VICINITY CHIPS

Come to the fall fair on Friday of next week.

Dr. Murray spent a few days of last week in Owen Sound.

Miss Lizzie Lauder of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. Mark Wilson.

Mr. Kendall Mitchell left on Saturday for Chicago, where he is studying law.

Mr. Jack Bannon of Owen Sound visited this week with his aunt, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong.

Mrs. (Dr) Carter is visiting friends in Toronto and Woodstock.

Mr. Mark Wilson, who has been in the West for a short time, returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Sinclair of Teeswater are holidaying with the latter's parents.

Miss Florence Thurston, who has spent most of the summer with friends in Chicago, returned home this week.

Mr. Fred LeGard of Toronto returned home on Monday after spending a week with friends here and at Eugenia.

Rev. N. Wellwood, Mrs. Wellwood and little son are guests at the parsonage this week.

Rev H. E. Wellwood and R. J. Sproule attended the Methodist district meeting in Owen Sound Sound on Tuesday.

F. G. Karstedt's millinery opening takes place on Saturday of this week, Sept. 21, and following week, with Miss Long in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Karstedt attended the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Down of Hatherton on Friday of last week.

Owen Sound carried a bylaw on Saturday to loan $60,000 towards a malleable iron works and $4000 donation to purchase a site.

The election of public school trustees this year will be by ballot, according to a resolution of the public school board dated Sept. 14.

Mrs. J. P. Ottewell, who has been visiting friends in the West, has returned home. Mrs. Ottewell went as far as Vancouver.

Married—At Edmonton, Alberta, on Sept. 4, by Rev. Thomas Powell of Grace Methodist church, Mr. Austin Duclos, to Miss Kathleen Milligan, late of Flesherton.

The village will dig a pipe drain this fall from Collingwood street north for two blocks, thus relieving several property owners who have had a grievance for years.

Mr. W. H. Wright, solicitor, has entered into partnership with Messrs. W. P. Telford and J. C. McDonald. The new legal firm will be known as Wright, Telford & McDonald. The firm's card rppears in this issue.

Mr. McDonald, who has been teller in the Standard Bank here for some time, has been removed to Brantford and his place here has been taken by Mr. D. C. Brand, who comes from Shakespeare, Ont., but whose home is in Brantford.

A hole about eight feet in diameter slid away from the road at the new fill made this year on the horseshoe hill. This occurred subsequent to a severe rain storm on Sunday afternoon. Teams have been passing over, but it is in rather a dangerous condition for heavy loads. The spot has since been repaired.

In our issue of two weeks ago we were misinformed re McCannel and Acheson suit for damages brought by plaintiff against defendant for unclean timothy seed. The damages were fixed by a jury and not by the judge as stated in former issue, and the plaintiff informs us that he was going to appeal against the jury's decision had not the defendant put up money enough to settle the matter.

Mrs. R. Paul of Vancouver is the guest of Miss Wallace.

Thomas Davis, South Grey's License Inspector, has resigned his post, his duties to cease on October 1. The poor pay allowed for the position and the dissatisfaction of the temperance people, who claimed he was not doing his full duty, were the chief causes of the resignation. It is understood that Wm. Allen of Egremont township has been appointed in Mr. Davis' place.

Miss Thelma Wilson, the five-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilson, suffered a severe injury one day last week. While the little girl and a companion were coasting down the sidewalk in a small wagon they ran into a shade tree on the street. Thelma was thrown with great force against the tree and had her head badly injured, necessitating the service of a doctor. The little tot is about all right again, although her right optic still has a mournful look about it.

At the League meeting on Monday evening the service took the form of a memorial for the late General Booth of the Salvation Army. The program consisted of short addresses by M. K. Richardson and Rev. N. Wellwood, and a paper was written for the occasion by Miss Switzer. Salvation Army songs were rendered by a choir of young people. Altogether the occasion was one of much interest and was enjoyed by an unusually large gathering.

Noah Pivnic was made happy on Saturday afternoon last when Magistrates McMullen and Boyd returned to him the case of whiskey seized by Constable Cook about three weeks ago. Mr. Pivnic, it was shown, had got in a number of shipments of wet goods but not quite sufficient to persuade the magistrates that they were brought in for sale. It was not even proven that Mr. Pivnic was the unfortunate man who had lost the many bottles of stuff that have been "found" in different places during the past summer by those who were brought forward to tell where they got it.

A Kick and a Blow

Mr. Editor: Allow me space in your valuable paper to express my opinion of the Portlaw cor. who gave us a tip on the weather in last week's issue. Now, we all appreciate a joke, but when the victim is an old, grey-haired man and the criticism so personal, we fail to see the humor of it at all.

Also, the Riverdale cor. asked us to forget the length of oats. We can't forget, and if they have no name we would suggest Mountain Peak. As it is getting late for oats how about corn, planted on the fifteenth of June, nine feet high? —L

Maxwell, Sept. 16.

Boyd--Laird

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized here on Tuesday at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Boyd, when their second daughter, Miss Lily, was united in marriage to Mr. Gordon McDonald Laird. The wedding took place at 6 o'clock a. m., the ceremony being conducted by Rev. H. E. Wellwood, B. A., B. D., pastor of the Methodist church. The wedding was pri a e, only a few immediate relatives being present, and the contracting parties were unattended. The wedding march was played by Miss Maud Boyd, cousin of the bride The handsome little bride was prettily attired in cream silk lace over satin and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and roses. Her going-away dress was a navy blue corded cloth with hat to match. After the wedding breakfast the young couple left by early train for a trip down the St. Lawrence as far as Quebec, and on returning will visit friends at Petrolea previous to taking up their residence in Regina, Sask. Both young people are popular here and many friends wish them all joy, happiness, prosperity and long life in their western home.

General Nogi and his wife committed suicide at their home near Tokio as a last tribute to the late emperor of Sapan.

Wild rioting took place in Duluth, where the street car service is suspended owing to a strike.

A man named Eagle had an unfortunate experience, says the Collingwood Enterprise. He is employed at Mr. Sam Leggatt's mill, and on entering the house was attacked by an unknown assailant who attempted to cut his throat. After receiving two severe gashes Eagle managed to escape to the road where he was picked up by a passer-by, and brought to the G. and M. hospital. A posse was sent out to secure the would-be murderer although there is some suspicion that it may be a case of dementia, as the wounded man can give no description of his assailant.

Mrs. Thornton had a little experience with snakes on Sunday that would make most women quake with fear. She was crossing the lawn at C. W. Flynn's when she suddenly came upon a large copper snake, a most villainous looking reptile. Instead of fainting as many of the sex would have done, she corrailed the crawling creature and shouted for Mr. Flynn to come and despatch it. This job was hardly completed before two others appeared on the sward to meet the same fate as the first one. Mrs. Thornton, by this time, thought she had seen enough snakes for one day and gathered up her skirts and left the limits as quickly as possible.—Creemore Star.
