The Advance has enough correspondence and other matter on hand to get out another paper and of necessity much of it has to be held over. We all have to exercise patience at this rush season of the year and do the best we can.

The Annual Meeting of the Liberal Conservative Association of East & Centre Grey will not be held as usual in January, but a date will be arranged for sometime during the summer months. This change has been made in pursuance of a motion passed at the last annual meeting, because of the stormy weather and bad roads that so often prevent those coming from a distance being present in January. Notice of the exact date will be given later.

Read Boyd's big ad. on back page.

Dr. Joseph Stafford of McGill University spent the holidays with relatives here.

The young people indulged in carol singing on Christmas Eve. It is a pretty cuatom and should not be allowed to die out.

Mrs. W. A. Armstrong received a rather unique Christmas present last week from a sister in California in the form of a necklace manufactured from rose petals. She values the keepsake very highly.

Mr. T. Blakeley went to Meaford on Monday and returned Tuesday with two Barber waterwheels which he is installing in his factory here. One is intended for chopping and the other for the sash and door factory. When installed Mr. Blakeley will be prepared to do chopping the year round.

Presbyterian Concert

The Presbyterian Sunday School is to be congratulated on the success of their Christmas entertainment. Rev. H. E. Wellwood, pastor of the Methodist church, acted as chairman, and presided over an extremely interesting program. Violin solos by Messrs. James Bowler and Jeff Thistlewaite were much appreciated, as was also a piano solo by Miss Reta Buskin. The choruses and drills by members of the school were very good, and showed the great pains which had been taken in training the children. In fact the whole program was so good that it would be difficult to single out the best of the local talent although special mention should be made of solos by R. N. Cornfield and Miss Vera McMullen, and a very funny recitation on "Women" by Stewart McTavish.

Mr. Ellwood Genoa, elocutionist, of Toronto, is well-known to Flesherton audiences, and his previous record was, if possible excelled. Mr. Genoa is a most pleasing entertainer, who has perfectly developed the faculty of amusing an audience. He also excels in more serious and higher-class work, and the fact that this is his second appearance here in three months is evidence of the favourable impression he has created.

Mr. W. R. Curry, of Toronto, is one of the best bass singers Flesherton people have had the pleasure of hearing. This was his first visit here, but should he come again he may be assured of a bumper reception. Both these gentlemen were enthusiastically encored, and very generously responded to the applause, Mr. Genoa giving eight selections in all.

At the end of the program Santa Claus appeared and unloaded a sparkling, shining Christmas tree, which had been filled with presents for the scholars. The church was well crowded, and the proceeds amounted to $63.30.

"We Told You So"

About six weeks ago The Advance announced that the Eugenia waterpower had been sold to the Hydro-Electric Commission but that the papers would not be signed until about the first of the year. The Toronto dailies denied the truth of this and the county papers echoed the denial, but events have proved that The Advance knew what it was talking about. Last week an official announcement was made confirming our statement.

The price paid by the Commission is sixty thousand and they get possession in one month. No doubt the coming summer will see developments in full swing on this power and things will once more boom at Eugenia. It will, it is expected, also place Flesherton once more in the zone of light, and that before many moons have come and gone.

Standfield's Underwear the Centre of a Grea Deal of Controversy and Contention

FOR THE PAST MONTH we have seen a good deal of contention between local merchants in regard to Stanfield's Underwear. We find one claiming to have the sole agency for Markdale; another stating he has the goods at the right prices; and now we say to you: if you want to buy Standfield's Underwear, the genuine article, branded and stamped, at less money than you pay elsewhere, you will have to come to this store for it. The proof is being able to deliver the goods. So come to this store expecting to buy Stanfield's Underwear less than you will have to pay elsewhere. Remember we claim to have no monoply of this line, but we have the goods and the prices are right.
