FURT HOOVER

The people here are rejoicing very much over the coming of the Rev. Geo. W. Dewey to take charge of the methodiat congregation. On the evening of his arrival the people gave him and his family a very warm welcome to the circuit, the parsonage and the beautiful grounds belonging were crowded with happy hearts to receive their new minister, and best of all is he comes by the unanimons request of the officials and people. He gave us on Sunday two model sermons; in the morning on the "guiding of the Holy Ghoet," and the evening "the old flag, and the old policy," not the old flag that we hear of on election times but the old flag that has been held up ever since man fall. He held the congregation, which was a large one, spell bound.

There was no service in the presbyterian church on Sunday morning, Rev. Mr. Nixon having to be away.

Things here are booming very much.
We were glad to see our livery man back with his smiling face. We hear he is loing a good business in Port Perry.
We wish you success, George. 2575 222

BELLEVUE. Special to The Warder Pienie.-Our public school held a pisnie on the afternoon of Friday the 3rd inet., on the shore of Sturgeon Lake, and although the weather was wet, which no doubt prevented many from being present, there was a very good crowd and a or shire; but from all appearance, he was ent, there was a very good erowd and a or shire; but from all appearance, he was very good time was spent. The first part of the "Noble Scots," a farmer by prominister, presched a very feeling sermon of Shuday last. Mr. Adams is known as a thoroughly, practical and elequent ons kinds. Mesers Johns and Mitchell, and economical, always diligent in both tructees, assisted by other gentlemen, of getting such a picked man.

On Shuday last. Mr. Adams is known as a thoroughly, practical and elequent ons kinds. Mesers Johns and Mitchell, and economical, always diligent in both temporal and spiritual things, having always at heart the claims of his Lord trustees, assisted by other gentlemen, performed the task of starting and judging. There were two or three grades of boys' foot races, three legged race, email girls' race, and points race for small boys. For all these there were good prizes, well contested and well won. The races over, Mr. Jas. Lithgow, our reeve, was elected to chirman, and announced the following programme:—Recitation, (closing day) by Matilda Warren; song, by girls of the gehool; dialogue, "preparing for a picnic," by 6 girls and 4 boys, which was well rendered; rocitation, "The smart girl," by Carrie Steele; dialogue, "When I'm a man," by 7 lithle boys; cong, "Merrily, merrily, work with a will;" club swinging by 8 girls, which was well done; dialogue, "Opposing the new school house," by 8 girls, which brought forth much laughter; restitation, "Vacation," by 8 girls and bloop throught forth much laughter; restitation, "Vacation," by 8 girls and dialogue, "The reheaves," by 3 girls and dialogue, rendered; restisation, "The smart git," by Carrie Steele; dialogue, "When I'm a man," by 7 little hoys; seng, "Merrity, morelyty, work with a will;" club ewinging by 8 girls, which was well done; dialogue, "Opposing the new school house," by 4 boys, which brought forth much laughter; restisation, "Vacation," by Minuse Moon; dialogue, "The refeareal," by 3 girls and 3 boys, which was well rendered, specially the small boys' part. Altogether this programme was well selected and well rendered, and reflects great credit on both teacher and scholers. Next the chairman called on the chairman of the irrustee board to give a speech which he did, first thanking the teacher and scholers for the care and talent exerted in preparing and rendering their programme, and next dwelfing on some points in our extractional system and giving some hints as to improvement. The consirman them made a few remarks and declared the platform proceedings ended, and that tex was ended were generously treated with candies and note. The tax table consisted of achool children, who when their tess was ended were generously treated with candies and note. The tax continued until all were well estisfied, and then some more spots and boaring fook place, after which those present dispersed declaring the pionic a success.
