Owen Sound

The large flour and grist mill owned by Mr. E. M. Clements, of Hepworth, was completely destroyed by fire on Sunday morning last. A quantity of grain stored in the mill was also destroyed, and as a result a number of farmers in the vicinity will feel the blow severely The mill which was a large frame struture was located adjoining the G. T. R. property, almost directly across the tracks from the station. The origin of the fire is unknown. At midnight Mr. Clements made a thorough inspection of the building before retiring and at six o'clock the next morning the fire broke out. It had gained considerable headway before it was noticed. There being no fire protection nothing could be done to save anything. It is understood that about four thousand dollars insurance was carried. It is not known yet whether or not the mill will be rebuilt.

The County Council meet on Monday for the final session of 1912. The session will include the appointment of a successor to Mr. Thomas Harness as Superintendent, and Mrs. Harness as matron of the house of refuge at Markdale. There are over a score of applicants for the positions, some of them being prominent Grey county residents. The salaries attached are $500 for superintendent and $300 for matron. This includes, of course, residence and necessaries of food and fuel. The position is a responsible one and will no doubt have the closest consideration by the members of the council. The issue of debentures to cover the extraordinary expenditure necessary as a result of the destructive freshets of the spring will be dealt with. Other business will keep the members busy for the week.—Times.
