The farmers who are subscribers for The Weekly Sun, Toronto, have reason to congratulate themselves on the enlargement and improvement to their paper. These improvements have only been possible by the support given the paper by its readers. They are amply rewarded by the knowledge that in The Sun they have a paper that voices their opinions without fear or favor. The Sun should be in every Ontario farm home; its a duty the farmer owe to himself and his business.

The Omega watch guessing contest put on by Mr. Armstrong last week created a great deal of interest. On Friday at 10 o'clock a. m. sharp the watch was wound and sealed up. It ran until 17½ minutes to 5 a.m. on Sunday morning, making the official time 42 hours, 42 minutes and 30 seconds. There were a number of amusing incidents in connection with the contest. One guesser thought the timepiece would run 160 hours. Another placed his guess at 42 hours, 42 minutes and 42 seconds. He thought there might be virtue in the 42 and there was. Eventually, after scratching his head for awhile he decided to add another hour to his guess. Had he allowed his guess to remain as it was the watch was his by a very narrow margin. The watch fell to Mrs. W. J. Meads of the Durham road, who guessed 42 hours, 45 minutes and 15 seconds, or within two minute and 45 seconds.

We understand that Mr. Hartley, who has kept the Park house here for the past year, has leased the Royal hotel in Shelburne and takes possession shortly.

County Constable Cook made a seizure of a box containing whiskey, addressed to a young man at Eugenia, one day last week. We understand that the young man denies having ordered the goods. An effort is now being made to discover who did order it.

A young man got on the train at Toronto on Saturday evening last, intending to spend Sunday in Flesherton. He carried a valise, and very soon the contents of the valise were in evidence. It contained black bottles and the bottles held brain tickler in concentrated form. The young man himself was in an hilarious mood and all travellers in his immediate vicinity were invited to get likewise at his expense. One bottle was smashed on the floor of the car, but there were plenty more. Further up the line the young man cooled himself off and confided that he was going to see his girl. On arrival at Flesherton his brain was still under the cloud to such an extent that he forgot his valise and it went on to Owen Sound. The young man was heard to remark that he would have a "dry Sunday." But think what this village so narrowly missed! It might have been just as well, however, and no serious loss to the place, if the young man had forgotten to separate himself from the train at this point and accompanied his valise on its northward journey. Owen Sound is welcome to all this kind of thing it can accommodate.

The annual meeting of Chalmers' church Ladies' Aid was held at the home of the President on Tuesday afternoon last week, when officers were elected for the ensuing year: Hon. Pres., Mrs. A. S. VanDusen; Pres., Mrs. D. McTavish, re-elected; Vice Pres., Mrs. Price Teeter; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. Jos. Blackburn, re-elected; Visiting Committee, Mrs. J. L. McMullen, Mrs. Jos. Radley, Mrs. Alf. Harrison, Mrs. VanDusen and Mrs. Geo. Stewart, members of the Society since it was organized over thirty years ago, were made honorary members. Mr. Bowler, cornetist in the choir, was given a tangible recognition of his services to the church. The Treasurer's statement showed the society to be in a prosperous condition, and 37 members are on the roll. There was a good attendance and at the close of the meeting Mrs. McTavish entertained the ladies at tea.

Division Court

Division Court was held here on Wednesday of last week before Judge Widdifield. There were four cases tried, one of them a rather unusual and interesting one.

Thompson v. McKean was a case in which the plaintiff's horse had been scared by the defendant's automobile in the village of Feversham. The horse ran away, upset the light wagon, and destroyed a large number of eggs, damaged the rig and also injured Mr. Thompson. The case was tried by a jury and the result was a verdict of $25 and costs for two witnesses.
