Fellowship among young people is not merely in the singing, but in the living of "Blest be the tie that binds."

THE REFORM FARMERS OF VICTORIA.—It must be humiliating to the staunch reform farmers of Victoria county, the autumn evenings, as they sit around their hearths, listening to the tales of the "Patent Combination," proving themselves by perusing useful books, for it is a great mistake to think the farmer does not improve himself, to reflect on the arguments advanced by the "Patent Combination" to prevent any of their number being appointed Registrar of Victoria.

There was a lucrative office, not a merely nominal title, but one such as scores of farmers can fill better than the man who was forced into it. Farmers who had worked long and arduously for the party were induced to drive early and late to carry the tidings of the party for the reform party, the prize being insignificantly dangled before them.

But as soon as the real struggle came these broad minded, staunch citizens were coolly given to understand that they were "too ignorant to fill the office of Registrar."

Was ever such an insult offered intelligent and capable men? To compare them in intelligence or depth of thought with the ignorant of the office is itself an insult. They are practically seen for themselves that all they are considered by their leaders to be fit for is doing the dirty and hard work for the Patent Combination.

That is the task assigned them and though they may "kick" a little, yet, when the time comes they will be whipped into line, so the leaders think, as in days of yore.

Farmers are eligible for any office in the land that such as the registrar of Victoria can fill.

Our grand business is not to see what lies dimly at a distance, but what lies clearly at hand.—Orley.

"SAY"—If you have any idea of buying anything in underwear or shirts, bolt for McCrimmon's, as he is giving them away for a mere song. The cheapest in the Dominion and the right place to get something new and nobby and fashionable.—4-17.
