

How Long

THE WORLD
WAITS

For some things
Thousands of years
For Electric Lights,
Telephones, Railways,
Ocean Cables, Steam Ploughs and all the too numerous to mention things that make life pleasant.

IT HAS WAITED

Until now for the best and most reliable pocket timepiece,
"THE MIDLAND"

Watch, ever put on the market. It is a pleasure to own one.
A man will sleep sounder and have a better appetite because of the satisfaction it affords him to possess a "Midland."

AND SO
EVERYBODY

Who can should procure a watch of that kind when he invests in a new timepiece.
They are made to order for Britton Bros and are especially adapted to keep accurate time under the most trying circumstances.

WIDE-AWAKE
RAILWAY

Men will appreciate an article of this kind, because it supplies their needs better than any other and a watch which gives satisfaction to a railroad will please the most exacting.

THOSE
THEM

Say, "This is the watch we should have had long ago, something reliable at a moderate price." Those who use them testify to their superior excellence.

WHEN YOU WANT

A Watch come and see us.
See the "MIDLAND" and get a pointer or two. We can convince you that it is not necessary to pay a fancy price for a first-class rail-roaders watch.

The Victoria Warder

FRIDAY, APRIL 4, 1890.

A union of hearts and a union of hands A union none can sever;
A union of homes and a union of lands And the flag, Britannia, forever!

Gems of Thought.

Singing, blithe-some robin, cheery and sing;
With chirps and thrills and magic-songs Win then the listening ear of Spring.

R. H. Aldrich.

The tongue is not steel, yet it cuts.
The tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things, it is an uncurly evil, full of deadly poison.

A man that breaks his word bids others be false to him.

In the life of him that hath understanding reason is found; but a rod or the back of him that is void of understanding.

Not what thy forebears were, the men say, But judge'd by what thou art thyself to day.

The humbug's more esteemed than men of sense.

He flatters himself at his expense.

FOR CHEESE PATRONS.

A good suggestion for cheese patrons and makers. Mr. J. D. Naylor, the well-known farmer of Fenelon Falls, suggests, that at cheese factories there should be a regular test of milk recorded, and that patrons should be recompensed according to quality as well as quantity.
The idea is good.

WHERE, OH, WHERE IS MR. FLEWIS?

Again the farmers and townsmen of Victoria county are anxious to learn the whereabouts of Mr. David Flew, the mouthpiece of the Dominion Millers' Association.

Some time ago he promised explanations on the wheat-flour deal exposed in The Warder; but no one has yet seen or heard of him.

Come on Mr. Flew; come on with your explanation.

THE YOUNG MEN ARE FOR MERE.

From every quarter of the province comes the cheering news that the broad platform laid down by Mr. Meredith commends itself to the young men of Ontario.

The young man is naturally broad, liberal and progressive in his views; and it is, therefore, not surprising to find Mr.
Meredith's views harmonizing with them.

In Lindsay and Victoria county the rate holds good. The young men of all parties, the independent reformers, and the liberal-conservative allies should embrace the country.

And they will.

NO POWER OVER ROMISH TEXT BOOKS

Mr. Mowat has the hardihood to state in the Legislature in Toronto that "though the Government has the power of regulating, inspecting and visiting roman catholic separate schools, yet it has no power to interfere with the choice of text books, so far as they relate to RE-LIGIOUS INSTRUCTIONS."

Educators of Victoria, what think you of such utterance in the last decade of the 19th century?

In the palmy days of the Inquisition, or amid the stirring times of St.
Bartholomew's massacre, or the cruelties of Alva, such doctrine might have been tolerated. But, to-day it will not do.

The question must be grappled with.
If wrongs against the nation are being perpetrated in the separate school system they must be eradicated.

The Separate schools are "guaranteed under the constitution; but the PEOPLE, THE FREEMEN OF ONTARIO, are above the constitution, and the constitution must yield to the public weal.

Mr. Meredith has manfully laid down a broad platform, almost identical with that on which Victoria county liberal-conservatives and independent reformers side-by-side fought four years ago. On it all lovers of good government may freely stand. Some of its planks are:—

(a) Repeal of separate school law amendments.

(b) Next, abolition of separate schools.

(c) Leaving with the people control of public offices. This is opposed to Mr.
Mowat's system of centralization.

(d) Reform in Crown Lands department.

(e) Proper distribution of public money to charitable institutions. Now roman catholics get about two thirds of all granted where they should get only one sixth even recognizing their absurd claim to consideration as a separate class.

(f) The maintenance of English as the only official language in Ontario.

These and others form broad ground on which to do battle for the rights of mankind.

NEWTONVILLE.

Special to The Warder.

G. T. RAILWAY surveyors, surveying for a double track along the old line, have reached here. The new track is to be run close along the north side of the old one; not through the village as once anticipated. Work is not expected to commence on this section for a year or more.

Mr. James Owens has rented his farm and intends taking an extended trip to Europe.
A sale of all his stock, implements and household effects is announced for the 11th April.

The hot heavy snow storm of the season arrived on Friday last. As a consequence the roads are filled up in some places. The storm was as wild as it was unexpected, and can hardly be called a harbinger of spring.

Mr. G. Berry, who has been sick for some time past is now better.

Mr. C. Britton and A. Thompson, carpenters, are going to try their luck in the Queen City shortly.

Mrs. Bradley of Port Grandy, mother of Mr. J. W. Bradley, our popular school teacher, was buried in Wesleyville cemetery on the 30th inst.

REABORO.

Special to The Warder.

REMOVED.—Mr. Thomas McManis has removed from Hill Road corners to our village where he has purchased a house and lot on the corner of Thorpe and James streets.

Miss McManis has opened up a dressmaking shop in our village and is ready to do all kinds of dressmaking at the shortest possible notice and satisfaction guaranteed.

Not much grain moving in this market at present. Mr. Pitkin has been buying potatoes for the Montreal market for which he has been paying fair prices.

Mr. W. Thors from Millbrook is visiting his many friends in Reaboro and vicinity.
We wish him a pleasant time.

SEEDS.—Seeds of all the popular varieties for sale at reasonable figures at J. G. Green's general store.

EASTER SUNDAY.—Sermons by J. H. Cross in the baptist church at 11 a.m. All are cordially invited to come and bring their friends. Special music by the choir may be looked for.

THE social last Friday evening was a grand success, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, many friends from a distance were with us, and we take this opportunity of thanking them for their friendship and support, till such times as we can return the compliment.

SPRUCEDALE.

Special to The Warder.

OBITUARY.—We are sorry to report the death of Mrs. Heron, grandmother of the late Caroline Heron of Blackstock, who died on March 30th, aged 75 years. Her remains were followed by a large circle of friends to the presbyterian cemetery, Sprucedale. Rev.
J. J. Jackson preached the funeral sermon on Sunday morning, taking for his text, "let me die the death of the righteous and let my last end be like his," which was delivered in an able manner.

LEMBERTING.—J. J. McNeil has been getting out logs and square timber for Toronto bank.
The short time he has been lumbering he has succeeded in getting out about 25,000 saw logs and about 100 pieces of board timber. He is now preparing for his drive. A. M. Dean has, as a consequence, a pile of logs ready for the mill, which will be running in a short time.

Mr. J. Davis, proprietor of our grist mill is kept very busy this season.

On Tuesday last, Mr. Geo. Grant, P.S.I., visited the Sprucedale school and accompanied by his wife and daughter, and was highly pleased with its progress under the able management of Miss Nettie Wallis, daughter of Mr. W. Wallis, Mariposa.

SERVICERS are here surveying a rail-road from Ottawa to Saint Ste Marie, which will touch Sprucedale.

SOIRÉE.—On March 26th, the young folks of Sprucedale, assembled at the residence of Mr. Geo. Corbett and spent an enjoyable evening dancing and all the other amusements of the day. The party kept up the games until the morning was about to break, when with an ample breakfast before they took their departure.

PERFORMERS.—Mrs. A. McKinnis is now at Wesleyville, visiting her daughter Mrs. Galt.
Miss Annie Johnson has gone on a visit to McIntyre. Mr. Doug. St. of Harris, paid us a flying visit. Miss Fannie Robinson has returned home again. Mr. A. Power and A. White have returned from Paris Street.

LAURENCE.—William Doug. of Harris, who has disappeared after doing his work throughout the locality, is now working at present work.

FLEETWOOD.

Special to The Warder.

THANKS to a young man, one of Mr.
C. Fleetwood died on Thursday last.
He had been in the hospital in Toronto treating for consumption and was home only about a week previous to his death. He was buried on Saturday in Graham's cemetery.

Mr. JOHN LUSKAY is the owner of a splendid two year old bull, Durham breed. Any person wishing to improve his stock cannot get a better one to go to as he can show a good pedigree.

ELDON STATION.

Special to The Warder.

THE managers of the Eldon Station church have left the contract of painting the church to Mr. Louis Wheeler of Kirkfield. There will be no service in the church for the next two Sabbaths.

Mr. NEIL MORRISON has bought the old hotel at Eldon Station. He intends to keep store. We wish him success as a store is much needed here.

Mr. ROBERT GRANT has rented the house lately occupied by Mr. Devlin. He is going to move into it some day this week.

JANETVILLE.

Special to The Warder.

BIRTH.—On or about the 24th inst., Mr.
John Magee of this village was absent from home on business, not thinking anything would take place till his return; but to his surprise Mrs. Magee made him a present of a bouncing young son, over which there is great rejoicing.

GETTING BETTER.—We rejoice in telling that Mr. Robt. Casey, the Sylvester agent here is now almost in the enjoyment of good health, after a severe illness, caused by a croup cold.

VISITING.—Mrs. Brown, widow of the late Dr. Brown, is visiting at present with her son-in-law, the Rev. W. D. P. Wilson.

Also Miss Louise Hays, of Carleton Place, is visiting the Misses Halliday, dress-makers of this village.

GLENARM.

Special to The Warder.

HYMNAL.—Another of our young gallants has declared himself a member of the band army; we mean Mr. George Moynan of Maple Hill, Fenelon, who came to the final conclusion that keeping bachelor's hall was not the thing for a farmer. So he selected for his life partner Miss Mary Brown, daughter of Donald Brown of the same place, who volunteered to share George's joys and sorrows through life's dreary pathway. The indis-soluble knot was tied by the Rev. D. McDonald of Glenarm. There were quite a number of friends present to witness the ceremony. After partaking of a grand sumptuous repast, the young folks tripped the light fantastic toe till the eve and hours in the morning. The young couple next day left for Toronto to spend their honeymoon. We wish them health, wealth and prosperity. [Let our special follow the noble example. Ed. Warder.]

RETIRING FROM BUSINESS.—We understand that Seth Rickaby, our enterprising merchant is retiring from business owing to ill health, that he has rented his store to Messrs. Marchison and Giesbrecht of this vicinity.

FRABELIN.

Special to The Warder.

BUSINESS is booming in this village. Our merchant and postmaster is doing a first class business, having within the last two weeks shipped five car loads of potatoes. He also has a man on the road buying eggs; he has already shipped to Montreal market over 300 cases in his business and his store is increasing fast. His motto is quick sales and small profits.

Mr. GEO. FALLIS, a former resident of this place, who has been working in Mr. Ferguson's carriage works, Millbrook, for the last four years, left for Toronto on Monday, having a position on the police force there. He leaves many warm friends in Millbrook.

DIETETIC is bed among the horses in this part. Some have died.

A GREAT many in this part were glad to see Mr. Charles Stewart's letter in The Warder last week and to know he is well. Mr.
Stewart is a young man of a refined Christian character and will make friends for himself no matter where he goes.

Mr. George Windrum, a young man of only twenty-two summers, died at his father's residence a little west of here on the 27th inst., with that dreaded disease consumption. His remains were laid in their last resting place, at Graham's cemetery, on Saturday last.

VALENTIA.

Special to The Warder.

WEDDING BELLS.—The pleasing event took place at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Thomas Webster, in the marriage of his eldest daughter, Miss Emma C., to Mr. M.
Andrew, of Port Sarnia. Above seventy invited guests witnessed the marriage ceremony, after which they partook of a sumptuous tea. The presents were numerous and costly, especially presents which were presented by the choir, of a magnificent family bible, and a beautiful plush album and bible, the gift of the Bible Class of which the bride was teacher. The members of Valentia church and surrounding neighborhood join in wishing the newly married couple a long and happy journey through life, and may the evening of their day be illuminated by a glorious sunset. The happy couple left by the evening train for Toronto and different points in western Ontario.

Mr. Robert Sutton and family left here for our Canadian North West, the 25th of March, he having purchased a farm there some time ago. We are sorry to have him go, as he was a successful farmer, and during his stay among us made many warm friends. May prosperity follow him.

Mr. JOSEPH McCRAE, in the employ of Mr.
Thomas Webster for the past two years left for Toronto. We understand he has secured a situation on the street cars. That's right John, although we shall miss your smiling countenance, we say you have with you enough in it to cheer us on the cars when busting the plough against the big stones.

There was a great wind storm here last Friday night doing some damage. It blew off the roof of Mr. Lewis Williamson's stable.
Poor reputation, he only having moved here recently.

Mr. W. Saggitt, our enterprising merchant returned from Toronto on Wednesday, having purchased a fine spring stock.
