The adjourned entertainment at the Lifferd Temperance Hall came off on Friday evening last. The programme consisted of readings, recitations, songs and etc., which were given in a humorous and effective style. The attendance was good and the proceeds eatisfactory. On the 24th a free literary entertainment will be given to which all are cordially invited.

FRANKLIN people are talking of getting up an entertainment for the near inture.

LORNEVILLE.

Special to the Warder. Lines Tuesday evening, an entertainment was given in the school house here, in behalf of the Sabbath school fund, and was of a first-class character in every respect. At 8 o'clock Rev. Mr. Gillies took the chair, accompanied by Rev. W. D. P. Wilson of Woodville, when the programme was proceeded with. programme was proceeded with. Amongst those reciting pieces we noticed the Misses Douglass, Nosbit, Lapp, and McKinnon; and amongst the gentlemen, were Macter's Reid and Thomkinson, all did their very best, and did it creditably, Miss Perkins and Mesers. Lyons, Cairus, and Pish, undoubtedly took the palm among the readings given, all of whom are good readers. Bongs were sung by the evening was a rearing tarce in three the evening was a rearing tarce in three evening entered in three evening tarce in three evening tarce in the evening tarce was did over this piece which was capitally acted, and was humorous in the extreme. The singing by both choice was first class as was all the instrumental pieces. The sencert was brought to a close by the ODDS AND ENDS. Latest Facts, Fun and Fancy.

Counterfeits are always dangerous, more so that they always closely imitate the original in appearance and name. The remarkable success schieved by Nasal Balm as a positive cure for Catarrh and Cold in the Head has induced unprincipled parties to imitate it. The public are cautioned not to be deceived by nostrums imitating Nasal Balm in name and sppearance, bearing such names as Nasal Cream, Nasal Balsam, etc. Ask for Nasal islam and do not take imitation dealers may urge upon you.
