VICINITY CHIPS

We wish our readers all a merry Christmas.

Mr. Bert Best returned home from the West on Monday of this week.

All village taxes must be handed in immediately. John Wright, collector.

Born—In Flesherton on Saturday 14th inst., to Mr. and Mrs. S. Shunk, a girl.

The Clarksburg Review "blowed" itself last week by publishing a very creditable Christmas number.

Miss Queenie Kaitting of Feversham spent a few days of the past week with her cousin, Miss Aleda Mitchell.

Mr. S. Shunk has taken the position of caretaker of the Presbyterian church in the place of Mr. Wood, resigned.

Rev. Mr. Robinson, chairman of the Orangeville district, preached two powerful missionary sermons in the Methodist church here on Sunday.

Born—In Edmonton in November, to Professor and Mrs. G B. King (nee Miss Ethel Chadwick) a son, Blackwell Chadwick.

While skating on Saturday evening Master Frank Thurston had the misfortune to fracture his left arm above the wrist.

Died—In Arthur on Nov. 30th, Miss Ellen Kelly, formerly a resident of Priceville, aged 62 years, niece of Mrs. Catherine Scott.

Miss Lillian Armstrong is spending a few days with Mrs. Geo. Nixon in Dundalk, who had the misfortune to break her leg last week.

Mr. Easson of Knox College, supplied the Presbyterian pulpit very acceptably the past two Sabbaths and may supply again next Sunday, anniversary day.

Mrs. Robert Nesbitt returned to her home at Credit Forks on Thursday, after visiting her sister, Mrs. I. Sinclair, of Flesherton, and other relatives in the vicinity during the past two weeks.

Messrs. Alf Rubbra of the Toronto News, Will Wallace of the Star, and Mr. Mearns of the Globe were here in behalf of their papers from Thursday night until after the inquest reporting the Love case. The Mail, World and London Advertiser were also represented.

The annual meeting of the Presbyterian Sunday school last week the following officers were elected: Supt., Frank Chard; Assistant, Chas. Stewart; Librarians. Robert Chard, Ed. Loucks; Organist, Miss Vera Loucks; Assistant Organist, Miss Reta Buskin; Teachers, Mrs. Alf. Harrison, Mrs. S. Irwin, Mrs. Wm. Stuart, Miss Lily Thistlethwaite, J. F. Chard and C. Stewart.

The Presbyterian Sunday school anniversary on Christmas night, for which bills are issued, gives promise of being a very pleasing entertainment. Tea is being dispensed with, but there will be a big quarter's worth in the splendid programme to be given. Mr. Ellwood Genoa of Toronto, a high class elocutionist, engaged for the evening, is a big attraction. He will be assisted by Mr. W. R. Curry, bass, of Toronto. Mr. Genoa is already very popular here and will no doubt draw a crowded house. There will also be songs, solos, trio, recitations and other pretty numbers.

Mr. Hallett, an electrical engineer employed by the Hydro-Electric Commission, was in town on Thursday and Friday last examining into the lighting plant here with a view of making a report on the advisability of utilizing it temporarily until the larger development is completed at Eugenia. Mr. Hallett was, of course, perfectly non-committal as to the probable outcome, also as to whether the actual purchase of the power had been made from the Georgian Bay Power Co. While he did not confirm, he did not deny that the power was now controlled by the Commission.

As next Wednesday will be Christmas Day The Advance will not be printed until Thursday.

See the mock trial in the auditorium of the high school on Thursday evening of this week—funniest thing out.

Next Sabbath the pastor of the Methodist church gives Christmas messages morning and evening. The service of song will be appropriate to the Christmas tide. A choice program will also be supplied, both morning and evening.

At the Assizes in Owen sound last week there were three criminal cases, all of the accused being defended by Mr. W. H. Wright. The cases were Rex. v. Hindle, Rex, v. Moore and Burnett v. Ferguson, the two former from Osprey and the latter from Proton. Mr. Wright succeeded in clearing his clients in each case,

Albert Hindle Acquitted

At the Assizes held in Owen Sound last week Albert Hindle of Osprey was tried on the charge of having set fire to the sawmill belonging to Curran Bros. of the same township. None of the people in Osprey believed Hindle guilty, and this confidence was quite justified by the young man's prompt acquital.

Hindle was almost killed in the Curran sawmill a couple of years ago. While working under the saw the machinery was started and he was horribly cut up on the side and shoulder. He is, we believe, still incapacitated for heavy work.

Mr. Sargent Speaks Up

Editor Advance:

Dear Sir,—I was a mail too late for last week's publishing. I would like a small space in your paper. I noticed in your paper week before last that you said that those that signed the petition did not know what they were signing them for. They did know. And you also said that those making the charges were not men of substance. If I had not a better character among my neighbors than the county constable I would leave the country. In regard to me being hauled up two years ago, it was false evidence he gave about me like all the rest he said in Owen Sound. You also said that something more may be heard of the case before very long. I will give you to understand that I have not got to take back anything I said in County Council. —EDWARD SARGENT.

Brighten Your Home For 1913

What will brighten your home better than a beautiful, pleasing picture on the wall. "Mother's Treasures" is just the picture you want. It is fit for any home in Canada and can be had free by subscribing to The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, the greatest and best family paper printed. It costs only one dollar a year and no home can afford to be without it. Every present subscriber to that paper should send his renewal now and get a copy of the beautiful picture. Any one not a subscriber should order the paper and picture at once. They will help to make the New Year brighter for you.

Art and Agriculture

It was no misconception that linked Agriculture and Arts in forming one of the old associations that, in great measure, laid the foundation of Canadian progress. Art, agriculture and literature, distinguish dominant peoples. Once a year "The Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine," of London, Ont., treats its readers to a Christmas number, cover and contents of which this season make a rare combination of the practical, the historic and the artistic. The charming colored frontispiece surpasses anything the paper has heretofore published, in conception, richness and briliance of execution. The Northland picture symbolizes the bold spirit of Canada, and Agnes Laut, an eminent Canadian woman of letters; Jas. H. Hill, the Canadian-born peer among American railroad kings; Prof. Thos. Shaw, S B. Sinclair, Ph. D., of MacDonald College; Prof. H. S. Arkell, Peter McArthur, Prof. H. L. Hutt, Dr. C. A. Publow, A. E. Adams, members of the editorial staff, and other capable writers, contribute articles for its one hundred pages, which is much larger than the issue a year ago. The fine array of articles includes a capital report of the great international show at Chicago, where Canadian breeders won the highest honors in cattle, sheep, and Clydesdale horses. The illustrations are in profusion, and include many fine photogravures and reproductions of the best paintings of Horatio Walker, of New York, a distinguished son of Canada; Lauren S. Harris, J. E. H. MacDonald, J. P. Hunt, Wm. St. Thomas Smith, and other noteworthy Canadian artists. Publishers and readers are alike to be congratulated upon this superb number, which subscribers, old and new, receive as a Christmas compliment. Adults and youngsters will be delighted with the Home Magazine Department, in which appears a beautiful photogravure of Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Connaught, bearing her autograph.

Judge Barrett handed out his decision last Thursday on the appeal of certain towns against the assesment. He has decided that income and business assessment shall not be considered in the equalization for county purposes. The Judge also holds that this must apply to all towns and villages whether they appealed or not. This means that the towns and villages will receive a reduction in county rate to the amount that they were assessed on business tax and income. As a result of this decision, Walkerton will save about $500.—Walkerton Herald.
