"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life; Jurden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving results. physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsapa-rilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength im-proved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions. I found myself a well directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."

TH BRALL Priests in Politics.

New York, Nov. 1.-G. W. Smalley cables to the Sunday Tribune : Making every allowunder municipal or under any purely Irish control these mobs would have been allowed to fight it cut, the police probably taking sides with one. There have been threats of burning the city. Certainly attacks on the rival headquarters of each party have been planned and prevented. Nothing but the steady hand of English rule has saved Cork, and nowhere else has been seen of late a more perfect of ject lesson of Home Rule. The priests in Ireland are playing their game, I will not say too low down, but too openly for prudence. They forget the English gallery looking on—and the American. Cork is at this moment the scene of their most interesting performance. If you care to see what Irish priests are like in politics Our Notion Departm't look at them in Cork Eighty of them were on the platform at Mr. Dillion's meeting on Tuesday night. The platform was black with them. The streets are black with them. No such black band has been seen of late Might well be called the years even in Irish politics, nor bent on business so black. Their business is to rivet "Omnium gathering" of the business so black. Their business is to rivet the political fetters of Rome on the neck of store. A Spring Medicine.

There are few who do not at this season feel the need of a spring medicine, and to all such we recommend Lane's Family Medicine as the best. This is a pleasant herb dried roots and herbs. Draggists sell the packages at 50c and $1. It is the best as well the pleasantest cure for constipation and headache.—55.

It is the most strongly fortified city in Canada, as the huge carnon frowning over the em-bankments testify. We lost no time in exploring the city. After viewing the citadel we drove out to the "Plains of Abraham" and there viewed with mingled teelings the monu-Nov 18 ment erected to the memory of General Wolfe, Nov 20 who fell at the hour of victory Then the public buildings which are numerous and handsome were passed, after which we visited the Falls of Montmorency. These falls are some seven miles out of the city, the drive being along the St. Lawrence. This attraction proves a great source of revenue to the proprietor of the grounds and to the cab-men, but is a source of poverty to the tourist.

Too Transparent.

NORLAND, Nov. 3rd, 1891 To the Editor of The Warder.

DEAR SIR,-In dealing with the characteristic epistle in last week's issue of the Post, purporting to be written by the directors of the Laxton Branch Agricultural Society, I shall endeavor to trespass on as little space as possible in showing the public how the author of this libelious and absurd article would deceive them. Among the directors of this society as appointed at the last annual meeting are the following gentlemen:—G. W. Ailely, J. C. Argue, W. Batty, James Kay, W. Ward, James A. Wakelin, A. B. H. Carl and Hugh Bailey; but these are not the authors of that tirade of abuse, notwithstanding it is given to the public on the responsibility of these men. No, we have only found one man after numer-ous enquiries that acknowledges any responsi-bility in the matter. That gentleman is Mr. William Broadway of this village. It is true another gentleman, Mr. John F. Russell, adsail down Lake Ontario. The scenery along mits that he was the party who wrote it, but the banks where the eye could discern is flat says that it was dictated to him by the said and aninteresting. The lake itself being Mr William Broadway and another gentleman whom we will not at present name; who will,

Now we will deal with the famous letter.
