BARRON—JOY

An extremely pretty wedding took place on Wednesday of last week at the home of Mr. J. E. Fawcett, 37 Bellefair avenue, Toronto, when Alice, daughter of Mrs. Joy, and of the late Mr. R. B. Joy, was united in marriage to Mr. Geo. Barron, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Barron of Port Rowan, by the Rev. A. P. Brace. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. W. T. Joy, entered the room to the strains of Mendellsohn's Wedding March, played by Mrs. James Woolings. The bridal party stood under an archway, composed of white lilacs, lily of the valley, and ferns, caught up with bows of white satin ribbon. The bride wore a gown of ivory satin, enriched with shadow lace and pearls. Her veil was caught up with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. Her only ornament was a sunburst of pears, the gift of the groom Miss Alma Boucock, of Carstairs, Alta., who was bridesmaid, wore a gown of bisque messaline, with a corsage of pearls and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bride's niece, Miss A. Joy Fawcett, was flower girl, dressed in white silk organdie and lace over blue silk, carrying a basket of sweet peas. Her attendant was master "Bob" Joy, nephew of the bride. Mr. Arthur Barron, brother of the groom, was best man. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a set of gold bar pins and to the best man a tie pin, to the flower girl a blue enamel pin and to her attendant a sett of pearl cufflinks. The tea room decorations were of green and white, the same idea being carried out on the tables with white roses, lilies of the valley and ferns. The happy pair left for Muskoka, where they will spend their honeymoon. The bride was attired in navy blue, with tailored hat to match with touches of cerise.

PHILLIPS—RUTHERFORD

A pretty wedding especially interesting to the newspaper fraternity, as the bride is the daughter of one of our leading newspaper men, and the groom a member of a newspaper staff, took place at high noon on Wednesday, when the marriage was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rutherford, 3rd Ave., E., of their second daughter, Retta Jeanette, to Mr. Victor Ernest Phillips, of the Times staff, and son of the late Mr. Phillips and Mrs. S. Phillips, Flesherton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Danials, pastor of the First Methodist church, and took place in the drawing room, which was prettily decorated with bridal wreath and white lilacs. The bridal party stood under a dainty bell of the same flowers, in front of the bay window, which was also banked with ferns, lilacs and bridal wreath. Miss Etta Rutherford, cousin of the bride, in a pretty gown of amber-tinted silk voille, played the wedding march. The young bride, who was given away by her father, looked very sweet in her wedding gown of ivory satin en traine, with fichu, and panel back of silk and gold embroidered, with trimmings of ball fringe and girdle caught with a pearl-centred flower. Her veil of Brussels net fell from a coronet of lilies of the valley, and wore the groom's gift, a necklace of pearls and peridots. Both bride and groom were unattended. After the ceremony and congratulations, the guests sat down to a dainty dejeuner in the dining room, where the bride's teble was arranged with a low bowl of white roses, resting on a smilax-wreathed mirror, and shaded candles. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips left by the C.P.R. en route for Niagara Falls, the bride travelling in a smartly tailored suit of navy blue serge, with tan silk waist and hat of tan, with lace banding and wing. The popularity of the young couple was well attested by the large number of useful and beautiful gifts received. Among the out-of town guests were Miss Vera Phillips of Flesherton, Mrs. Evan E. Fraser, Niagara Falls, Mrs. S. Phillips, Flesherton, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Phillips, Palmerston, and Miss Etta Rutherford of West Toronto.—O. S. Advertiser.

MORGAN—SMITH

On June 5, 1912, a very pleasing event took place at Laburnum Villa, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Smith, Eugenia, when the Rev. W. H. Madden, uncle of the bride, united in marriage Miss Daisy May, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, and Mr. Wm. E. Morgan of Artemesia. At the appointed hour the bridal march was played by Miss Georgie Smith, while the bride, supported by her father, and preceded by the groom, was presented at a beautifully prepared altar in one corner of the drawing room. After the tying of the nuptial knot and congratulations had been extended, the many friends sat down to a tastefully prepared wedding breakfast, which all greatly enjoyed. The bride was daintily gowned in cream tamoline silk trimmed with ball fringe and carried a sheaf of white carnations and lily of the valley, the gift of the groom. The varied and numerous gifts showed the high esteem in which the groom and bride are held. After the honeymoon trip the young couple will reside in Eugenia.

Henry, son of reeve Allen of Arthur tp., is laid up with an injured hand, three bones having been broken in it one day the past week. The accident occurred while ploughing, he wound the lines around his hand in such a way that when one of the horses he was driving pulled heavily on the bit it tightened the line to such an extent as to crush the flesh and break the bones of the hand.—Rep.

A severe frost did some damage in Welland district.

Mr. William Reynolds, County Treasurer of Wellington, died at Guelph.

The weather on Saturday morning was the coldest in June for thirty years.

Mr. Jas Best, of Normanby, is digging his last year's potatoes this spring out of the hills from which he was unable to take them last fall before the winter set in. He finds they kept perfectly under the snow.

The wife of a Methodist minister in West Virginia has been married three times. Her maiden name was Partridge, her first husband was named Robin, her second Sparrow, and the present one Quail. There are now two little Robins, one little Sparrow, and three little Qails in the family.

Rev. Mr. Phalen, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, suffered a paralytic stroke down his right side on Saturday and on Sunday he was reported to have been in a critical condition. Mr. Phalen has been assisting Rev. Mr. Beveridge in evangelistic services at Temple Hill, and it is believed he overtaxed his strength. It may be considerable time before he will be able to occupy his pulpit. The greatest sympathy of the citizens of the community is extended to Mr. Phalen, and all sincerely hope that he may speedily recover his wonted vigor.—Standard,
