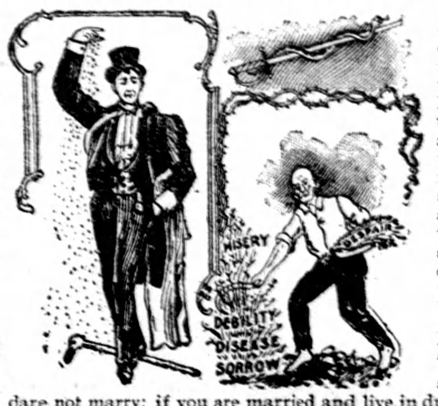
SOWING HIS WILD OATS

REAPING A HARVEST OF SORROW



How many young men can look back on their early life and regret their misdeeds. "Sowing their wild oats" in various ways. Excesses, violation of nature's laws, "wine, women and song"—all have their victims. You have reformed but what about the seed you have sown—what about the harvest? Don't trust to luck. If you are at present within the clutches of any secret habit which is sapping your life by degrees; if you are suffering from the results of past indiscretions; if your blood has been tainted from any private disease and you dare not marry; if you are married and live in dread of symptoms breaking out and exposing your past; if you are suffering as the result of a misspent life—DRS. K. & K. ARE YOUR REFUGE. Lay your case before them confidentially and they will tell you honestly if you are curable.
