Swim suits for 1940 are going to be a little bit longer. At the moment we can think of no other change that could have been made.

WEDDING PRESENTS MISSING

The Queen has lately given consideration to some of Queen Victoria's wedding presents, which are missing. The centenary of Queen Victoria's wedding is a reminder of this. It is reported that in the archives at Windsor Castle there is a complete list of these presents, but it by no means tallies with the present state of the Royal collection. Some ot fhe presents have been traced, it is said, to other houses where they are regarded as heirlooms. But no on now living can explain how they first passed into the possession of the families who own them.

"I was just saying how forgetful husbands are . . .

THEN the Old Scallawag called me
LONG DISTANCE

. . . and put me to shame!" A 300-mile station-to-station call after 7 p.m. (and all day Sunday) usually costs no more than a couple of movie tickets. With rates that low, a fellow can easily keep in touch with his family when he's away from home. Why not call them up . . . tonight?
