VICINITY CHIPS

Mr. Wm. Smith of Forestville, N. Y., is visiting old friends here.

Mr. Joe Phillips of Toronto is holidaying with friends in this vicinity.

Miss Edna Patton left for Toronto on Monday where she will take a situation.

Mr. John Sharp of the Bank of Commerce, St. Thomas, is holidaying at the parental home.

Miss Lillian Armstrong and Miss Florence Thurston are visiting Kimberley friends this week.

Rev. Mr. McLaren of the Baptist church gave a much-appreciated address before the Epworth League on Monday evening.

A number of young people held a Hallowe'en masquerade party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilson Thursday evening.

Mrs. Geo. Stuart and four children are spending two weeks with the former's parents in Thornbury, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Johnston.

Mrs. Robert Rutledge leaves Monday for Salt Lake City, where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Gordon Guptill.

On Thursday evening last Mrs. Robert Wright gave a Hallowe'en party to about twenty young people, when a most enjoyable time was spent. The ghost walked at 12 o'clock, and later an unknown fortune teller appeared on the scene and foretold good fortune for everybody.

Rev. Merritt Price of Massie will take the services in the Methodist church here on Sunday next. This is known as the world's temperance Sunday and the sermons will be in keeping with the spirit of the day. Rev. Mr. Wellwood takes anniversary services on Mr. Price's charge.

Councillor Thomas Blakeley met with a painful accident on Wednesday of last week while at work in the planing factory. His left hand came in contact with a saw with the result that about half of the thumb was amputated, and three fingers badly lacerated. Dr. Carter dressed the wounds. Mr. Blakeley will be laid off work for some time.

The first snow of the season came on Thursday last. Nov. 1, when sufficient fell to whiten the ground. The same night we had our first freeze up for the fall. Previous to that considerable tender stuff was still in the green state. On Oct. 31 The Advance man picked roses in his own garden. During the last week in October we had both pink and white roses blooming.

Miss Florence Thurston gave a "little girls'" party to some two dozen young women, ranging in age from 18 to 35, including a couple of married ladies, on Friday evening of last week. All attended wearing the attenuated clothing of earlier days, and carried teddy bears, dolls and other things dear to girlhood. For the time being they were little girls again, and found that they could still yell as loud as ever and scrap over their playthings as they did "when you and I were young, Maggie." The fun was fast and furious for three hours, or until luncheon was served, when the dear little cherubs calmed down. One little girl said she had nine cups of cocoa and fourteen pieces of cake. The affair was a howling success, very unconventional, you know, dresses cut high and all that, and those who were allowed to peep say it was the most fascinating event of the social season, from a male point of view. About 11.30 the big brothers arrived to take the infant class home. The girls threaten to do it again, but we advise them against such a proceeding, or if determined, to take it to some vacant house in the suburbs—as the boys do when they eat illegal ducks—where the noise will not disturb peace-loving citizens.

The undersigned desires to thank friends and neighbors for their kindness, sympathy and assistance during the recent illness and death of my brother—Wm. Hemphill.

John Moore, an old gentleman 87 years of age, attempted to walk from his home, townline Artemesia and Proton, on Thanksgiving day, to his son's home in the Orange Valley, a distance of nine miles. He became exhausted when near his journey's end and was picked up by a gentleman who took him to his son's house, where he took to his bed. He gradually sank and passed away Sunday morning. He leaves an aged widow and a large family. The funeral took place to Salem on Tuesday afternoon.

The Municipal telephone system of Osprey has now 75 phones on the line, thirteen more going in, and the promoters expect to have the number brought up to 100 before winter is over. These are all in connection with the Flesherton exchange. A recent item published in The Advance should have mentioned that these 75 phones belonged to the Osprey municipal system. By next spring there will likely be some hundred phones on the free Flesherton exchange and another hundred in Osprey, which will make a service all round second to none in this county, with an all-night service inaugurated the first of October last.

Sturdy--Rutledge

Married at 1 o'clock on Wednesday, Oct. 30, at the residence of the bride's mother, Ceylon, Lilian Gertrude, youngest daughter of Mrs. Robert Rutledge, to Mr. J. W. Stanley of Toronto. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Morris of Orangeville, the bride's pastor. The wedding march was played by Miss Edna Patton. The bride was given away by her brother, Fred, and was dressed in cream silk with beaded net and pearl trimming, wearing a bandeau and spun-glass ornament in her hair, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern. Little Marjorie Bellamy, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl, and carried pink and white carnations. The bride's travelling suit was navy whipcord, with navy beaver hat and white osprey. The happy couple left on the evening train for their new home in the West, where Mr. Sturdy intends starting a jewellery business.

Morrison--Wiley

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wiley, 4th line, Osprey, was the scene of a very happy event on Wednesday evening, Oct. 30, when at 4 o'clock their eldest daughter, Nancy, was united in marriage to Mr. John A. Morrison, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morrison, Maxwell. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march played by the bride's cousin, Miss Nettie Wiley of Wodehouse. The bride and groom took their places beneath an arch of evergreens and maple leaves, and banked with house plants. The bride, who was unattended, looked charming in a gown of ivory satin-de-chine with trimming of lace and ball fringe, and wore a veil with a wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums. Rev. James Phimister, pastor of the Maxwell Methodist church, was the officiating clergyman and performed the ceremony in the presence of about seventy guests. After congratulations the company repaired to the dining room, where a dainty supper was served. The bride, who is an active worker in the Sabbath school and Epworth League, a member of the choir, and who is one of our most estimable young ladies, was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents. The groom is one of Osprey's enterprising and prosperous young farmers. The best wishes of a large circle of friends and acquaintances go with the young couple to their new home in Maxwell. The bride's travelling suit was a brown tweed effect with trimmings and hat to match.
