Reeve Boyd has intimated that he will not be a candidate for the Reeveship of this village next year. Here will be an opportunity for some ambitous citizen There is no hint as yet as to his possible successor.

We overlooked noticing last week tha Noah Pivnic had been absolved from paying the hundred dollars which he was fined recently in Markdale on the charge of having taken orders for contraband firewater. The case was appealed by his solicitor, Mr. W. H. Wright, and the conviction quashed.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Watters desire to thank the many people for kindness, sympathy and assistance during the latter's serious illness of pluerisy, having taken a relapse. Through the skilful treatment of Dr. Lane, Priceville, she is once more assisting in her household duties.

The city of Owen Sound was offered a lady moose for nothing by a Thessalon Boniface if it would take the animal away, but the offer has been declined. It would require about three tons of hay and stabling to keep it until spring, bu it seems the town cannot afford this outlay. The town recently purchased five deer for park display next summer, but two of them have since died.

Mrs. Laura A. Harnden, wife of the late C. W. Harnden, died suddenly at Fort Saskatchewan on Saturday, November 9, from paralytic stroke. Three daughters and one son survive her. They are, Mrs. R. N. Henderson, Winnipeg; Mrs. Cecile Cameron of Brantford Ont., Mrs. Geo. Gordon, of Peterborough, Ont, and Dr. H. R. Harnden, of Fort Saskatchewan. The funeral took place from her late residence Thursday November, 14.

Dr. C. M. McPhail, Thamesville; Dr. J. M. Armstrong, Locust Hill, and Mr. Chas. L. Tisdale of Beaverton were in town on Saturday last inspecting stallions under the Stallion Inspection Act. Only two animals were submitted for their judgement here. The gentlemen say that in some places the act is popular and in others not so popular—popular with those who own good horses and unpopular with those who are not so fortunate. The Ontario inspection law is at present optional with horse owners, but Dr. Armstrong thinks it will be made compulsory in a couple of years, as it is n many states of the Union.

Reeve Boyd is attending County Council this week.

Miss Maud Richardson is spending a couple of days in Markdale.

The Methodist choir attended a tea-meeting at Salem on Monday evening in a body. They occupied two double and a couple of single rigs. The entertainment is said to have been a big success, and netted some $58. This is the fourth year that the choir has been invited to take part in the Salem anniversary. The choir gave a varied selection of anthems, quartettes and sofos, and these were enthusiastically received by an appreciative audience which filled the church.

Mr. Joseph Cornfield received a despatch on Monday, announcing the serious illness of his father, James Cornfield, at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Barron, Kirwin, Kas Mr. Cornfield, who is 83 years of age, was stricken with apoplexy on Wednesday of last week, in fact this is the third stroke he has suffered No hopes are held out for his recovery. He was for many years a resident of Artemesia, living near Portlaw.

An important move on the part of the bee-keepers of the county is to be considered at a meeting to be held in the office of the Department of Agriculture, Markdale, on Friday, Dec. 6. A County Association is to be organized for the purpose of improving the honey market, advertising the bee industry of the county, disseminating knowledge in connection with modern apiary methods, etc. J. Morley Pettit, Provincial Apiarist, will address the meeting.

A farm paper whose editor is an active farmer must of necessity be near the farmer and know his needs. This is one of the reasons for the popularity of The Weekly Sun, Toronto, which for over twenty-two years, the Ontario farmer has considered his business paper. Then, again, The Sun's market reports are of such value to those who take advantage of the information given that they will not do without it. Sun subscribers are active farmers, who farm for profit. If you are not a subscriber to The Sun you shou'd be. The Sun can help you make the farm pay all it can pay. When renewing your subsciption for The Advance order The Sun.

The hard-times social held in the town hall, Flesherton, last Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, of the Presbyterian church, attracted a large crowd. This was an unusual event, and was very successful. A large number were dressed to suit the occasion and the most of them were hard looking cases. To those who wore high collars, patent leather boots, tie pins, rings, etc., etc., were obliged to pay a fine and those who did not read the rules and regulations of the Society, were let off. The programme consisted of choruses, solos, duetts, ahd the kitchen orchestra, which would remind us much of the frogs in early spring, but it was alright anyway. If the luncheon is always as good when hard times prevail, we would like to know what's the matter with hard times? The proceeds of the evening amounted to $33.00, fines included.

Gone to Mexico

The Ottawa Free Press of Nov. 18 says: Mr. J. H. Clarke, B.Sc., Met., son of Mr. J. D. Clarke of the Department of Justice, has been appointed to the position of expert metallurgist for a great copper company operating a refinery by electricity at Durango, Mexico. Mr. Clarke graduated from McGill last spring, and has since been on the expert staff of the steel company at Sault Ste. Marie. His advancement now is due to the recognition of his ability by the faculty of McGill, who were asked to make the selection, and the appointment was arranged by telegraph. Mr. Clarke bade good bye to his parents here last week and left by way of Havana and Vera Cruz for his new home.

Mr. Clarke is well known in Flesherton and The Advance tenders hearty congratulations.

Mock Parliament

The Literary Society of the high school held an exceedingly amusing debate on Friday afternoon, when a number of guests were present and enjoyed the affair to the limit of their laughing abilities. The debate took the form of a mock Parliament and the sqbject under discussion was "Woman Suffrage."

The Parliament was made up as follows: Speaker, Principal White; Premier, W. Kernahan; Leader of Opposition, E. Loucks; Sergt-at-Arms, T. Orr, dressed in soldier clothing and carrying a baseball bat for baton. The Governor General was represented by Mr. Brown. The Clerk was Murray Legate. The Bill was introduced by Miss Adda Wright, Minister of Trade and Commerce, and there were some twelve speeches on each side of the question, the goverament winning, of course.

Among the more amusing incidents the following will suffice.

The Lieutenant-Governor so far forgot the dignity of his office as to take sides in the debate, when he was called down by the Speaker.

One young lady was led off the floor of the hoqse for interuptions, and four young women came in with hatchets and sticks to break up the debate but were squelched. Another little girl was reminded by her sister that she said something three times already, when she subsided and wouldn't open her mouth again.

Some of the arguments brought forward were quite ingenious and the repartee and cross firing was quite brilliant. The whole thing was exceedingly humorous and much enjoyed by those who were especially privileged with seats on the floor of the House. A true conception of the fun cannot be given in cold type.

The society propose giving a mock trial in December, when no doubt admissions will be at a premium.
