How the Katydid Sings.

Everybody is familiar with the rasping notes known as the katydid's "song." It is the male only that is capable of emitting the well known sounds, and he does it in a most peculiar manner. His "vocal organs" are at the base of his wings and consist of two flat excrescences of thin, dry membrane. It is the rubbing of these two membranous plates together which produces the "song." If your shoulder blades were so loosely put together that one could be slipped under the other and the underside of one and the upper side of the other were so rough that the operation of slipping them past each other would cause a rasping sound you could imitate the katydid's musical efforts very nicely.

Setting Her Right.

A newly married woman made a pie for dinner. "I am afraid," the bride said, "that I left something out, and that it's not very good."

The husband tried it and said: "There is nothing you could leave out that would make a pie taste like that. It's something you've put in."—Argonaut.

Matthew Arnold.

"Matthew Arnold had a curious way of telling little stories against himself" writes Sir H. W. Lucy in the Cornhill.

"Talking about Mrs. Arnold, he said: "'Ah, you should know my wife! She has all my charm of manner and none of my conceit.'"

Badly Smitten.

"I wish there were ten days in the week," sighed Gladys.

"Why?" asked Grace.

"Jack could call oftener then."—London Answers.

Feversham Items

Miss Weidman of Toronto has opened up a dress making establisment in her brother's store. Miss Weidman is an experienced dressmaking of year's standing in the city, and no doubt will be well patronized here.

Well the people around this neighborhood were all pleased at the outcome of the Hindle-Curran case in Owen Sound last week, Albert Hindle, who was arrested on the slightest suspicion possible for the burning of W. J. Curran's sawmill on the 10th concession of Osprey last July, being honorably acquitted by his honor, Judge Sutherland, and the petit jury, without a word of defence evidence being taken. When His Honor heard the evidence for the prosecution he stopped the case, ordering the jury to stand to their feet and say not guilty to the charge laid against Hindle, which they speedily did. But now comes the unfairness of the transaction as Mr. Curran on the sligh t est evidence possible against Albert, had him arrested by detective Reaburn of Toronto and County Constable Cook of Ceylon, taken to Owen Sound for his preliminary hearing, though they might in all fairness have taken him before Mr. Mr. J. A. Kernahan, J. P., who resides within 3 miles of where they arrested him and also magistrates, Boyd and McMullen of Flesherton, all three of whom they passed before reaching the C. P. R. on their way to Owen Sound, and now, after Albert paying a large sum of money for doctors and hospital fees, as a result of being nearly sawed to pieces in Curran's sawmill four years ago, while doing work Curran had assigned to him, and getting no remuneraton from Curran, has now been put to another large expense and a lot of trouble to defend himself, and we understand there is no recourse, so Albert will have to foot the bill after being acquitted of the charge. We think if those officials who arrested him, and Curran, who had him arrested were used the same way, they would not be so keen to pile up the expense, and numbers of men in the court where heard to say, what a shame,—is this the British fair play we boast of?

The Rev. Purchase of Singhampton changed pulpits with the Rev. Pnimister last Sabbath in the interest of missions and gave us an excellent address.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Colquette visited with their daughter, Mrs. Harry Horton, on Monday last.

Mr. A. Heron has returned from the West, where he spent the summer with his son, Fred.

The pleople in this village and neighborhood were greatly shocked to hear of the murder of Mrs. Henry Love at Ceylon, last week, a number of people here being acquainted with Mr and Mrs. Love.

Killed in Threshing Machine

Sudden indeed was the death tha overtook Edward H. Halbert, a popular young Mono township farmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Halbert, Gordon street, Shelburne, about 4.30 o'clock Thursday afternoon of last week, on his own farm lot 29, con 2, east, Mono.

Charles Sanford's thresher was at work on the farm and Mr. Halbert, unknown to the men, was in a narrow space between the barn wall and the cleaner of the separator, where he had apparently gone to remove some grain that had accumulated. What is known as the deck belt had come off the lower pulley and Mr. Halbert had evidently attempted to put in on again without having the engine stopped. He was pulled into the machinery, and whirled between the two shafts and one arm literally torn off, besides terrible bruises to the head and chest. The men running the engine knew something was the matter and stopped the engine, but had no idea of the terrible accident that happened till they went to investigate and found the body of the unfortunate young man. He was unconscious when found and did not live more than ten minutes after the accident.—Shelburne Economist.

Will Give $500 to Sick Readers of Advance

Famous Scientist who Originated the Now Wonderful "Home Treatment" Offers $1.00 Package Free to Sick and Ailing.

In order that every reader of The Advance who may not have heard of this wonderful "Home Treatment" may have an opportunity to test this celebrated medicine, the now famous scientist, Dr. James W. Kidd, offers to give absolutely free a full size $1.00 package to five hundred readers of this paper, to prove the wonderful claims which have been made for it. In making this offer the scientist said: "I know that there are many people who have been suffering for years with some chronic disease and many of them have spent large sums of money seeking a cure. I know that these people hesitate about investing money in medicine because they have despaired of ever getting well. Thousands have told me that story and many thousands of the same people have told me afterwards that my treatment had cured them after doctors and everything else had failed. I want to prove to a limited number—no matter what the disease, no matter how long they may have suffered, no matter how blue and discouraged—that my treatment really and actually does accomplish the wonderful results that have been reported."

People who suffer from Rheumatism, Kidney Trouble, Stomach Trouble, Liver or Bowel Disorders, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Chronic Coughs, Weak Lungs, Lumbago, Piles, Urinary Disorders, Female weakness of any kind, the weak, worn out, broken-down and despondent will be delighted at the effect of a few doses. This wonderful treatment creates a fine appetite and helps the digestive organs to carry on their functions as they should. It strengthens the kidneys, too, and drives rheumatism poisons from the blood as if by magic. That is why people who try it become so enthusiastic.

Any reader of The Advance who will try this extraordinary medicine that has created so much excitement by its cures can obtain absolutely free a full $1.00 treatment by simply filling in the coupon below or writing a letter describing their case in their own words, if they prefer, and mailing it to-day to James W. Kidd, Toronto, Canada. No money need be sent and no charge of any kind will be made.

As this offer is limited, you should write at once, in order to be sure to receive your free treatment.

Flesherton, - - Ontario.

The closest approach to a beheading that was ever known in Walkerton occurred at the Knechtel furniture factory here on Saturday morning last, when the huge elevator dropped like an axe from a guillotine onto the neck of Peter Dietner, and that he is alive to-day to tell the story is one of the mysteries of an age of wonders. It was while leaning over the elevator gate looking down into the shaft below that Dietner was almost jarred into another world by the elevator descending from above and swatting him near the collar. He was up-ended by the blow, his feet flying automatically into the air, while his head was crushed downward and jammed between the elevator and the gate, a probable space of three inches. What might have happened had not one of the spokes in the gate broken and let his head through is not pleasant to contemplate, but it is altogether probable that his cranium would have been crushed and flattened out like the pattern on a door mat. As it was his neck was so badly scraped and his face so badly scratched that his pet dog wouldn't likely have known him, let alone his family. He was taken to the hospital, where Dr. Fraser patched up the damage and set him on the road to recovery again. As a sensational escape from the hands of the coffin trust it has probably few equals in local history.—Walkerton Herald and Times.

Mrs. Charles Tebbutt of Berkeley, the heroic mother, who was badly burned in the attempt to save her child, which was burned to death when the house was burned, on Nov. 29th succumbed to her injuries in the Owen Sound hospital on Saturday morning. The remains were laid at rest in McLean's Cemetery, near Walters Falls on Monday.—The sorrowing husband has the sympathy of a large circle of friends in his sad bereavemen.—Chatsworth News.
