VICINITY CHIPS

Mr. Oscar Phillips visited Collingwood friends on Sunday.

Miss Maud Richardson has returned to her home after spending some months in Markdale.

Miss Colgan, who has been with J. Bowler, left on Saturday to accept a position in Sudbury.

Miss Maud McDonald has gone to Collingwood to take a position in the telephone office.

Mr. J. Alexander has resumed his old position with M. Scully Co. after spending the winter in Dundalk.

Mr. and Mrs. James McClocklin spent a few days of the past week with the latter's sister at Colpoy's Bay.

Mr. Will Wilcock, who is studying for a mining engineer at Toronto University has finished his term and is at home.

Mrs. P. Holman, who spent the winter with her daughter, Mrs. John Chard of Markdale, returned to her home here on Tuesday.

Died—At her home, South Line, Artemesia, on Monday, April 29, 1912, Mrs. Christena McKinnon, wife of Farquhar McKinnon, aged 72 years, 11 days.

The Durham armory is being turned into a public school. This is all right, but shouldn't the Durham school board reinburse the government for erecting the building ?

The season just closed has been a good one for the manufacture of maple sweets. Probably the gentleman who goes into it most extensively in this county is Mr. George Shortt of Osprey, who had under tribute 1700 maple trees. We understand his product amounted to over three hundred gallons.

Automobilists bound eastward will evidently have to make a wide detour for some weeks yet in order to get around the washout at the horseshoe hill. Council will meet on Saturday and open tenders for the new bridge at the washout. The obstruction means a great inconvenience to traffic, mail carriers, etc.

About thirty-five lovers of maple taffy invaded Mr. Chas. Stuart's sugar bush on Wednesday night of last week per special invitation and boiled down a quantity of sap to the taffy stage, after which they indulged to their hearts' content. Some of the party paid for it dearly next day with severe tooth aches.

Mrs. W. J. Ross of West Toronto, Mrs. W. Hanley of Ottawa, Mrs. R. Smith of Markdale and Mrs. Perigoe of Feversham are visiting their mother, Mrs. Osborne, who is very ill at W. J. Stewart's. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ottowell and Mrs. H. Alexander of Feversham spent Sunday with Mrs. Osborne.

Word arrived here Saturday morning announcing the death of Mr. John Sharp at the Soo. Mr. Sharp was engaged in the steel works there and in some manner is said to have been overcome by gas, although full particulars are not to hand. Mr. Sharp leaves a wife and one daughter, married. He was a brother of Mr. Wm. Sharp, Mrs. Joseph Blakeley and Mrs. George Johnston of this township, also Mr. Andrew Sharp and Mrs. A. Rowe of Crystal City, Man., and Mrs. George Wilson of Singhampton.

Arnold Thurston returned home on Thursday last after a two-months' trip to Europe. He visited Holland, Belgium, Germany, France and England. While in London he had an experience with confidence men in which the latter came out very much second best and which sounds almost like a fairy tale. In this contest of wits Arnold made many friends among the London police and detective force. His exciting experience was made a matter of comment in all the London dailies. We hope to persuade him to write out the story, together with some other incidents of his trip, for the benefit of our readers.

You may fish for trout now.

Mrs. Edmunds of Arkona is the guest of her sister. Mrs. W. W. Trimble.

Miss Ethel Limin of Durham was married on Wednesday of last week to Mr. Green of Regina. Mrs. Green was well known in Flesherton, having been a frequent visitor here.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You can do it by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts freely at each application. For sale by all dealers.

A Case of Endurance

Tales of heroism and of marvelous endurance on the sea are now in vogue. A complete library of fascinating literature might be written on this subject, and no such library would be complete without a volume covering incidents that have occurred on our inland lakes. Vessels have gone down in these lakes and taken with them every soul aboard. The list of lake casualties is a long one, and includes the loss of the steamship Algoma, in Lake Superior, when only about twenty survived ; the Asia, when only two escaped ; the Waubuno, the Jane Miller and the Jones, all left no survivors ; and the sailing vessel, Jane Ward, from whom fifteen or twenty escaped. This is only a very partial list. In some cases much heroism was displayed, and in one or two instances the endurance of the suffering survivors was something to be marveled at. In talking over these matters with a citizen the other day we were reminded of an incident that occurred in the Georgian Bay in May of 1884, which affords a striking proof of what a strong man will sometimes endure and survive.

Philip Doyle was a lumber jack and was assisting in bringing a number of rafts of square pine timber down from the French. On a Monday night in May about 11 o'clock, Doyle left the tug which was towing, with a lantern and a peavy, to go back along the rafts and see that they were safe, as a storm had buffeted them somewhat. He arrived safely at the last raft, when the sticks parted. His lantern dropped into the water and Doyle was left stranded on a stick of timber which floated edge up, making his position very uncomfortable. The tug did not discover his loss for some time and was unable to find him. Doyle clung to the log with his legs at an acute angle from the time we have stated until the following Friday night, when he was cast ashore about a mile east of Collingwood. He was in a delirious condition but was able to painfully make his way to Collingwood, where he was cared for and recovered fully from the effects. For four days and a night he had clung to that log and only a man of magnificent physique and strength could have stood it. When his friends saw him they did not know him, such was his physical condition after the terrible ordeal, and he remained delirious for some hours. It required careful treatment to bring him around.

Doyle, we believe, still lives near Phelpston, on lot 12, con. 4, township of Floss.

Fire did about $5,000 damage to the workshop connected with the Deaf and Dumb Institute at Belleville.

"PILLS LIKE A FYLE"

So Harsh and Drastic are Many Pills as to Seriously Injure Health.

In a letter written from his home in Valencia, Mr. Marsh Selwyn does service to thousands by drawing attention to the injuries inflicted upon delicate people by drastic purgative pills.

"For a long time I suffered from constipation. This condition compelled the use of pills. Like many another, I made the unwise choice of using pills that were like lightning in their activity. I began to be filled with intestinal disturbances, constant rumblings, gas in the bowels and diarrhoea. I grew pale and emaciated. Then the doctor told me drastic irritating pills had caused catarrh of the bowels, an almost incurable disease. Explaining my situation to a friend, he advised a trial of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I speedily experienced the healing and curative effect they exert on the stomach, liver and bowels. The intestines, freed from irritating drugs, rapidly regained natural tone, the bowels acted as if nature and not Dr. Hamilton's Pills were at work. I know it will be of value to thousands to know that a pill as mild and curative as Dr. Hamilton's is available to the ailing."

For bowel disorders, sick headache, constipation, liver and stomach derangement, there is no pill so invariably sure to cure as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Refuse a substitute. Sold in 25c boxes, all dealers, or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.
