BUTHANY. Suggest to The Worder,

Manyana Central exhibition held in our village on Sept. 20th and 30th was a success. The weather was all that could be desired. The weather was all that cound be desired. The directors done everything to make the show a success and must feel mitished with their work. The first day was spent to fitting up the different exhibite in the show room, which speake well for the Manvers ladies, showing their skill and taste to this flue work. The surfess in live stock far exceeded past years and showed great improvement. In roots and vegetables the show was more than was afticipated, and showed great improvement.
